T. N. STOCKETT, Administrator de bonis non of Richard Rawlings.

November, 1801.

To be SOLD by AUCTION, upon the premises, on Friday the first day of January next, if fair, if not the first fair day thereafter,

THAT well known TAVERN and plantation, now in the occupation of JOHN WOODARD, upon the road from Baltimore to Annapolis, and where the stage stops to dine on its return from Annapolis to Baltimore. The premises have undergone a thorough repair, and are in complete order for the business.

There are few better stands in Maryland for a tavern, the general government being removed to the City of Washington has caused a greater intercourse between that place by way of Annapolis and Baltimore than heretofore.

The payments will be made accommodating, a credit will be given for part of the purchase money, the purchaser giving bond, with security, and immediate possession given, by

NATHAN VENNUMS.

N. B. If not sold, it will be rented, and possession given as above; the corn upon the premises, and a parcel of manure in the yard, with the crop of rye now growing, will be sold on the same day. Sale to begin at 11 o'clock, forenoon.

December 8, 1801.

By the COMMITTEE of GRIEVANCES and COURTS of JUSTICE.

THE COMMITTEE of GRIEVANCES & COURTS of JUSTICE will sit every day, during the present session, from nine o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon.
