

In CHANCERY, February 2, 1801.
Rebecca Dulany, executrix of Daniel Dulany, surviving trustee, against

Charles Lewis Seigfried and Charlotte his wife.
THE object of the bill filed in this cause is, that the complainant may have a decree to be paid out of the real estate of Alexander Frazier, deceased, now belonging to Charlotte Seigfried, the above defendant, the sum of two hundred and twenty pounds sterling, with interest from the 1st day of January, 1775, which sum is due by a bond dated on the 2d day of November, 1774, and executed by the said Alexander Frazier, and Mark Frazier his security, to Daniel Dulany, John Ridout, and Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer, trustees for Elizabeth Lowndes. The bill states, that the defendants reside out of the state of Maryland; it is thereupon, on the motion of the complainant, ordered and adjudged, that they cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette three times before the first day of March next, to the intent that the defendants may have notice of the present application, and of the substance and object of the bill, and that they may be warned to appear in this court, in person, or by solicitor, on or before the first day of July next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass as prayed.

In CHANCERY, February 3, 1801.
Joseph Court,
against

John K. Smith, Mary Smith, Dennis A. Smith, Lydia Smith, Gilbert H. Smith, William Smith, Alexander H. Smith, and Joseph Byus, and the attorney-general.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a sale of the equitable in trust in certain lands purchased by a certain Thomas Dobbins of Gilbert H. Smith, for the payment of a debt due from Dobbins to the complainant. The bill states, that the said Dobbins purchased of the said Gilbert H. Smith certain lands in Anne-Arundel county, called Gover's Fun, Knighton's Purchase, and Broughton Ashley, that he obtained a bond for the conveyance, and executed his bond for the purchase money; that he was indebted to the complainant in the sum of £403 16 11, for money by him paid on the purchase aforesaid; that Dobbins has died intestate, leaving no known heir capable of inheriting or taking the said lands, and without leaving sufficient personal estate for the payment of his debts contracted within this state; that the said Gilbert H. Smith is also dead intestate, leaving the defendants, or some of them, his heirs at law; it is thereupon, on the complainant's motion, adjudged and ordered, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted three times in the Maryland Gazette before the end of the present month, to the intent that the heir, if any there be, of the said Dobbins, or any other person interested in the lands purchased as aforesaid, may have notice of this bill, and of the subject and object thereof, and may appear, on or before the first day of July next, to shew cause wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

Annapolis, January, 1801.

THE subscriber presents his most respectful compliments to those indebted to him, and earnestly solicits payment of their respective balances; he pleads poverty with great truth, and assures them, that nothing less than payments from them will enable him to comply with the indispensable obligation he is under of paying his just debts.

FREDERICK GREEN.

TO THE PUBLIC.

BEING very desirous to close the business of the late firm of YATES and CAMPBELL, I have assigned the greatest part of my private property, to secure the payment of every dollar owing by the said firm, as will appear by the following certificate of Gabriel Wood and Edward Harris, Esquires, and therefore take the liberty of notifying to the public, that I mean to resume the vendue business in February next, at the old auction room, at the corner of Baltimore and Frederick-streets, and solicit the patronage of my former employers, and the public generally, under a full assurance that my utmost abilities (in that line) shall be exerted for their interest; and all accounts settled with punctuality and dispatch, by their

Most obedient,

Humble servant,

THOMAS YATES.

Baltimore, January 10, 1801.

AT a meeting of the creditors of Yates and Campbell, at Mr. James Bryden's, the 8th of December last, it appeared from the insolvencies of many of Yates and Campbell's debtors, that there would not be partnership property sufficient to pay the claims against the said firm, and that Mr. Yates's property would be eventually answerable for the deficiency.

The creditors then present took the circumstances under consideration, and proposed to give Mr. Yates an indulgence of time for the payment of the debts due by Yates and Campbell, provided he, the said Yates, would secure the full payment of the debts, by an assignment of property, agreeable to a list he then produced, which proposals Mr. Yates readily agreed to, and has since conveyed the same (in trust) for the security of the creditors generally.—And Mr. Yates signifying his intention of resuming the vendue business, we conceive it a justice due him, to declare that his conduct in the arrangement made for the final adjustment of all claims against the partnership of Yates and Campbell, merit our approbation, and we believe, the creditors generally.

G. WOOD, } Trustees for the creditors of
E. HARRIS, } Yates and Campbell.

N. B. The engagements which Mr. Yates has made for the settlement of Yates and Campbell's business, makes it necessary to inform the debtors to the said concern, that suits will be commenced (without respect to persons) to the ensuing courts, unless their balances are adjusted and settled with Mr. Yates previous thereto.

GABRIEL WOOD,
EDWARD HARRIS.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 20th of November, a negro man named JEM, he is about 20 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches high, smooth face, large flat nose, big mouth, and thick lips; had on when he went away, a cloth coloured camblet coat, a pair of new white kersey breeches, and a new osnabrig shirt. He has two sisters who are the property of Mr. George Wallace and Mr. Richard Marshall, living between Magothy river and the Bodkin Point, he was in that neighbourhood for ten days or a fortnight after leaving home, and then had on an old blue coat. Whoever takes up the said negro, and secures him in Annapolis, or any other gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward.
