By virtue of a decree from the honorable the High Court of Chancery, the subscriber will SELL, at PUBLIC AUCTION, on Tuesday the 23d of February next, at the mansion of the late major RICHARD CHEW,

ALL the real estate of the said Richard Chew, consisting of about twelve hundred and twenty acres of land, in one body, situate in Anne-Arundel county, lying on the Chesapeake Bay, and forms the mouth of Herring Bay, twenty miles from Annapolis, fifty from Baltimore, and thirty-five from the city of Washington; this land is as rich and fertile as any on the Chesapeake, affords the most luxuriant pasturage, has a large proportion of meadow land, and the greatest abundance of fire wood and timber, and for ship building the best timber on the Chesapeake may be had on this land; the situation is healthy, and as beautiful a prospect as any on the bay, a good harbour, and the waters lying around the land afford the greatest abundance of excellent fish, crabs, oysters, and wild fowl. The improvements are valuable, consisting of a large two story brick dwelling-house, with four rooms and a commodious passage on each floor, with excellent cellars under the whole house, a large and elegant garden, laid off with falls, a good kitchen, and almost every other necessary out house. The very convenient situation of this land must be obvious to every person wishing to purchase, as the wood, timber, and the whole product of the land, can be removed from thence by water, and that in a few hours, to the markets of Annapolis and Baltimore.

A more minute description of this valuable property is thought unnecessary, as any person wishing to purchase can view the same, by applying to Doct. Richard Chew, who resides thereon, or to Mr. Philemon L. Chew, who lives within a few miles of it. The terms of sale are, that the purchaser or purchasers shall either pay down one sixth part of the purchase money on the day of sale, or give bond with security for the payment of the same on the chancellor's ratification, which will be in four weeks after return of the sale is to him made by the trustee, for the residue a bond, or bonds, are to be given, with security, on interest, to be approved by the chancellor, payable in two equal annual payments; and on the receipt of the whole of the purchase money, the subscriber, by a good deed indented, will give, grant, bargain, sell, and confirm to the purchaser or purchasers, his, her, or their heirs, the land sold to them, and all the right, title, interest, and estate therein and thereto, of the said Richard Chew, or his heirs, or any person claiming by, from, or under them. It is further ordered by the chancellor, that the creditors of the said deceased, who have not yet exhibited their claims, shall file the same in the court of chancery, with the vouchers thereof, before the first day of June next.

Twenty Dollars Reward.
 RAN away on the evening of the first instant, a negro man called CHARLES, a short black fellow, thirty-five years of age, strong and active, broad shoulders, large face, nose, mouth, and thick lips, marked in the face by the small-pox; his left ear is much smaller than the right; he walks remarkably wide, and turns his toes very much in. He went off about this time last year, and was out nine months, employed by, and taken in the house of, a free negro, who rents land of Samuel Ward, near Herring creek church, who knew him to be my slave; he has a quick way of speaking, and a remarkable down look when spoken to. It is presumed he will make for the Federal City, or Baltimore, and will endeavour to pass for a free man, and probably will take the name of, and may obtain a pass from some free negro. A reward of twenty dollars will be paid for taking and securing him at either of the above cities, or ten dollars if taken at a less distance, with reasonable expences if delivered, to Joseph Taylor, or W. BROGDEN, Anne-Arundel county, July 20, 1801.

To be SOLD, at PUBLIC VENDUE, to the highest bidder, for CASH, on Saturday the fifth day of February next,

THE subscriber's plantation, whereon he now lives, known by the name of BRAAN'S POINT, lying in Anne-Arundel county, on South river, half a mile above Quynn's ferry, seven from Annapolis, twenty-one from the city of Washington, and twenty-eight from Baltimore, containing one hundred and seventy-six acres, more or less, there are on the premises a strong tobacco inspection house, with sheds, prizes, weights and scales, all in complete order for the reception and inspection of tobacco, a good wharf, sufficient for loading and unloading of vessels; also a strong dwelling-house, with a cellar and fibre room, 3 well finished rooms, and fire place above stairs, paved yard and garden; a kitchen, two tobacco houses, stable, corn house, and all other necessary out houses; a good apple orchard, two springs of excellent water; there is a great quantity of wood and timber, among which are a number of valuable chestnut and locust trees, and also the great convenience of fish and wild fowl in their respective seasons; it is a stand for the mercantile business, to equal any in the county. Possession, and a good and indisputable title, will be given immediately to the purchaser, upon the whole of the money being paid down.

The subscriber will take a few likely negroes in part payment.

PRYSE, of the city of Annapolis, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at the last session, on the terms therein mentioned, and a schedule of his property; and a list of his creditors, so far as he can ascertain the same, on oath, being annexed to his petition, and the said Edward J. Pryse being a person known to the chancellor to be at this time, and to have been at the time of passing the said act, a citizen of this state, and of the United States, and the said Edward J. Pryse, at the time of presenting his petition, having produced to the chancellor the assent, in writing, of so many of his creditors, as have due to them, according to the list aforesaid, the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him, at the time of passing the said act; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the said Edward J. Pryse, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette; once in each of three successive weeks, during the present month, give notice to his creditors to appear in the chancery office, at eleven o'clock, on the twentieth day of February next, for the purpose of recommending some person to be trustee for their benefit, on the said Edward J.
