

3d. Shall the article declaring that this treaty shall not affect any pre-existing treaties be agreed to?
 Two thirds of the members not concurring the question was lost, and of consequence the new article was not agreed to.
 4th. Shall the article limiting the treaty to eight years be agreed to?
 This question was agreed to by nearly an unanimous vote.

The first three numbers of form of ratification being virtually disagreed to, the ratification remained unconditional, except as to the limitation of the treaty to eight years.

On agreeing to this form of ratification there were 16 yeas—14 nays.

The ratification was therefore lost, there not being two thirds of the members in favour of it.

The yeas and nays were as follow:—

We understand that some doubt is entertained of the conclusiveness of the vote in senate.

* The disagreeing to this article, arose altogether from the opinion entertained on all hands that it was unnecessary, as the same effect would be produced without it, that would be produced by it.

BALTIMORE, January 27.

By a gentleman who passed through this town yesterday, from the city of Washington, on his way to Norristown, in Montgomery county, we are informed, that he is the bearer of a general pardon, granted by the president of the United States, to all the remaining unfortunate Germans, who were sentenced to fine and imprisonment, for misdemeanors in the Northampton insurrection. [Lancaster Intel.]

January 28.

In the house of representatives of the state of Delaware, in Friday the 16th instant, the following resolution, with the recital, was agreed to; ayes 11, noes 7, viz.

Whereas the opening of a communication between the Delaware river and the Chesapeake bay, by means of a canal, will be very beneficial to the agricultural and commercial interests of this state, and at the same time beneficial to our neighbouring states Pennsylvania and Maryland: And whereas, considered in a great national view, upon principles of a liberal, extended and enlightened policy, in relation to the union, of which this state is a member, it is an object of the first importance, which if attained, will promote the general welfare: And whereas it may be contemplated at a future day as a source of revenue to this state:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to bring in a bill for the above purpose, calculated to accomplish so desirable an object, consistent with the rights and interests of the state, and the good people thereof.

A memorial has been presented to congress from the legislature of Georgia, protesting against the establishment by the United States, of the government of the Mississippi Territory within the limits of the said state.

Charles Lewis Seigfried and Charlotte his wife.
 THE object of the bill filed in this cause is, that the complainant may have a decree to be paid out of the real estate of Alexander Frazier, deceased, now belonging to Charlotte Seigfried, the above defendant, the sum of two hundred and twenty pounds sterling, with interest from the 1st day of January, 1775, which sum is due by a bond dated on the 3d day of November, 1774, and executed by the said Alexander Frazier, and Mark Frazier his security, to Daniel Dulany, John Ridout, and Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer, trustees for Elizabeth Lowndes. The bill states, that the defendants reside out of the state of Maryland; it is thereupon, on the motion of the complainant, ordered and adjudged, that they cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette three times before the first day of March next, to the intent that the defendants may have notice of the present application, and of the substance and object of the bill, and that they may be warned to appear in this court, in person, or by solicitor, on or before the first day of July next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass as prayed.

In CHANCERY, February 3, 1801.
 Joseph Court,
 against

John K. Smith, Mary Smith, Dennis A. Smith, Lydia Smith, Gilbert H. Smith, William Smith, Alexander H. Smith, and Joseph Byus, and the attorney-general.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a sale of the equitable in trust in certain lands purchased by a certain Thomas Dobbins of Gilbert H. Smith, for the payment of a debt due from Dobbins to the complainant. The bill states, that the said Dobbins purchased of the said Gilbert H. Smith certain lands in Anne-Arundel county, called Gover's Fun, Knighton's Purchase, and Broughton Ashley, that he obtained a bond for the conveyance, and executed his bond for the purchase money; that he was indebted to the complainant in the sum of £.403 16 11, for money by him paid on the purchase aforesaid; that Dobbins has died intestate, leaving no known heir capable of inheriting or taking the said lands, and without leaving sufficient personal estate for the payment of his debts contracted within this state; that the said Gilbert H. Smith is also dead intestate, leaving the defendants, or some of them, his heirs at law; it is thereupon, on the complainant's motion, adjudged and ordered, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted three times in the Maryland Gazette before the end of the present month, to the intent that the heir, if any there be, of the said Dobbins, or any other person interested in the lands purchased as aforesaid, may have notice of this bill, and of the subject and object thereof, and may appear, on or before the first day of July next, to shew cause wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

A. C. HANSON, Chancellor.

NOTICE.

