FATHERLESS FANNY.

A BALLAD—BY MRS. OTIE.

KEEN and cold is the blast loudly whistling around,
As cold as the lips that once smil'd upon me,
And unyielding alas! as this hard frozen ground,
The arms once so ready my shelter to be.

Both my parents are dead, and few friends I can boast,
But few to console and to love me, if any,
And my gains are so small, a bare pittance almost,
Repays the exertions of fatherless FANNY.

Once indeed, I with patience and pleasure could toil,
But 'twas when my parents sat by and approv'd!
Then my laces to sell I went out with a smile,
Because my fatigue fed the parents I lov'd.

And at night when I brought them my hardly earn'd gains,
Tho' small they might be, still my comforts were many;
For my mother's fond blessing rewarded my pains,
My father stood watching to welcome his FANNY.

But, ah! now that I work by their presence uncheer'd,
I feel 'tis a hardship, indeed to be poor,
While I shrink from fatigue, now no longer endear'd,
And sigh as I knock at the wealthy man's door.

Then, alas! when at night I return to my home,
No longer I boast that my comforts are many;
To a silent, deserted, dark dwelling I come,
Where no one exclaims, 'Thou art welcome my FANNY.'

That, that is the pang: want and toil would impart
No pang to my breast, if kind friends I could see;
For the wealth I require is that of the heart,
The smiles of affection are riches to me.

Then in pity, ye rich, when to you I apply
To purchase my goods, though you do not buy any,
With the accents of kindness, O deign to deny,
You'll comfort the heart of poor fatherless FANNY.

LINES

On a young lady who shed tears when the pathetic Ballad of Fatherless Fanny was read.

"POOR fatherless FANNY," exclaim'd Mary-Ann,
While soft sensibility's tear,
Overflowing each eye, down her cheek streaming ran,
As the sighs o'er her sorrow's severe.

Sweet girl, may such tenderness ever be thine,
Your heart ne'er grows callous or cold;
Let the soft tear of sympathy brilliantly shine,
Till life's latest page you unfold!

RONDEAU.

BY THOMAS MOORE, ESQ.

GOOD night! good night! and is it so,
And must I from my Rosa go?
O! Rosa, say "good night" once more,
And I'll repeat it o'er and o'er,
Till the first glance of dawning light,
Shall find us saying still "good night!"
And still "good night!" my Rosa say—
But whisper still "a minute stay,"
And I will stay, and every minute
Shall have an age of rapture in it.
We'll kiss and kiss in quick delight,
And murmur while we kiss "good night!"
Good night! you'll murmur with a sigh,
And tell me it is time to fly;
And I will vow to kiss no more,
Yet kiss you closer than before,
Till slumber seal our weary fight,
And then my love, my soul, "good night!"

Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near Annapolis, on the 27th of last month, a negro man named SAM, about five feet two or three inches high, a likely well made fellow, and complaisant when spoken to; the fore finger of the left hand he generally carries a little crooked, occasioned by the first joint of said finger being stiff, and the end of the finger he carries pointing across the other fingers; had on when he went away, a fearnought coat, a red under jacket, striped country cloth breeches, osnabrig shirt, and old felt hat; the said negro was detected in being concerned in breaking open a store-house, in company, as is supposed, with a negro man by the name of NATHAN BOON, or BOOTH, set free by Mr. David Weems, which said Nathan left the neighbourhood at the time of the detection of the breaking open said house, and is supposed to be gone off to the state of Pennsylvania, and carried with him said negro Sam, and will travel under the protection of the pass given him, said Nathan, by David Weems. Whoever takes up said negro SAM, and secures him in any gaol, so that his matter gets him again, shall receive TEN DOLLARS reward, if taken above ten miles from home, TWENTY DOLLARS, and if out of the state the above reward, including what the law allows, paid by ROBERT LUSBY.

May 2, 1804.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away the Wednesday after Whitsunday last, a negro boy named HEZ, about nineteen years of age, five feet high, he is a black fellow, and stammers when spoken to, he is an artful villain, and on the left or right shoulder is a mark by a burn when a child; had on when he went away, a long blue coat, a pair of corduroy pantaloons, an osnabrig shirt. I suppose he is harboured by his father who belongs to Walter Clagett, in Anne-Arundel county, near Queen-Anne. Whoever takes up said fellow, and secures him in any gaol, so that I may get him again, shall receive the above reward, paid by BENJ. DUVALL, of ELISHA.

N. B. I forewarn all persons from harbouring said fellow on their peril.
