YOUNG LADIES ACADEMY,

In Annapolis, Maryland.

MRS. KEETS, influenced by a sense of duty she owes to her sex, and consulting her disinclination more than pecuniary emoluments, has adopted the firm resolution to employ her utmost energy and exertions in educating young ladies, not only in mental attainments, and those accomplishments which are expected from ladies, but also in the sentiments of honour, virtue, and Christian morality.

Conformably to which plan, young ladies will be received as boarders, and carefully instructed in reading—writing—orthography—grammar—elocution—scholarly style—arithmetic—geography—system of the universe—with the use of maps and globes; ancient and modern history, with their application to chronological charts, and ancient and modern maps—French language—marking—netting—needlework of all kinds, at the rate of 50 dollars per quarter, and 5 dollars entrance.

Those young ladies who wish to cultivate, besides the above-mentioned branches, vocal music and the piano forte, will pay 18 dollars more per quarter, and 5 dollars entrance.

Drawing 15 dollars per quarter, and 5 dollars entrance.
Singing 15 dollars ditto ditto
Italian language 10 dollars ditto ditto
German language 10 dollars ditto ditto
Spanish language 5 dollars ditto ditto
Latin 5 dollars ditto ditto
Greek 5 dollars ditto ditto

To simplify the accounts of this institution, there will be henceforward four quarterly payments every year; each quarter in advance; the first on the 1st of January, the second on the 1st of April, the third on the 1st of July, and the fourth on the 1st of October.

Those young ladies whose capacity will be found adequate, may be also instructed in the most useful branches of natural philosophy, and comparative chemistry, &c.

In CHANCERY, April 9, 1804.

RICHARD CHEW, an insolvent debtor, applies to the chancellor, by petition, in writing, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at the last session of the general assembly, on the terms therein mentioned, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, so far as he can ascertain the same, is annexed to his petition, and the chancellor is satisfied, by competent testimony, that the said Chew hath resided in Maryland the two last years preceding the said act; it is thereupon ordered, that the said Chew, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette three times before the 27th instant, give notice to his creditors, to appear in the chancery office, at 10 o'clock, on the 5th day of May next, for the purpose of recommending some person to be trustee for their benefit, on his taking then and there the oath, by the said act prescribed, for delivering up his property.
