

UNITED STATES LOAN OFFICE,
STATE OF MARYLAND, June 2, 1802.
CERTIFY, that it appears by the books of my office, that on the 23d day of April, 1792, a certificate, No. 831, for five hundred and thirty-three dollars and thirty-three cents funded six per cent. stock, bearing interest from the first day of April, 1792, was issued in the name of IGNATIUS PERRY, of Virginia, which sum was placed to his credit on the books in said office, and that he still remains a creditor on said books for the above-mentioned sum.

B. HARWOOD, Com.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber deposited the certificate above-mentioned about five years ago with the late doctor Robert Pottenger, of Prince-George's county, and since his death it cannot be found, and has been lost, perhaps from inattention. All persons are hereby cautioned against receiving it.

IGNATIUS PERRY.

PROPOSALS

By DAVID BROWN, No. 372, North Third-street Philadelphia,
FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION,
A COMPENDIUM

NATURAL PHILOSOPHY:

IN FIVE VOLUMES.

BY JOHN WESLEY, A. M.

"These are thy glorious works, Parent of Good,
"Almighty! Thine this universal frame,
"Thus wondrous fair! Thyself how wondrous
"then!"

THE erudition of Mr. Wesley stands in competition with the first writers of the present age. He was of a deep penetrating mind—matured by long experience in scientific studies. He willingly emoraced any toil which might promote the wisdom and happiness of mankind. With this view, he compiled this SYSTEM OF NATURAL PHILOSOPHY.

This work is not too diffuse, not expressed in many words, but comprised in so moderate a compass, as not to require any large expence, either of time or money—Not maimed or imperfect; but containing whatever is known with any degree of certainty, either with regard to the earth or the heavens, and this in the plainest dress; simply and nakedly expressed, in the most clear, easy, and intelligible manner, that the nature of things would allow. To which are added, the most valuable discoveries both of our own and the foreign societies, ancient and modern. The learned have admired this performance as a most useful and instructive compendium.

CONDITIONS:

- I. This work will be neatly printed, with a new type, on fine medium paper, in five volumes, each volume containing nearly four hundred pages, duodecimo.
- II. A volume will be published every three months, neatly bound and lettered, payable on delivery, 1 dollar and 40 cents.
- III. Subscribers names will be annexed to the last volume.
- IV. An elegant portrait of the author will be given as a frontispiece, executed by the first American artist.
- V. As soon as sufficient encouragement is met with, the work shall be put to press.
- VI. Those who obtain ten subscribers, and are responsible for their payment, shall receive one copy gratis.

JAMES WILLIAMSON, SADDLER,

INFORMS the citizens of Annapolis, and the public in general, that he has commenced business in Corn-Hill-street, and will carry on the saddle-busness in its various branches, and as it is his fixed resolution to attend to the duty of his profession with a flattering hope he shall meet with encouragement. Orders from the country shall have punctual attention.

Annapolis, May 28, 1802. 2

COMMITTED to my custody, on the 30th of April, a stout black fellow, by the name of ISAAC, who says he belongs to SAMUEL MARSHALL, living in Loudon county, Virginia, he is about 35 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, shews his teeth very much when he laughs, and wears his hair quenced; his cloathing an osnabrig shirt, kersey jacket and trousers, and has a large scar on his left ankle. The owner is requested to come and pay his fees, and take him away, or he will be sold for them.

HENRY HOWARD, Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county. 2

NOTICE.

All persons indebted to JAMES WEST, of Annapolis, are requested to come and settle their accounts, by paying the money, or giving their bonds or notes, by the 20th of June, which will prevent further trouble; those who do not comply with this notice will be compelled by law.

Annapolis, May 29, 1802. 3 X

THIS is to give notice, that the subscriber, of Anne-Arundel county, in the State of Maryland, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of JULIET BREWER, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased; all persons having claims against the deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the twenty-fifth day of November next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 25th day of May, 1802.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away the Wednesday after Whitfunday last, a negro boy named HEZ, about nineteen years of age, five feet high, he is a black fellow, and stammers when spoken to, he is an artful villain; and on the left or right shoulder is a mark by a burn when a child; had on when he went away, a long blue coat, a pair of corduroy pantaloons, an osnabrig shirt. I suppose he is harboured by his father who belongs to Walter Clagett, in Anne-Arundel county, near Queen-Anne. Whoever takes up said fellow, and secures him in any gaol, so that I may get him again, shall receive the above reward, paid by

BENJ. DUVAL, of ELISHA. 5

N. B. I forewarn all persons from harbouring said fellow on their peril.

I HEREBY forbid all persons from passing in any manner through my plantations, but by and with the public roads leading through them, or from hunting with either dogs or gun, particularly those who pull down my fences on that direction of my plantation adjoining the land of the late Vincent Lusby.

LAWS of MARYLAND,

Compiled by WILLIAM KILTY, ESQUIRE;

With a copious INDEX,

In two volumes;

Handsomely bound in calf, and lettered;

Printed under the authority of the General Assembly,

Price, Twenty-five Dollars,

Are now ready for SALE, and may be had at the Printing-Office, Annapolis;

The following is an extract from the report of the committee of the House of Delegates appointed to examine the work:

"THE committee to whom was referred the memorial of William Kilty, having referred to the resolutions of the general assembly, by which the memorialist has been appointed to revise and prepare for publication a complete edition of the laws of this state now in force, and inspected the manner in which the work has been executed, are of opinion that the same has been prepared with great labour, and distinguished accuracy and ability."

