

George and John Barber,

TAKE this method to inform those persons indebted to them, either on open account or note, which have been long due, that unless they come forward before the ensuing county court and make payment, they shall pursue legal measures to compel a settlement, without respect to persons, and shall for the future decline attending to such persons business unless better rewarded for their labour and attention.

They embrace this opportunity to return their sincere thanks to a generous public, but most especially to those their friends and patrons who have been punctual in their engagements, assuring them that they shall still endeavour to render satisfaction to such, both in their store and packet business. Their packets, from this city to Baltimore, will continue to be kept in neat order for passengers, where they will be sure to meet with good accommodations. They have heretofore given public information, that they would not make themselves answerable for any goods put on board their packets, unless they were directed to the persons, mentioning their place of residence, and a list of the goods sent with them, but as it was not duly attended to, they now make it known, that they will not, from this day, answer for any goods that may be lost, unless the above mode is punctually attended to. Persons residing out of this city are requested to send the cash to pay freight on their goods, as they may rest assured they will not be delivered without. To their fellow-citizens they wish to observe, for the future, they shall make their collections half yearly. Tobacco or grain will be received on freight, and duly attended to, either on Severn or South river, or within a few miles of this city.

They still continue to keep a general assortment of GROCERIES, &c. which they will sell low for cash.

Annapolis, March 7, 1805.

LANDS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber will sell that valuable plantation SUMMER HILL, on which Mr. Robert Jacob now lives, containing about 330 acres, about seven miles from the city of Annapolis, and possesses all the advantage of water, with respect to navigation, fish, oysters, and wild fowl, being within one mile of navigable water; the greater part of it lies sufficiently level; the soil is fine, and easy of cultivation, and contains a sufficiency of meadow ground of a superior quality; about one third of this land is covered with timber, consisting of oak, poplar, walnut, and an immense quantity of chestnut and cedar, and is extremely well watered.

The improvements are new, and consist of a comfortable dwelling-house, with two rooms below stairs and two above, a kitchen, smoke house, &c. and also a tobacco house.

The house is situated on an eminence, which commands a view of the surrounding neighbourhood, also of Annapolis, London-town, and Chesapeake bay, which makes it a situation in point of beauty equalled by few, and in point of healthiness exceeded by none, and has several springs of as fine water as any in the state, within a few yards of the house.

This place is well situated to admit of its being divided, and should it be found necessary to accommodate purchasers the subscriber will do it.

As the subscriber is not induced from necessity to dispose of this place, any reasonable credit that may be required will be given, upon the purchaser's giving bond, with approved securities, and upon the payment of the whole, an indisputable title will be given.

JOHN GASSAWAY, of Rhode River.

Any person in want of cedar, locust, and walnut posts, for building or fencing, may be supplied by applying to the subscriber.

LANDS FOR SALE.

I WILL sell eighteen hundred and fifty acres of LAND, lying on the waters of Bennet's Creek, twelve miles from Frederick-town, twenty-eight from George-town, and thirty-six from Baltimore; there are three tenements on the land, one of which is a good log dwelling-house, with two rooms, with a good brick chimney between them, and convenient out houses; the situation of this place is high and healthy, with an extensive and variegated prospect, a good orchard on it, and the water of a pure and excellent quality; the other two tenements have convenient houses for tenants, and their situations equally healthy with the former. The whole of the land well adapted to the plaster of Paris. It is unnecessary to be more particular in a description of this land, as it is presumed no one will purchase without examining it.
