

In CHANCERY, March 25, 1804.
ON application to the chancellor, by petition, in writing, of WILKINSON BRASHEARS, stating, that he is an insolvent debtor, and praying the benefit of an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and two, and a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, being annexed to his petition, and the chancellor being satisfied, that the said Wilkinson Brashears has resided in the state of Maryland the two last years preceding the passage of the said act; the chancellor thereupon passed an order, giving notice to the creditors of the said Wilkinson Brashears to appear in the chancery office, on the 18th day of July last, to recommend a trustee for their benefit, on the said Brashears then and there taking the oath by the said act required, which order was directed to be published three times in the Maryland Gazette before the 24th day of June last; it is now stated, that the said order has not been published agreeably to the directions therein contained; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the petitioner, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted three weeks successively in the Maryland Gazette before the twenty-seventh day of April next, give notice to his creditors to appear in the chancery-office, at ten o'clock, on the third day of May next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said Wilkinson Brashears's then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property for the benefit of his creditors.

YOUNG DIOMED,

WILL stand at the subscriber's farm, on Rhode river, about seven miles from Annapolis, this season, to cover mares, at 15 dollars each, and one dollar to the groom, that sum, or a note of 20 dollars, payable the first of January, 1805, must be sent with each mare, or they will not be received; said notes may be discharged by the payment of 15 dollars on or before the first day of December next. The season will commence the first of April and end the first of August. The last season he will stand in this state.

YOUNG DIOMED is a beautiful dapple grey horse, seven years old this spring, full fifteen hands and an half high, his blood and strain equal to any horse on the continent; the compactness of his form, and elegance of his figure, is greatly admired by the best of judges, he is full of bone, and proportionable shape, symmetry, and fine action; he came out of Mr. Ogle's imported mare Charlotte, and was got by col. Tayloe's noted horse Grey Diomed, and as will appear by the following certificates.

I do certify the bay mare called Charlotte, fold to Mr. Harford, was got by Snap, a son of old Snap, her dam by Lightfoot, a son of old Cade, her granddam by Regulus, her great-granddam by old Cade, her great-great-granddam by Old Partner, &c. &c. &c.
 (Signed) JOS. HARDY.

To the VOTERS of the City of Annapolis and Anne-Arundel county.

GENTLEMEN,
IMRESSED with the most lively sense of gratitude for the flattering patronage and support of my friends and fellow citizens for sheriff, (for which office I stood a candidate) I embrace this opportunity of rendering them a tribute of my sincere and warmest thanks, and I fondly hope that I may safely rely on their confidence and friendly zeal at the next election of a sheriff for this county.

In confidence of this I am emboldened to make a further claim upon the goodness and liberal suffrage of my friends, and again offer myself a candidate for that important office.

ROBERT WELCH, of BEN.