KENNEDY,

Carvet, Gilder, and Looking-Glass Manufacturer, No. 2, North Gay-street, Baltimore.

RESPECTFULLY informs the inhabitants of Annapolis; that he executes all kinds of ornamental carving and gilding looking-glass and picture frames, gerondoles, brackets, window cornices, gilt chairs, tables, &c. He has erected tables for the polishing and silvring of old looking-glasses, which will in every respect render them equal to new. He flatters himself, from the encouragement he has already received from several inhabitants of Annapolis, that he will be enabled to give that general satisfaction, which will be the height of his ambition, to accomplish which no exertion on his part shall be spared. He has, for their greater convenience, and more correctly receiving their orders, appointed Mr. J. Shaw to receive their commands, which will be executed at his general prices, which are the lowest Philadelphia. The greatest allowance made for old looking-glasses in exchange. 2

THE subscriber has supplied himself with the following articles of DRUGS and MEDICINES, of the best quality, which he will sell in small quantities, viz.

Red and yellow bark, castor oil, glauber's salts, opium, magnesia, sago, Goulard's extract, Anderson's, Scott's, and H. Wilkins's anti-bilious pills; also a few lancets.

He has added to his assortment of dry goods; Irish linens, brown ticklenburgs, brown Irish dowlas, dimities, boys and men's felt hats, rustians, &c. &c. which he will sell remarkably low for cash.

WILLIAM WILKINS. 2

Annapolis, June 10, 1802.

I DO hereby certify, that JOHN WOODARD, (by negro Jacob) has brought before me, as a trespassing stray, a small ferrel HORSE, about thirteen hands high, with a small blaze, and some part of his under lip white, his right eye has been hurt, and he is fearful of its being touched, the two left feet white, as are the hoofs, cancers and trots fine, and is full of spirit, no perceivable brand, has never been shod, and is four years old.

A. DORSEY. 2

May 21, 1802.

In CHANCERY, May 28, 1802.

CHARLES SCOTT, an insolvent debtor, of Prince-George's county, having heretofore applied, by petition, in writing, to the chancellor, praying the benefit of an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at the last session of the general assembly, and a schedule, and list, on oath, as by the said act required, being annexed to the petition, and the chancellor being satisfied, by competent testimony, that the said Charles Scott hath resided in the State of Maryland for more than two years last preceding the passage of the said act, and having, at the time of his application, been imprisoned, and having been brought before the chancellor and discharged, from imprisonment, on taking the oath by the said act required, and the said Charles Scott having since produced the assent, in writing, of so many of his creditors, as have due to them, according to the list aforesaid, the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the said Charles Scott appear before the chancellor, in the chancery office, on the eighteenth day of September, next, to answer such interrogatories as may be proposed to him by his creditors, that the said day be and it is hereby appointed the time for his creditors to appear and recommend a trustee for their benefit, and that the said Charles Scott give notice of the passage of this order, by causing a copy of it to be inserted three times in the Maryland Gazette before the eighteenth day of June next.

True copy.

Test. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD, Reg. Cur. Can. 3 X

STEPHEN RUMBLELLS,
Boot and Shoe-Maker,

Corn-Hill-street, Annapolis.

RETURNS his sincere thanks to the public at large, and his customers in particular, for past favours, and hopes they will continue their custom as usual, he assures them that nothing shall be wanting on his part to give complete satisfaction. He has laid in the best materials, and will execute his work in the neatest manner. Gentlemen may suit themselves with good and serviceable shoes for servants, on the usual credit.

May 29, 1802. 3

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Prince-George's county, near Patuxent Iron Works, on the first instant, a negro man named ISAAC, about thirty years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high; he is black, has very red eyes, a down look, a scar on the top of his head, about the size of a dollar, where no hair grows; stoops in his shoulders; he went off in his common working cloathing, but it is probable he may change his dress and endeavour to pass as a free man; he was purchased in Charles county, where it is probable he will be harboured. Whoever will take up the above negro, and deliver him to the subscriber, or secure him in any gaol, shall be entitled to the above reward, paid by

RICHARD SNOWDEN. 3

May 10, 1802.

H. HAYDEN,
DENTIST,

OFFERS his sincere thanks to the ladies and gentlemen of Annapolis for their generous encouragement during his stay in February, and by his strict attention to delicacy and tenderness in all operations on the teeth and gums, and the most implicit candour in his advice, he hopes to merit a continuance of theirs and the public's patronage. From the numerous opportunities he has had of proving his abilities in this as well as other towns in this state, he deems it unnecessary to enter into a detail of the operations that come within the line of his profession, the utility of which (when judiciously performed) is too well known to need any comment. Those persons who favoured him with their custom during his former stay, may have their teeth examined gratis, and those who wish to be waited on at their residence will please to send a line, or servant, to him at Mrs. Nixon's boarding-house, Corn-hill-street.
