At a meeting of a number of democratic republicans at the city of Annapolis, on Friday the 20th day of April, 1804, GASSAWAY WATKINS having been chosen chairman, and NICHOLAS BREWER, secretary, the following resolutions were entered into and ordered to be published in the National Intelligencer, Maryland Gazette, and American.

WHEREAS this meeting have seen published certain resolutions entered into by a meeting of republican citizens of Prince-George's county, at Upper-Marlborough, on the 10th instant; and whereas this meeting highly approve of the principles contained in said resolutions, and believe that the adoption of similar measures in Anne-Arundel county would tend to secure the election of democratic republican characters as electors of president and vice-president, member of congress, and delegates to the general assembly,

RESOLVED, That it be recommended to the democratic republicans of Anne-Arundel county to meet at the places of holding elections for their respective districts, on the 26th of May next, and appoint five delegates to meet in general committee, at the city of Annapolis, on the 16th of June, to fix on proper characters to be supported as delegates to the next general assembly.

RESOLVED, That the general committee to be thus selected, when assembled as aforesaid, determine on four characters whom they may consider best calculated to unite the democratic republican interest of this county as candidates at the next election of delegates, and this meeting pledge themselves to support the characters that may be designated by the committee aforesaid.

RESOLVED, That it be recommended to the general committee aforesaid, when thus assembled, to appoint a committee of their own body to consult with any similar committee that may be appointed by Prince-George's county, on the proper character to be run as representative in the next congress of the United States, and this meeting in like manner pledge themselves to support any character that may be fixed on by such general committee of the two counties.

RESOLVED, That it be recommended to the aforesaid general committee of Anne-Arundel county, to appoint a select committee of their own body to consult with any similar committees of Baltimore city and that part of Montgomery county composing the electoral district, on the proper characters to be brought forward as electors of president and vice-president, and this meeting in like manner pledge themselves to support the characters that may be thus designated by the committees of this electoral district of president and vice-president.

Test. GASSAWAY WATKINS, Chairman. NICHOLAS BREWER, Secretary.

At a meeting of a number of respectable republicans at Upper-Marlborough, in Prince-George's county, on the 10th day of April, 1804, HUMPHREY BELT, Esquire, having been appointed chairman, and TRUEMAN TYLER, secretary, it was agreed that the following be published in the National Intelligencer and Maryland Gazette.

WHEREAS a general understanding of republicans, as far as is practicable, would tend to ensure success at the ensuing elections of electors of president and vice-president, member of congress, and delegates to the general assembly,

RESOLVED, That it be recommended to the republicans of Prince-George's county, that they meet at the several places of holding elections in their respective districts, on Saturday the 28th day of April, and appoint seven delegates to meet at Upper-Marlborough on the fifth day of May next, and fix on suitable characters to be recommended to the people to represent them in the next general assembly of Maryland.

RESOLVED, That it be recommended to the said delegates when thus assembled, or such committee as they may choose, to consult with any committee that may be appointed by the several election districts of Calvert, Montgomery, and Prince-George's counties, composing the electoral district of president and vice-president, and any character that may be appointed or fixed on, by such general committee of the said counties, this meeting pledge themselves to support, by all fair and upright means.

RESOLVED, That it be recommended to the delegates appointed as aforesaid, to meet at Upper-Marlborough, or such committee as they may choose, to consult with any committee that may be appointed for Anne-Arundel county, on the proper character to represent this district in the congress of the United States, and that this meeting pledge themselves to support, by all fair and honourable means, the person that may be fixed on, as aforesaid, as a candidate at the next election for member of congress.

HUMPHREY BELT, Chairman. TRUEMAN TYLER, Secretary.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away the Wednesday after Whit Sunday last, a negro boy named HEZ, about nineteen years of age, five feet high, he is a black fellow, and stammers when spoken to, he is an artful villain, and on the left or right shoulder is a mark by a burn when a child; had on when he went away, a long blue coat, a pair of corduroy pantaloons, an ofnabrig shirt. I suppose he is harboured by his father who belongs to Walter Clagett, in Anne-Arundel county, near Queen-Anne. Whoever takes up said fellow, and secures him in any gaol, so that I may get him again, shall receive the above reward, paid by

BENJ. DUVALL, of ELISHA.

N. B. I forewarn all persons from harbouring said fellow on their peril.

SENSIBILITY.

BY MISS KNIFE.

A ROSE-BUD overcharg'd with dew,
Its with'ring head reclin'd;
Nigh broken from its parent bough,
The sport of ev'ry wind;
Maria to the woodbine bow'r
With Ella chanc'd to walk;
Careful she rais'd the drooping flow'r,
And ty'd its bending stalk.
"Ah live!" she cry'd, "my lovely Rose!
"And let your charms expand;
"Free to the gale your sweets disclose,
"Nor dread the spoiler's hand."
As through the grove, at close of day,
Maria lonely stray'd;
A wretched female cross'd the way,
And thus implo'r'd her aid:
"In Pity hear a Daughter's prayer,
"In pity haste to save;
"Alfred, my Father, bow'd with care,
"Is sinking to his grave.—
"Content, within a little cot,
"Which decks yon humble vale,
"The grateful song that blest our lot,
"Was borne on ev'ry gale.
"The lord of these domains one day
"Beheld this luckless face;
"His bosom justice ceas'd to sway,
"And passion held her place.
"In vain to win me to his arms,
"Each gaudy lure he try'd;—
"For me his riches wanted charms—
"Virtue was all my pride.
"Then wild revenge inflam'd his breast;
"Beneath oppression's rod
"My aged father sunk distress,
"And hop'd—but in his God.
"Heav'n knows my pure unspotted fame,
"Yet more than Life I prize!
"Nor will I earn the bread of shame—
"No—though my Parents die!
"Then gracious hear sad Anna's prayer—
"If you delay to save,
"My father, bow'd with want and care,
"Must sink into his grave!"
In vain the murmurs of distress
Assail'd Maria's ear;
What misery would fain express,
Maria would not hear.
A gen'rous Rustic, as he pass'd,
O'er heard the mournful tale—
Borne on the wings of eager haste,
He fitted to the vale.
And, as the bounteous dole he gave,
Beneficently smil'd;
Rejoic'd, from lawless pow'r to save
The Father and the Child!
Shame on those hearts that never felt
A fellow-creature's woes—
Yet tenderly affect to melt
IN PITY FOR A ROSE!
