

A HANDSOME FARM FOR SALE, LYING on Kent Island, and elegantly situated on the bay, containing about three hundred acres (more or less) of excellent land, adapted to the produce of tobacco, wheat, corn, &c., and is bounded on each side by creeks, making up a considerable distance, in which are the greatest quantity of fish, oysters, and wild fowl; the improvements are, a brick dwelling, kitchen, quarter, and barn, also a large apple orchard, peach, damson, and several valuable English walnut trees; it is advantageously situated to send its produce to Baltimore or Annapolis. A farther description is deemed unnecessary. Those inclined to purchase, may know the terms, by applying to

In CHANCERY, January 7, 1804.

Smallwood's creditors against his heirs.

WHEREAS several claims exhibited against the estate of general William Smallwood, deceased, have not been accompanied by sufficient vouchers, and therefore not passed, although not absolutely rejected, and a long time hath elapsed without any thing on their part being done; it is, at the instance of the trustees, who are anxious to close their trust, adjudged and ordered, that no claim in this court shall be passed, after the first day of September next, against the said estate, but that the chancellor will, on application, decide on any of the said claims before the said day; this is, however, to have no effect, unless it be published at least thrice in the Maryland Gazette, and at least twice in each of three weeks in the National Intelligencer, before the first day of March next; it is further ordered, that on the examination or hearing of any of the claims aforesaid, depositions before a single magistrate made shall be received as evidence; such other testimony as is receivable by the orphans' court is usually required by the chancellor.

Reg. Cur. Can.

THIS is to give notice, that the subscriber hath obtained from the orphans' court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters testamentary on the personal estate of JOHN MERCER STE-VENS, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased.
All persons having claims against the deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the third day of July next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand, this third day of January, 1804.

DORSEY JACOB, Executor.
