Sixty Dollars Reward,

RAN away on the 12th of May, 1799, from the subscriber, living in Montgomery county, State of Maryland, near the court-house of said county, and within fifteen miles of the Federal City, a negro man named NED, strait, well made black fellow, five feet ten or eleven inches high, flutters much when examined, has a scar on the back of one of his hands occasioned by the cut of a knife.

On the 7th January, 1802, ran away negro WAT, a remarkable stout bodied black fellow, five feet eight or nine inches high, forty-five years of age, large full eyes, stoops in his shoulders, subject to fainting fits, and very fond of strong liquor; had on and took with him a negro cotton coat, jacket and breeches, a pair of coarse yarn stockings of country make, a pair of double soled shoes, a Bath coating grey coat, the cape bound with yellow, and a pair of red top boots, and sundry other cloaths which have escaped my memory. I expect they have forged a pass, and probably with the county seal. Whoever takes up the said fellows, and secures them so that I get them again, shall receive the above reward, or THIRTY DOLLARS for either of them, and reasonable travelling expences paid if brought home.

PROPOSALS,

For publishing by subscription,

A Treatise on the Art of Dentistry,

By B. T. Longbotham, Surgeon-Dentist,
No. 209, Market-Street Baltimore.

Copy right secured according to law.

THE author of the above treatise, encouraged by the approbation he has received, and the advice of many medical and other respectable characters to whom he has the honour of being known, and who assured him such a work would meet general approbation and success, presumes thus to offer, what he trusts will, by elucidating its practice, place the art he professes on a more eligible footing than it has hitherto sustained—the tooth-drawing mechanic and barber dentist, has fatally erected a standard whereby the ignorant form their notions, and unthinkingly annex to tooth-drawing and tooth-scraping all that is requisite to be known; and although the well informed are aware that to preserve, regulate and remove teeth, is of import and concern to almost every individual in existence—yet to trace their diseases, the cause of their deficiencies or the injury they do the system, by generating putrid matter, has, it is presumed, formed no part of their consideration—Without enumerating all the subjects it will treat upon, suffice it to say, none incident to the dentist's art, which theory, or a ten year's constant and extensive practice, has informed the writer of, will remain unnoticed, or without such remedies being offered therewith, as, adhered to strictly, has heretofore effected cure.

The book will be ready for delivery to subscribers at their residence within six weeks from the present date, or hereafter may be had, with the author's dentures, at Mr. MARY'S, druggist, No. 134, Market-Street, where subscriptions are received—price one dollar—to be paid on delivery of the book.

Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN away, on the 8th instant, from the subscriber, living in Baltimore county, near Dorsey's Iron Works, a negro man named JAMES, about 24 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, stout and well made, dark complexion, has a very insinuating grin when spoken to, and a down look; his clothing is unknown; it is very likely he may have procured a pass. I expect he is in the neighbourhood of Annapolis, as his connections all live there, and was raised there himself; he has been accustomed to go by water a few years past. Whoever will take up and secure the said runaway in any gaol, so that I get him, shall receive the above reward, and if brought home to my house, all reasonable charges, paid by me.

He went off about this time last year, and was out nine months, employed by, and taken in the house of, a free negro, who rents land of Samuel Ward, near Herring creek church, who knew him to be my slave; he has a quick way of speaking, and a remarkable down look when spoken to. It is presumed he will make for the Federal City or Baltimore, and will endeavour to pass for a free man, and probably will take the name of, and may obtain a pass from some free negro. A reward of twenty dollars will be paid for taking and securing him at either of the above cities, or ten dollars if taken a less distance, with reasonable expences if delivered to Joseph Taylor, or W.
