John Dawson is re-elected member of congress from the district in Virginia to which Fredericksburg belongs.

A correspondent in London, from whom we have received several late London papers, per the Sampson, arrived at New-York, under date of March 20th, writes, "Report says, (though not generally believed) that the Danes and Swedes are to be given up."

May 1. The following information has been received by the chamber of commerce of this city, and may be relied on as authentic:

"London, 23d January, 1801. A reform in the vice-admiralty courts of the West-Indies, has at length been determined on, and orders were yesterday dispatched to the West-Indies suppressing all the vice-admiralty courts, except two; one at Jamaica, and another in the windward islands. It is proposed to establish permanent salaries for these two courts, and to appoint men of learning and abilities to preside in them."

"London, 25th February, 1801. The court at Halifax is immediately to be reformed. Hereafter there are to be but three vice-admiralty courts in America; two in the West-Indies, and the third at Halifax; the judges will be taken from the corps of civilians, and they are to receive adequate and permanent salaries. It is further stated, that capt. Pelew would be recalled, and that neither he nor capt. Cochran would hereafter be employed on the American station."

BALTIMORE, May 1. By the arrival of the Franklin, from St. Bartholomews, we have confirmation of the capture of that place—it was taken the 20th ult. American property remained sacred and unmolested. St. Croix and St. Thomas are reported to have surrendered on or about the 27th March. Previous to the taking of St. Martins much resistance was made by the inhabitants.

Annapolis, April 30.

Mr. JOHN HALL, late resident of Queen-Anne, departed this life 4th April, in the 19th year of his age.

HE is gone, the much lov'd youth is gone, From whence, alas! he will no more return. How short the radiance of thy rising ray, Just call'd to shine—and only shine a day: Yet why lament, 'twas God that call'd away, 'Twas virtuous sure, the summons to obey; Now joy supremely great he does receive, And dwells with him who died that we might live. Yet tears will flow for one so dear, And friendship demands the tributary tear To thy lov'd memory—be those humble lays, Whose early merit awakes the voice of praise. Thy follies none,—but purity and truth, And spotless innocence, adorn'd his youth. His generous soul, that scorn'd each mean disguise, Seard sublime, and fought the highest prize. But lost those charms, the lovely youth is fled, And sorrowing friendship counts him with the dead. Thus spread the early lilly to the day, And leaves its bosom to the grateful ray; In Nature's gay simplicity it stands, And yields delight,—and modest praise commands. When a blast from baleful breathing skies, Abates the flower, it droops its head and dies. 2X

HENRY HOWARD, Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county. May 5, 1801.

TAKEN up as a stray by CHARLES HAMMOND, living on Elk-Ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, a dark brown HORSE, supposed to be twelve or thirteen years old, the hind left foot lame, and has a new shoe on, has an old shoe on the right foot, and none on before, he appears to have been brown, is thin, and surfeited, and has warts about his right eye. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges. 3X April 10, 1801.

THE subscriber takes an early opportunity to inform his friends that he intends to be a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county, at the next election, and respectfully solicits a continuance of their favours; he returns them his sincere thanks for the honourable support which he received at the last election, when he was fairly and honestly elected Sheriff of the county, but failed to obtain the commission from an unexpected construction of a deed which he had executed for a part of his real estate; every cause of dispute on this ground will be removed in future, that the suffrages of his fellow-citizens may have their full effect. If chosen every care and attention will be paid to the duties of the office, which he trusts will be discharged with integrity, and in a manner satisfactory to all parties.
