NOTICE.

THE subscriber once more earnestly and respectfully calls on all persons indebted to him for payments of their respective balances, which, though small in themselves, are, in the aggregate, of great importance to him, and which imperious circumstances render absolutely necessary to enable him to discharge his own engagements, and to support his family. Delinquents must excuse him should he take compulsory measures, which, he assures them, will be resorted to, though with reluctance.

Those gentlemen who subscribed to him for The Life of Washington, and have not yet taken their first and second volumes, are requested to call or send for them. The third volume is expected in a few days.

LAND FOR SALE.

THE subscriber will sell that valuable plantation SUMMER-HILL, on which Mr. Robert Jacob now lives, containing about 330 acres, about seven miles from the city of Annapolis, and possesses all the advantage of water, with respect to navigation, fish, oysters, and wild fowl, being within one mile of navigable water; the greater part of it lies sufficiently level; the soil is fine, and easy of cultivation, and contains a sufficiency of meadow ground of a superior quality; about one third of this land is covered with timber, consisting of oak, poplar, walnut, and an immense quantity of chestnut and cedar, and is extremely well watered.

The improvements are new, and consist of a comfortable dwelling-house, with two rooms below stairs and two above, a kitchen, smoke house, &c. and also a tobacco house.

The house is situated on an eminence, which commands a view of the surrounding neighbourhood, also of Annapolis, London-town, and Chesapeake bay, which makes it a situation in point of beauty equalled by few, and in point of healthiness exceeded by none, and has several springs of as fine water as any in the state, within a few yards of the house.

This place is well situated to admit of its being divided, and should it be found necessary to accommodate purchasers the subscriber will do it.

As the subscriber is not induced from necessity to dispose of this place, any reasonable credit that may be required will be given, upon the purchaser's giving bond, with approved securities, and upon the payment of the whole, an indisputable title will be given.

JOHN GASSAWAY, of Rhode River.

Any person in want of cedar, locust, and walnut posts, for building or fencing, may be supplied by applying to the subscriber.

To the VOTERS of Anne-Arundel county and the City of Annapolis.

Gentlemen,
FOR the honour you once conferred on me, in making me your choice as sheriff of Anne-Arundel county, and particularly for the zeal you manifested on that occasion, I offer you my warm and sincere thanks; having reason to hope that my official conduct, during three years, met your approbation, and that you have had no cause to regret your choice, I flatter myself that your confidence in me has not diminished. Presuming therefore on your future support, and being solicited by numerous friends; I take the liberty of declaring my intention to offer as a candidate at the next election for sheriff; should I be so happy as to obtain your suffrages, every effort of mine shall be used to discharge, with propriety, the various and important duties of that office. I remain, gentlemen, with every sentiment of respect, your humble servant,
JOHN WELCH.

THE BUMPER OF WINE.

YE lovers of wine, and of friendship and joy,
Let Greek and let Latin no longer annoy,
Dull epics of Homer and Virgil resign—
Our song is in praise of a Bumper of Wine.

Your deep metaphysics serve only to show
How little their studious votaries know.
We ask not if matter and spirit can join—
We find them unite in a Bumper of Wine.

For Pike and for Euclid not one of us cares,
Farewell to their angels, lines, circles and squares,
Plain Nature will teach us to form a curve line,
Or a circle of friends, round a Bumper of Wine.

Let Enfield investigate physical laws,
For every phenomenon guess at a cause;
Suffice it for us, that the fruit of the vine,
When press'd, will produce us a Bumper of Wine.

Physicians may swear to secure us in health;
They care for no more than a gripe at our wealth;
Emetics and opiate they may enjoin—
But these are contain'd in a Bumper of Wine.

Our good natur'd souls no contention shall draw
Around the drear mazes of labyrinth law.
On quarrels let Lawyers and Judges refine,
But we'll drown all our's in a Bumper of Wine.

The truths we revere of Religion sublime,
But Solomon says for all things there's a time;
And Paul has prescrib'd to a brother divine,
For the fake of the stomach, a Bottle of Wine.

May Bards ne'er be wanting to furnish a song,
To carry life easy and smoothly along;
Yet they need no longer invoke the coy Nine,
For Helicon's Fount is a Bottle of Wine.

Here's a Bumper to Our's and to Honesty's friend;
May health and contentment for ever attend;
Whatever the orbit in which he may shine,
May he ne'er want a Friend or a Bottle of Wine.

AN APOLOGY FOR SCOLDING.

OBSERVE, fair CELIA, all id all,
Mild, beautiful and young;
Tis true her tongue is her mouth's fo' small,
She cannot hold her tongue.

RESOLUTIONS WHEN I COME TO BE OLD.

NOT to marry a young woman.
Not to keep young company, unless they desire it.
Not to be peevish, morose or suspicious.
Not to tell the same story over and over to the same people.

Not to be covetous—The hardest of all to be kept.
Not to neglect decency or cleanliness, for fear of falling into naivness.

Not to be over severe with young people, but to make allowance for their youthful follies and weaknefs.
Not to be too free of advice, nor trouble any but those who desire it.

Not to talk much, nor of myself—Very bard again.

ANECDOTE.

A CLERGYMAN, preaching in the neighbourhood of Wapping, (in England,) observing that most part of his audience were in the seafaring way, very naturally embellish'd his discourse with several nautical tropes and figures. Amongst other things, he advised them to be ever on the watch, so that upon whatever tack the devil should bear down upon them, he might be crippled in action. "Aye, Master," cried a jolly son of Neptune, "but let me tell you, that I'll be d—d if it don't depend upon your having the weather gage of him."
