Mary Peach, Administratrix of Richard Williams, vs.

Rebecca, Elizabeth, and Richard Williams, and Isaac Ijams, and Elizabeth his wife.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a decree for the sale of the interest of the defendants in two tracts of land in Prince-George's county, called BEAVER DAM NECK, and part of PARCEL ENLARGED, for the payment of the debts of Richard Williams, deceased, which from him descended to the defendants his heirs; the bill states that the defendants have removed out of the state of Maryland; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted three times in the Maryland Gazette before the tenth day of June next, give notice to the defendants to appear here in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the second Tuesday of October next, to shew cause, if any they have, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

Robert Sewall, against

Charles Sewall, Nicholas Sewall, Eleanor Pye, Thomas Rogison, and his wife Alice, Lewis Taney, Charles Henry Taney, Celistia and Eliza Alice Taney.

THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain a conveyance for a tract of land, called MATTAPONY SEWALL, and other lands thereto adjoining, which Henry Sewall, ancestor of the defendants, now deceased, contracted for with the complainant, by his contract in writing, dated on the 17th day of October, 1801; the bill states that Lewis Taney, one of the defendants, resides out of the state of Maryland; it is thereupon, on the motion of the complainant, ordered and adjudged, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette once in each of three successive weeks before the 3d day of June next, to the intent that the absent defendant may have notice of the present application, and of the substance and object of the bill filed in this cause, and may be warned to appear in this court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 1st Tuesday of October next, to shew cause, if any he hath, why a decree should not pass as prayed.

NOTICE,

To the Public of Maryland.

THERE will be a petition preferred to the next general assembly of this state, for a law to pass for a road to be laid off from a large white oak tree, on the south side of the main road leading from the city of Annapolis round the head of the Severn river to the city of Baltimore, standing at the lower end of Richard Dorsey's, (of Caleb) lane or plantation, next adjoining to a plantation belonging to Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esq; along up through the neighbourhood on the north side of South river, in Anne-Arundel county, by Jacob Waters's mill and the South river meeting house, and the neighbourhood of the Mr. Hopkins's to a fording place on the main branch of Patuxent river known by the name of Ashton's Ford, and from there the most convenient route through Prince-George's county, by or through Mr. Benjamin Ogle's plantation, known by the name of Belle-Air, to a small town in the said county called Bladensburg, at or near the head of a creek of the river Patowmack, called and known by the name of The Eastern Branch.

April 14, 1803.

THIS is to give notice, that the subscriber hath taken out letters of administration on the estate of JOHN DENT, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, therefore all persons who have claims against the said deceased are requested to bring in the same, proved according to law, and all those who are in any manner indebted to the estate are requested to make payment, to

ELEANOR DENT, Administratrix.

To the Voters of Anne-Arundel county and the City of Annapolis.

GENTLEMEN,
ENCOURAGED by the solicitation of a number of my friends, I respectfully beg leave to inform you, that I intend offering myself as a candidate for your suffrages at the ensuing election of a Sheriff of this county, and to assure you, should I be fortunate enough to meet with your approbation, that every exertion shall be made to give general satisfaction, and to prove myself worthy of your confidence and support.

As it is my wish to avoid egotism, and as few tasks can be imposed on a man more disagreeable than that of becoming his own encomiast, I shall therefore forbear making any further professions on the score of abilities, than to observe, that I have acted for sometime past, as deputy to Mr. John Welch, the late, and to Henry Howard, Esquire, the present sheriff, and have thereby, I flatter myself, acquired a competent knowledge of the duties incident to the office.

ROBERT WELCH, of Brw.

In COUNCIL, ANNAPOLIS, (April 19, 1803.)
ORDERED, That the act to alter, change and abolish, such parts of the constitution and form of government as relates to the establishing a general court and court of appeals, be published once in each week, for the space of three months successively, in the Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis; the Baltimore American, the Telegraph, the Federal Gazette, at Baltimore; the National Intelligencer; Mr. Smith's paper, at Easton; the Republican Advocate, at Frederick-town; and Mr. Grievs's paper, at Hagarstown.
By Order,
NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk.

An ACT to alter, change and abolish, such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the establishing a general court and court of appeals.

BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of March, eighteen hundred and four, there shall be a court of appeals, composed of three persons of integrity, and sound judgment in the law, who shall be styled in their commissions Judge of the Court of Appeals, whose judgment shall be final and conclusive in all cases of appeal from the court of chancery, county court or orphans court; and that the court of appeals shall hold two sessions on the western shore and two on the eastern shore in each year, at such times and places as the future legislature of this state shall direct and appoint.

And be it enacted, That from and after the said first day of March, eighteen hundred and four, this state shall be divided into five judicial districts, viz. Saint-Mary's, Calvert, Prince-George's and Charles counties, shall be the first district; Cecil, Kent, Queen-Anne's and Talbot counties, shall be the second district; Anne-Arundel, Baltimore and Harford counties, shall be the third district; Caroline, Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester counties, shall be the fourth district; and Washington, Frederick, Montgomery and Allegany counties, shall be the fifth district; and that there shall be appointed for each of the said districts two persons of integrity, and sound judgment in the law, who shall reside in the district for which they shall be appointed, who shall be styled in their commissions District Judges of the county courts in such district; and there shall be appointed for each of the counties of this state one person of integrity, experience and knowledge, resident of the county for which he shall be appointed, who shall be styled in the commission Associate Judge of the county court of the county for which he shall be appointed; and the said district judges in their respective districts, together with the said associate judge in the respective counties, shall compose the county court and the county courts so established shall have, hold and exercise, all the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, that the general court and county courts of this state has heretofore held, used and exercised, except the appellate jurisdiction of the general court; and that the county courts shall hold their sessions in the respective counties at such times and places as the future legislature of this state shall direct and appoint.

And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act, and the alterations and amendment of the constitution and form of government therein contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall constitute and be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing in the said constitution and form of government contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it enacted, That all and every part of the constitution and form of government that relates to the court of appeals, or the general court, as now established, do to the judges thereof, or that in any manner contrary to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, be and are hereby declared to be repealed and abolished, on the confirmation hereof.

To the Voters of Anne-Arundel county and the City of Annapolis.

COMING forward as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county, with respectful deference I offer myself to fill the important station, and solicit their suffrages; at the ensuing election, in my favour; should my wishes in this instance be realized, I sincerely promise a strict attention to impartiality, legality, and assiduity, and the public shall find in my attention to the discharge of the duties of the office a grateful return for the confidence they may repose in me.

And remain their obedient servant,
ISAAC DORSEY.

Will be SOLD, at private SALE.

THE whole or any part of that valuable plantation, on the north side of Severn river, now occupied by Mr. John McCubbin; nothing need be said as to the soil and other advantages, &c. of this place, as it is well known to be one of the richest and best farms in this state. As I shall be in or near Annapolis for two or three weeks, any application by letter, or otherwise, will be attended to.
