

BALTIMORE, April 15.
PARIS, February 12.

Letters from Copenhagen of the 24th January, state, that Mr. Olsen, the Danish ambassador, had fet out for Bourdeaux, there to embark for North-America. The object of his mission is said to be a new commercial arrangement between the two countries.

April 16.

A postscript of a letter from an intelligent gentleman in Nassau, (N. P.) to a respectable mercantile house in Charleston, dated the 11th ult. mentions:

"The judge declared yesterday in court, that condemnations of American vessels to Spanish ports were illegal: That he had received orders from England, directing restitution to be made by the owners of privateers.—This looks well."

MECHANICAL INVENTION.

A William Stillman, of Virginia, has lately obtained a patent for a new machine called the venering plough, "invented for the purpose of cutting the grooves in cabinet ware, in which are to be applied various coloured woods for ornaments in said ware. The peculiar properties of this machine are, that it costs but little, and will expedite the business in a very great degree." Specimens of the machine are to be seen at Peter Meem's, George-town, Patowmack; where applications, either for machines or patent rights, are to be directed.

April 17.

There were imported into Kingston, Jamaica, in the months of April, May, June and July, 1800, from Africa, 6712 negro slaves!!!

April 18.

The Prude, arrived at this port from St. Bartholomew, on her passage was boarded by the Hornet troop of war, in company with 13 fail of British ships, destined against St. Bartholomew and St. Martin. It is conjectured by some, that the appearance of those ships originated the report of a French fleet contained in the letter from St. Croix published yesterday.

District of Maryland, to wit:

BE it remembered, That on the tenth day of April, in the twenty-fifth year of the independence of the United States of America, Thomas HARRIS junior, of the said district, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as author, in the words and figures following, to wit:

"MODERN ENTRIES,

ADAPTED TO THE AMERICAN COURTS OF JUSTICE, BEING A COMPLETE SYSTEM OF APPROVED PRECEDENTS, CONSISTING OF CONVEYANCING, DECLARATIONS, ENTRIES, PLEAS, REPLICATIONS, &c. and WRITS.

WITH AN INDEX

TO THE PRINCIPAL WORK, AND OF REFERENCE TO MOST OF THE ANCIENT AND MODERN ENTRIES.

By THOMAS HARRIS, JUNIOR, OF THE GENERAL COURT OFFICE, MARYLAND."

In conformity to the act of the congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned.

In witness whereof, I have hereto set my hand, and affixed the seal of my office, this tenth day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and one.

PHILIP MOORE, Clerk
District Court, Maryland.

CITY TAVERN,

Sign of the Indian King and Queen, ANNAPOLIS.

WILLIAM CATON

RETURNS his sincere thanks to his friends and the public for the encouragement he has received since his commencing his present business, and assures them that nothing shall be wanting on his part to give general satisfaction to all who may please to honour him with their custom. His house is now completely provided with every necessary article of the best quality, and he solicits the encouragement and patronage of a generous public.

He has rented that large, airy, and commodious house lately occupied by Mrs. Mann, where ladies and gentlemen can be accommodated with board and lodging, distinct from his tavern, in a handsome style, at a reduced price, by the day, month, or year.

Having provided himself with the best hay and oats, he will take horses to stand at livery, on the lowest terms. He has also laid in a large quantity of ice for the summer season.

LLOYD M. LOWE,

BEGS leave to inform the public in general, and his friends in particular, that he has removed to the house in Corn-Hill-street, formerly the property of Beriah Maybury, where he will take boarders by the day, week, month or year, and endeavour to give satisfaction.

He has also opened a grocery store, where he keeps a general assortment of groceries of the best kind, which he will sell for cash on the most reasonable terms.

Annapolis, April 16, 1801.

This is to give notice,
