

MORE FORGERIES.

Where will villainy end! An eagle bearing considerable resemblance to the real federal coin, was cut at the office of discount and deposit on Monday, and found to be composed principally of brass with a thin wash of gold. The false coin is greatly deficient in weight, and the body of the bird is considerably more than that of the true eagle. Others of the same kind it is supposed are in circulation.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

There are in circulation 20 dollar and 5 dollar counterfeit bank bills of the bank of the United States; the 20 dollar bills are payable at Philadelphia, the 5 dollar bills at the bank of discount and deposit in New-York. The bills are illy executed, particularly the five dollar bills, on the backs of which the words Corns. Ray, are a bad imitation. Those verified in these bills will at once detect them.

We hear from different parts of the country (says the George-town Museum) that the harvest of this year will reward the toils of the husbandman with uncommon liberality and give occasion for a double proportion of gladness and gratitude.

MORE KIDNAPPING!

A person of veracity from Montgomery county, relates the following singular instance of an infamous attempt at kidnapping, which took place near Clarksburg, on Tuesday morning last:—Four villains, two white and two mulattoes, overtook a couple of young white lads, about 14 years of age, on the road, whom they seized, carried into the woods, gagged in a most shocking manner, shaved their heads and bound them with cords; after which the villains went about a mile further to a tavern, for the purpose of taking breakfast.—During their absence, the oldest boy (son of Mr. John Reed, a respectable farmer) was so fortunate as to get himself loose, and proceeded home, with his mouth shockingly lacerated with the gag. The neighbourhood were directly alarmed, and the other boy recovered; but the villains escaped, except one, who was seized and committed. This event, so extraordinary, excited the greatest alarm in the county, and my informant adds, that the people of the neighbourhood had turned out with arms, to endeavour to overtake the fugitive villains.

HADDAWAY'S FERRY

And MAIL STAGE.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT a mail hath been established by law from the city of Annapolis, across the Chesapeake Bay, by the subscribers ferry to the town of Easton, in Talbot county. The mail leaves Annapolis on every Friday morning at 6 o'clock, and is carried in the subscriber's boat across the bay, to his landing on the eastern shore; from whence it is carried in his stage to Easton. It leaves Easton on every Saturday, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and returns to Annapolis by the same rout and conveyances. He hath provided himself, with a stage and team of horses, and two convenient boats, for the accommodation of passengers, which he proposes to run in the manner above mentioned, in conformity with the establishment of the mail, and flatters himself the public will derive from this scheme the greatest utility and satisfaction.

For the accommodation of passengers on other days, he shall hold his stage and packet boats in readiness at all times, when either may be necessary for the conveyance of persons; and to render the passage still more certain and expeditious, he has furnished himself with a chaise and saddle horses for their service.

The feat of government being now established at the city of Washington, it may be expected that the communications from thence to the eastern shore, through the city of Annapolis, will be frequent. To make them easy and commodious, is the design of the subscriber; and the same passage across the bay may be made subservient to the citizens of Baltimore.

His landing is excellent, and it very rarely happens in the winter that the passage is hindered by the ice: the road from thence to Easton is level and most agreeable to travellers.

The fare for every passenger from Easton to his landing is one dollar and twenty-five cents, and from his landing to Annapolis one dollar and three quarters. Baggage in the usual proportion.

Entertainment at his dwelling-house, near the landing, for passengers and horses, upon reasonable terms.
