ADVERTISEMENT.

ANATIVE and citizen of France, and once possessed of a large and abundant fortune, situated in the island of St. Domingo, I necessarily contracted some debts in France, and also in that island. These debts were very inconsiderable, when compared with my ability to pay them, and would have been promptly discharged if demanded whilst my situation remained as it was when they were contracted. The troubles of my native country drove me to seek refuge in Maryland in the year 1793, and the subsequent revolutions in St. Domingo have stripped me of all my property, except a mere trifle, which I brought with me to Maryland. Those who had demands against me for European transactions have taken from me that trifle I had here, and have left me unable to pay the demands of the like nature that are still outstanding against me. To protect my body, sixty-five years old, and worn down with disease and misfortune, from the horrors of a gaol, I shall petition the next general assembly of the state of Maryland to pass an insolvent act in my favour, of which I thus publicly give notice.

JEAN PAYEN BOISNEUF.

Frederick county, October 29, 1803.

NOTICE.

INTEND to petition the next general assembly of Maryland for an act of insolvency.

VACHEL DORSEY, of JOHN.

NOTICE.

IS hereby given, that I intend to apply to the general assembly of Maryland, at their next session, praying an act of insolvency to discharge me from debts which, from a variety of misfortunes, I am unable to pay.

PHILIP TRUMAN BRISCOE.

Charles county, October 10, 1803.

Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN away, on Monday the 31st of October, a very likely negro fellow named SAM, 23 years old, about five feet, five or six inches high, of a dark complexion, has a good set of teeth, and is very artful; I cannot particularize his cloaths, as he has a variety, and such as are very good, among which is a genteel pair of buckskin pantaloons, and a pair of half boots. It is highly probable it is his intention to go entirely off, and has obtained a free pass to assist him. Whoever takes up said negro, and secures him in any gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward, by the subscriber, living on West river, in Anne-Arundel county, and State of Maryland.
