

SPREAD EAGLE, QUEEN-ANNE.

FREQUENT application being made to the subscriber, by the passengers of the mail stage from the city of Annapolis to Washington, to provide breakfast for them, they are hereby informed, that henceforward it shall be ready to be laid on the table the instant the stage arrives.

He also takes this opportunity of informing the public, that he has laid in a quantity of excellent ice and snow, and is resolved to keep a supply of the best liquors and fruit during the ensuing summer. Having likewise procured all the implements for catching and preserving fish alive, he means to serve up a fish dinner on Wednesdays and Saturdays from the 1st of April till the 10th of September, and therefore flatters himself that the pains he is determined to bestow on the public's accommodation will be requited by its patronage.

SOLOMON SPARROW, Jun.
