To be SOLD, at PUBLIC VENDUE, to the highest bidder, for CASH, on Saturday the sixth day of February next,

THE subscriber's plantation whereon he now lives, known by the name of BEARD'S POINT, lying in Anne-Arundel county, on South river, half a mile above Quynn's ferry, seven from Annapolis, twenty-one from the city of Washington, and twenty-eight from Baltimore, containing one hundred and seventy-six acres, more or less, there are on the premises a strong tobacco inspection house, with sheds, prizes, weights and scales, all in complete order for the reception and inspection of tobacco, a good wharf, sufficient for loading and unloading of vessels, also a strong dwelling-house, with a cellar and store room, 3 well finished rooms, and fire place above stairs, paved yard and garden, a kitchen, two tobacco houses, stable, corn house, and all other necessary out houses, a good apple orchard, two springs of excellent water; there is a great quantity of wood and timber, among which are a number of valuable chestnut and locust trees, and also the great convenience of fish and wild fowl in their respective seasons; it is a stand for the mercantile business, to equal any in the county. Possession, and a good and indisputable title, will be given immediately to the purchaser, upon the whole of the money being paid down.

The subscriber will take a few likely negroes in part payment.
THOMAS BEARD, Junr.
Beard's Point, January 11, 1802.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the evening of the first instant, a negro man called CHARLES, a short black fellow, thirty-five years of age, strong and active, broad shoulders, large face, nose, mouth, and thick lips, marked in the face by the small-pox; his left ear is much smaller than the right; he walks remarkably wide, and turns his toes very much in. He went off about this time last year, and was out nine months, employed by, and taken in the house of, a free negro, who rents land of Samuel Ward, near Herring creek church, who knew him to be my slave; he has a quick way of speaking, and a remarkable down look when spoken to. It is presumed he will make for the Federal City or Baltimore, and will endeavour to pass for a free man, and probably will take the name of, and may obtain a pass from, some free negro. A reward of twenty dollars will be paid for taking and securing him at either of the above cities, or ten dollars if taken a less distance, with reasonable expenses if delivered to Joseph Taylor, or
