February 6.

By an arrival at Boston, from Liverpool, London have been received to the 28th, and Liverpool to the 30th November. They furnish his Britannic Majesty's speech, at the opening of his parliament; sundry articles of speculation about the invasion; the Boston editor remarks, "We are somewhat disappointed in the importance of their contents, for though many days later than our precedent accounts from Europe, they furnish nothing of sufficient interest to gratify the curiosity of the public at this critical juncture of European affairs."

Extract of a letter from a respectable gentleman of Madrid, dated November 17, to a gentleman in Boston.

"The neutrality of Spain and Portugal, with the diligent powers has been agreed upon. In consequence, the royal bills have risen 20 per cent."

In CHANCERY, February 1, 1804.

Application to the chancellor, by petition, in writing, of JONATHAN BEARD, stating that he is an insolvent debtor, and praying the benefit of an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at the last session, on the terms therein mentioned, and a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, being annexed to his petition, and the chancellor being satisfied, by competent testimony, that the said Jonathan Beard hath resided in the state of Maryland the two last years preceding the passage of the said act; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the said Jonathan Beard, by causing copy of this order to be inserted three weeks successively in the Maryland Gazette before the last day of the present month, give notice to his creditors to appear in the chancery office, at ten o'clock, on the twenty-second day of March next, for the purpose of commencing a trustee for their benefit, on the said Jonathan Beard's then and there taking the oath by the said act required for delivering up his property.

NOTICE

THE subscriber having obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county letters of administration upon the personal estate of Dr. THOMAS N. STOCKETT, deceased, late of said county, requests all persons who are indebted to said estate to settle and pay their respective debts, on or before the first day of July next, otherwise suits will be commenced against such as do not comply with the above notice.

MARY STOCKETT, Administratrix.

January 24, 1804.

NOTICE

CAME to the subscriber's plantation, a lengthy red COW, marked with an upper cut in the left ear, and an under cut in the right, a long trace intermixed with red hairs on her back, much white about her flanks, under her belly, and feet.

Her first appearance (trespassing upon me) was about the latter end of September.

The owner is required to prove his property, pay charges, and take her away.

WILLIAM JOYCE, Residing on the south side of Severn.

NOTICE

HEREBY authorize H. S. HALL to settle all accounts standing open on the books of J. Wells, deceased, and hope that all persons indebted on the same, will call and settle with him without further trouble. JOHN B. WATKINS, one of the executors.

November 23, 1803.

N. B. Mr. Watkins has authorized me, by the above publication, to settle all the account standing on the books of John Wells, deceased; it has been several weeks since he gave the above notice, and those persons not coming in to settle their small balances due the estate, will take notice, that I shall put the law in force, agreeably to directions, without respect to persons.

H. S. HALL.

February 3, 1804.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the night of Saturday the 21st inst. HARRY, known in Annapolis by the name of HARRY DUMPS, aged about twenty years, five feet six or eight inches high, he is very black, and has lost his upper fore teeth, his left ear has a slit in it by an ear-bob being torn out thereof, and a scar over one of his eyes, slender built and well formed, clothed in striped homespun kersey jacket and trousers, black shoes, and ticklenburg shirt. A further description thereof is deemed unnecessary, as it is supposed he will change his name and dress, and endeavour to pass for a free man, and make for Philadelphia; he left Annapolis on Tuesday following, with Mr. Benjamin Harwood's Tom, of Prince-George's county, as I have been informed, and it is supposed they both have forged passes; Tom was dressed in white homespun kersey, and russet shoes. Any person that will bring home Harry to the subscriber, or secure him in any goal, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward.

JONATHAN WATERS.

N. B. Harry has been some time in the Rhode river and bay trade with capt. Hanson, and others, and is well known in Baltimore, where he is now supposed to be. All captains of vessels, and others, are forewarned harbouring him at their peril. Should he be taken the greatest precaution is necessary, as to his security, as he is very artful and unfaithful to his word.
