Valuable Lands for Sale.

By order of the court of Calvert county, will be exposed to PUBLIC SALE, the following lands, the property of the heirs of capt. WALTER SMITH, deceased.

ON Monday the 20th day of August next, will be sold, on the premises, the plantation on which the said capt. Walter Smith formerly resided, containing, by actual survey, 1225 1/2 acres of land, lying adjoining on Patuxent river, bounded on the south-west by the said river, on the east by a fine navigable creek called Saint-Leonard's Creek, so that one and a half miles of fencing will enclose the whole land. The soil of this land is equal if not superior to any on Patuxent, either for farming, planting, or grazing, and in their season the greatest plenty of fine fish and oysters may be had either from the river or creek. A great part of the above land is covered with cedar fit for posts or fencing.

On Tuesday the 21st, on the premises, will be sold, one other plantation in the forest, at about two miles distance from the former, containing, by survey, six hundred and twenty-seven and one half acres of land, the greater part of which is covered with hickory, chestnut, and oak wood, and a great proportion of swamp land, which, at a trifling expence, might be converted into valuable meadow, belongs to this land. And,

On Thursday the 23d, on the premises, will be sold, one other plantation, lying adjoining on Chesapeake Bay, bounded on the northeast by the said bay, on the north by a creek called Parker's Creek, containing, by survey, 536 1/2 acres of land; on this land there are a great proportion of marsh and meadow land, and a great abundance of fine timber.

It is thought needless to give a fuller description of the above lands, as it is presumed that those who wish to purchase will view the lands previous to the day of sale, and on application to Mr. John Turner, who resides near the two first mentioned tracts, they may see the plots of the different tracts of land, and will shew the lands contiguous to him, and Mr. Richard Hance, who resides on the last mentioned tract, will shew the outlines of the same to any person wishing to view it.

The above lands will be sold either in the whole, or be divided into parcels, as may appear most advantageous for the heirs.

The purchasers to give bond, with approved securities, for the purchase money, to be paid in three annual payments, the interest to be paid yearly, and on the ratification of the sale by the court, and a full payment of the purchase money, and interest thereon, a deed of conveyance will be executed to the purchaser, agreeably to an act of assembly in such cases made and provided.

 JOHN TURNER, }
 Calvert county, May 28, 1804. 2

The subscriber being appointed trustee by the honourable the chancellor of Maryland, to sell the real estate of Brock Mockbee, late of Prince-George's county, deceased, for the payment of his debts, will offer for sale, to the highest bidder, on Monday the eighteenth day of June next, on the premises,

PART of a tract of land, known by the name of BROCK-BEE, lying in Prince-George's county aforesaid, containing about two hundred acres, late the property of the aforesaid Brock Mockbee, deceased; the said part of a tract of land is in possession of Mr. William Bowie, distant from the town of Upper-Marlborough about three miles.

The terms of sale are, the purchaser to give bond to the trustee for the payment of the purchase money, with interest, within fifteen months from the day of sale, and on the ratification of the sale by the chancellor, and the receipt of the whole purchase money, the trustee, by a good deed, will convey to the purchaser all the right of the said Brock Mockbee to the above part of a tract of land. The creditors of the said Brock Mockbee, deceased, are hereby requested to produce their claims, with the vouchers thereof to the chancellor, at the chancery-office, within three months from the day of sale.

FOR THE MARYLAND GAZETTE.

TO EMMA.

IN red effulgent grandeur sunk the sun
 Beneath the sky; the gentle zephyrs play'd
 In sportive whisp'rings thro' the woodland glade,
 Cheering the calm of night which now begun.

All nature seem'd participatè in glee,
 The lofty forest wav'd along the green;
 The sweet night songstrefs added to the scene,
 All, all were mirthful save unhappy me.
 I seiz'd the moment of a transient pause
 To give to agonizing woe relief;
 To vent, 'midst nature's stop, my potent grief,
 Far from the sons of dissipated noise.

The time has been when on the wings of love,
 My soul enamour'd painted blissful joy;
 When hope, the sweetest of each soft decoy,
 Pointed to equal bliss with realms above.

But time is fleeting; joy is fleeting too;
 New pangs, new cares, break in upon the mind;
 And oft, too oft, th' unhappy youth will find
 His present pain from former pleasure grew.

Once hope deceptive found in EMMA's smile,
 The pleasing prospect of my future bliss;
 But truth unerring now has taught me this,
 To guard my heart against delusive wile.

Young FLORIO came, bedeck'd with ev'ry grace,
 Which youthful ardour wishes to attain;
 EMMA he saw, he lov'd; he wish'd to gain
 That heart which only parallels her face.

Success attended on my rival's step,
 She placid listen'd to his ev'ry word;
 She smil'd whenever his wish'd for voice was heard,
 And in her breast, unknowing, love had crept.

Say, O ye wilds, where now I love I live,
 Say, could I blame my lovely EMMA's heart?
 No! for the tyrant love with softest art,
 Resistless wills where pleasure he will give.

Adieu, sweet EMMA—FLORIO too, adieu!

May bliss eternal on your wishes wait;
 May EMMA meet thro' life an happier fate
 Than for past days her former lover knew.

THE CHILD OF SORROW'S TALE.

FROM ANNUAL ANTHOLOGY.

DENY, but do not taunt a maid
 Who never scorn with scorn repays:
 Proud man, though now I ask your aid,
 Mine once, alas! were happy days.
 But sorrow mark'd me for her own
 Before I told my twentieth year;
 Yet when my friends began to frown,
 I but reproach'd them with—a tear.

I ne'er could frame the harsh reply,
 The look unkind by feeling fear'd,
 E'en when I meet disdain's cold eye,
 E'en when I cruel language heard.
 I've seen my friend, my earliest friend,
 Refuse my tale of woe to hear;
 Yet still unwilling to offend,
 All my remembrance was—a tear.

And I have known the slanderer's tongue
 My fame with vile dishonour taint,
 Yet on my lips no curses hung,
 Tho' mournful, mild was my complaint.
 And I was forced by cruel power
 To leave the scenes I held most dear:
 O! 'twas indeed a trying hour!
 Yet all my language was—a tear.

And I have known the youth I lov'd
 Retract the vows he swore to me,
 Behold my pallid cheek unmov'd,
 And, smiling, boast that he was free!
 Yet I was calm—and (hour of dread!)
 I saw him woo a maid more dear—
 But I was mute, I only shed—
 No—no! I could not shed—a tear!

Ah! full was then my cup of grief—
 Friends, fortune, lover, fame, all lost—
 A beggar now I ask relief,
 A small, a trifling boon at most,
 Still can you chide me from your door?
 Ah no! your looks compassion wear—
 So large a gift!—Oh! words were poor—
 I thank, I bless you in—a tear.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away the Wednesday after Whitunday last, a negro boy named HEZ, about nineteen years of age, five feet high, he is a black fellow, and flammers when spoken to, he is an artful villain; and on the left or right shoulder is a mark by a burn when a child; had on when he went away, a long blue coat, a pair of corduroy pantaloons, an of nabrigi shirt. I suppose he is harboured by his father who belongs to Walter Claggett, in Anne-Arundel county, near Queen-Anne.
