GEORGE WALKER.

Washington city, May 1, 1801.

NOTICE.

ALL persons having claims against the estate of WILLIAM SEFTON, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, are requested to bring them in, legally authenticated, and those indebted to said estate are desired to make immediate payment.

SAMUEL WATKINS, Executor.

May 18, 1801.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber hath obtained from the Orphans court of Saint-Mary's county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of JOHN SMITH, senior, late of Saint-Mary's county, deceased, all persons having claims against the said deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, on or before the 18th day of November next, they may otherwise be excluded by law from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 18th day of May, 1801.

BENNET WALKER, Administrator de bonis non.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, about the first of January last, negro JENNY, upwards of forty years of age, she was formerly the property of Mr. THOMAS JONES, of this county, from whom I purchased her when she had been upwards of twelve months run away, and was during part of that time in the neighbourhood of Herring Bay, where she may be lurking at this time, or she may have endeavoured to get off to the Susquehanna, where she has a mother living with Mr. Philip Thomas. Also, negro TOM, who calls himself TOM PEEL, run away about the third instant, he went off with permission to look for the above negro Jenny, who he claims as his wife. Whoever will take up said negroes, and secure them in any gaol, so that I get them again, shall receive for negro JENNY EIGHT DOLLARS, and for negro TOM TWELVE DOLLARS, and if brought home all reasonable charges, paid by FREDERICK SKINNER.

Calvert county, April 28, 1801.

THERE are at the subscriber's plantation, near the Governor's Bridge, two stray MARES, one a bay, about thirteen hands two inches high, three years old, bob-tail, cut mane and fore-top, foxed ears, and shod before; the other mouse coloured, white hands high, about eight years old, switch tail, full mane, a small star in her forehead, shod before, and branded on the near thigh with the letter S. The owner or owners may have them on proving property and paying charges.

JOSEPH POWELL.

Prince-George's county, May 15, 1801.

THIS is to give notice, that the subscriber hath obtained from the orphans court of Charles county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of WILLIAM SWANN, late of Charles county, deceased, all persons having claims against the said deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the first day of October next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 23d day of March, 1801.

WILLIAM MORRISS.

THIS is to give notice, that the subscriber hath obtained letters of administration on the personal estate of JOHN MERRIKEN, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased; he therefore requests all persons who have claims against said estate to bring them in, according to law, and all those who are in any manner indebted are desired to make payment, to

RICHARD JACOB, jun. administrator.

The sale will commence at 12 o'clock.

HENRY HOWARD, Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county.

May 5, 1801.

THE subscriber takes an early opportunity to inform his friends that he intends to be a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county, at the next election, and respectfully solicits a continuance of their favours; he returns them his sincere thanks for the honourable support which he received at the last election, when he was fairly and honestly elected Sheriff of the county, but failed to obtain the commission from an unexpected construction of a deed which he had executed for a part of his real estate; every cause of dispute on this ground will be removed in future, that the suffrages of his fellow-citizens may have their full effect. If chosen every care and attention will be paid to the duties of the office, which he trusts will be discharged with integrity, and in a manner satisfactory to all parties.

JASPER EDWARD TILLY.

AMZI BATEMAN, Administrator.

May 5, 1801.

District of Maryland, to wit:

BE it remembered, That on the tenth day of April, in the twenty-fifth year of the independence of the United States of America, Thomas Harris, junior, of the said district, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as author, in the words and figures following, to wit:

"MODERN ENTRIES,

ADAPTED TO THE AMERICAN COURTS OF JUSTICE,
BEING A COMPLETE SYSTEM

OF

APPROVED PRECEDENTS,

CONSISTING OF

CONVEYANCING, DECLARATIONS, ENTRIES, PLEAS,
REPLICATIONS, &c. and WRITS.

WITH AN INDEX

TO THE PRINCIPAL WORK, AND OF REFERENCE TO
MOST OF THE ANCIENT AND MODERN ENTRIES.

By THOMAS HARRIS, JUNIOR,

OF THE GENERAL COURT OFFICE, MARYLAND."

In conformity to the act of the congress of the United States, entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned.

In witness whereof, I have hereto set my hand, and affixed the seal of my office, this tenth day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and one.

PHILIP MOORE, Clerk
District Court, Maryland.

TAKEN up as a stray, by the subscriber, a small black MARE, about 13½ hands high, four years old, with three white feet, and a blaze face, her gait is a trot and gallop, and her back has been much injured by the saddle. The owner is requested to prove property, pay charges, and take her away.

JOHN CHEW THOMAS.

April 21, 1801.

THIS is to give notice, that the subscriber, of Anne-Arundel county, in the State of Maryland, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters testamentary on the personal estate of JAMES GAITHER, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber at or before the ninth day of September next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this first day of April, 1801.

PATIENCE GAITHER, Executrix of James.

Warning to Trespassers.

NOTICE, I have purchased STRAWBERRY-HILL, near Annapolis, and hereby forewarn all persons from hunting with either dog or gun, or cutting, or in any manner trespassing thereon, as I am determined to put the law in force against all offenders.

WILLIAM CATON.
Annapolis, April 6, 1801.

MAIL STAGE.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform the public, that he has commenced running a stage between Centre-Ville, in Queen-Anne's county, on the eastern shore of Maryland, to the city of Washington, by the way of Queen's-town, Shirk-town, and Broad Creek, Kent-Island, to Annapolis, twice a week, to wit: Leave Centre-Ville every Monday and Thursday morning about five o'clock, and arrive early said day in Annapolis; leave Annapolis every Tuesday and Friday morning about six o'clock, and arrive at Centre-Ville said day in the afternoon. Line of stages to Washington City from Annapolis takes passengers from my stage on Tuesday, and any passengers that may leave the city of Washington on Friday morning will get a ready passage in my stage on Friday morning. The fare for each passenger from Centre-Ville to Annapolis, or from Annapolis to Centre-Ville, is two dollars and twenty-five cents, way passengers six cents per mile. The subscriber hopes to meet with encouragement from a generous public, as he has provided himself with a good stage and horses, together with a sober and careful driver. The subscriber has a stage to leave Easton, by the way of Centre-Ville, twice a week to Chester-town, there connects with a line to Philadelphia three times a week, so that travellers will not be detained from going to any part, as the subscriber has at all times private single and double carriages to hire to any part of the line. Four packets running to Baltimore every week, so that a passage is always sure.

RICHARD NEWMAN.
