

BALTIMORE, October 24.

Captain Robinson, arrived at Charleston, in 15 days from Antigua, spoke on the second instant, in lat. 20, 30, long. 75, 38, a Spanish ship of war of 28 guns, who ordered him on board; the captain informed him that Spain was at war with England, and that he was on a cruise against the commerce of the latter power.

The French armed schooner la Sophie, which arrived on Monday from Cape Nicholas Mole, is an advice boat with dispatches for the commercial agent of France in this city; she is commanded by lieutenant Sacks, of the marine. She brings accounts that the English had bombarded Fort Dauphin and St. Marks, which places had been compelled to surrender to them, and the brigands who aided in the reduction.

Annapolis, October 27.

On Tuesday last the Jockey Club purse of three hundred dollars was run for over the course near this city, and won by Mr. Norwood's horse Buona-parta.

Yesterday the colts purse of one hundred and fifty dollars was run for over the same course, and won by Mr. Duckett's horse Financier.

On Saturday evening last departed this life, in the 50th year of his age, JOHN CALLAHAN, Esq; register of the land-office for the western shore of Maryland. The pen of eulogy is so indiscriminately employed in recording the virtues of those who go before us, that we would not now offer up this tribute, so fully due to the memory of the deceased, did not his well known benevolence, integrity and uprightness of conduct, inspire implicit credence to this recorded letter of his death. He was the loving and beloved father of an amiable family, the kind husband of a no less affectionate and amiable consort. In his official duties he was assiduous, ardent, honest and complying, the truest test of the truest patriotism. Having as little commerce with the world as his social and official duties would permit, he exercised, in the peaceful quiet of his domestic retirement, every purer affection and tender sentiment. Warned by a lingering illness of the approach of death, he had prepared himself to encounter its terrors, evincing, at that awful moment when the lamp of life shed its last ray, and when the blood retreated back to its citadel the heart, that man's firmest reliance is on the Christian religion, and that he is born to ripen in a happier soil. This tribute of respect is paid by one, who, from a knowledge of his virtues, knew how to appreciate them.