THIS is to inform all those who have land adjoining the tract of land called BOWLING'S RESERVE, that Mary Queen, Margaret Queen, Clementina Queen, Sarah Queen, and Elizabeth Queen, intend to petition the next Charles county court for a commission to mark and bound the aforesaid land, agreeably to an act of assembly in such case made and provided.

MARY QUEEN,

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 20th of November, a negro man named JEM, he is about 20 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches high, smooth face, large flat nose, big mouth, and thick lips; had on when he went away, a cloth coloured camblet coat, a pair of new white kersey breeches, and a new unbrag shirt. He has two sisters who are the property of Mr. George Wallace and Mr. Richard Marshall, living between Magothy river and the Bodkin Point; he was in that neighbourhood for ten days or a fortnight after leaving home, and then had on an old blue coat. Whoever takes up the said negro, and secures him in Annapolis, or any other place, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward.

JOHN GALLOWAY,

TO THE PUBLIC.

BEING very desirous to close the business of the late firm of YATES and CAMPBELL, I have assigned the greatest part of my private property, to secure the payment of every dollar owing by the said firm, as will appear by the following certificate of Gabriel Wood and Edward Harris, Esquires, and therefore take the liberty of notifying to the public, that I mean to resume the vendue business in February next, at the old auction room, at the corner of Baltimore and Frederick-streets, and solicit the patronage of my former employers, and the public generally, under a full assurance that my utmost abilities (in that line) shall be exerted for their interest; and all accounts settled with punctuality and dispatch, by their Most obedient,
 Humble servant,
 THOMAS YATES.
 Baltimore, January 10, 1801.

AT a meeting of the creditors of Yates and Campbell, at Mr. James Bryden's, the 8th of December last, it appeared from the insolvencies of many of Yates and Campbell's debtors, that there would not be partnership property sufficient to pay the claims against the said firm, and that Mr. Yates's property would be eventually answerable for the deficiency.

The creditors then present took the circumstances under consideration, and proposed to give Mr. Yates an indulgence of time for the payment of the debts due by Yates and Campbell, provided he, the said Yates, would secure the full payment of the debts, by an assignment of property, agreeable to a list he then produced, which proposals Mr. Yates readily agreed to, and has since conveyed the same (in trust) for the security of the creditors generally.—And Mr. Yates signifying his intention of resuming the vendue business, we conceive it a justice due him, to declare that his conduct in the arrangement made for the final adjustment of all claims against the partnership of Yates and Campbell, merit our approbation, and we believe, the creditors generally.

G. WOOD, } Trustees for the creditors of
 E. HARRIS, } Yates and Campbell.

N. B. The engagements which Mr. Yates has made for the settlement of Yates and Campbell's business, makes it necessary to inform the debtors to the said concern, that suits will be commenced (without respect to persons) to the ensuing courts, unless their balances are adjusted and settled with Mr. Yates previous thereto.
 GABRIEL WOOD,
 EDWARD HARRIS.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 1st day of August last, a negro man named BASIL, about 25 or 26 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, yellowish complexion, full eyes, large feet, with remarkable long toes, hands and fingers similar to his feet and toes; he received a kick (some years since) from a horse on the lower part of one of his legs, which occasioned a loss of part of the bone; and it is probable there is a scar on that part of his leg. He may have obtained a pass from some person, and got into Baltimore city, as he lived at the Point, with Dr. Duckett, ten or twelve years since. Any person taking up said negro, and delivering him to the subscriber, or securing him so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward.
