Twenty Dollars Reward.

AN away, about the middle of last June, a negro man named GEOFFRY, he is about twenty-three or twenty-four years of age, yellowish complexion, five feet eight or ten inches high, rather slender made, his wool tolerable long and bushy; he was purchased out of the family of Sutton Isaac Adams, Calvert county, where it is suspected he will endeavour to harbour, as well as the neighbourhood of Mr. George Parker, where he has lately been seen with a knapsack of cloaths, and said that he would see his father, whom, I understand, formerly belonged to a Mr. Hardesty, of said county, but now belongs to general Stone, and lives at his quarters. Whoever will take up said negro, and secure him in gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive TEN DOLLARS, and the above reward, including what the law allows, if brought home to me, or carried to Mr. THOMAS JENKINS, near the court-house, Calvert county.
