

PHILADELPHIA, February 9.

Captain Duplex, of the ship Diana, arrived at New-York, in 49 days from Gibraltar, informs, that peace was concluded between the Tripolitans and Swedes, the beginning of December. The frigates Adams and Constellation were at Gibraltar, the latter to sail for the United States in three or four days. The Chesapeake was at Leghorn. The Tripoline cruisers were principally in port, and very little danger was apprehended from them.

The Tripolitan ship, at Gibraltar, had been seized for debt, and dismantled.

Captain D. brought out dispatches for government. February 10.

Extract of a letter from an officer on board the United States frigate Constellation, dated Toulon Bay, 21st October, 1802.

"We left Malta on the 23d August, and arrived off Tripoli on the 25th, where we staid three days, and then left it for Tunis Bay, where we arrived on the 4th September, and sent our boat on board a French man of war lying in the bay, with a letter for our consul; captain Murray not wishing to have any communication with the shore, for fear of being quarantined at the next port he went to.

"On the Wednesday following, we again stood into the bay, and sent our boat on board the French ship, and likewise an American, where our officers saw the consul; who informed, that a few days previous to our arrival, he had received an official letter from the Danish consul at Tripoli, informing him of our having killed the bashaw's favourite general, when standing next the bashaw, by one of the shot which flew on shore the 22d July, when we had the skirmish with the gun boats—that we had destroyed two gun boats, and killed and wounded many men—that the bey of Tunis had demanded a 36 gun frigate from the United States, and was quite impatient at not receiving it."

The same letter contains the following paragraph: "Bonaparte has banished general Toussaint to the island of Elba, in chains."

Extract of a letter from an officer of the Adams, dated Gibraltar Bay, Dec. 16.

"Malaga as yet is the extent of our cruise in these seas, nor shall we see more of the Mediterranean, unless the Tripoline ship should leave this place and the emperor of Morocco continue friendly disposed towards us, which at present is the case, but his whimsical conduct since our arrival here, with his long and late silence on a subject that the voice of majesty is required, leaves room for conjecture not the most favourable. Be assured they are slippery politicians, and require good looking after either in peace or war. The Swedes have a truce with Tripoli, which will no doubt terminate in peace; one hundred and fifty thousand dollars is the price; terms that by many politicians here are thought favourable for Sweden, when we consider that one hundred and thirty Swedes are in captivity—we are more fortunate with that power, the Franklin as yet is the only vessel of ours that has fallen into their hands, and of her crew, but four remain in captivity. The British appear determined to hold Malta. Egypt is yet in their possession, which, it is thought, will soon be evacuated and the troops thrown into the former place. It is reported that the French are arming at Toulon, and other ports, the object of which is yet unknown. The British have a fleet of observation about Sicily and the neighbouring waters, under the command of Sir Richard Bickerton. We daily see French or English ships of war passing the rock.

"The Spaniards have a peace with Algiers for the consideration of 100,000 cobbs per annum."

BALTIMORE, February 11.

Saturday last the Cornplanter's nephew passed through this town on his way to the city of Washington. It is said (and from late occurrences we believe with truth) that he is the bearer of information to the president respecting overtures of an unfriendly nature towards the United States made to the Seneca nation of Indians, by French emissaries.

BANK NOTES FORGED.

The public are cautioned to be careful in receiving five dollar bank notes, in imitation of those issued by the bank of Baltimore, dated in July, 1799, with the alphabetical letter X at the top: They are well executed, and the paper imposing; the signatures of the president and cashier will discover the forgery, if properly attended to. These notes are supposed to be fabricated in Kentucky, and it is conjectured that some persons are now here endeavouring to pass them. It would be doing a commendable action to apprehend and bring before a magistrate all suspicious characters concerned in their circulation.

On Thursday last, says the Harrisburg paper of the 7th instant, the large, elegant and commodious brick college, at Carlisle, was entirely consumed by fire. The carpenters, we understand, had almost completed this useful building, and while the workmen were gone to dinner, some of the slaves having taken fire, got to such a height before discovered, as to render all attempts to save the building ineffectual.
