The following simple and pathetic lines in a very beautiful manner, describe the melancholy change which almost necessarily takes place in the human mind during its progress from infancy to manhood.

LINES IN THE MANNER OF SHENSTONE.

HOW bright was my youth's early morn,
Ere reflection had clouded my brow;
I selected the rose from the thorn,
And was happy I hardly knew how.

I join'd in the sports of the plain—
With rapture I heard the blithe song;
In the dance I was first of the train,
And was gayest among the gay throng.

'Tis true my heart oft breath'd a sigh,
But it rose from mild pity alone;
If a tear sometimes stray'd from my eye,
It flow'd not from griefs of its own.

No sorrow corroded my heart,
No falsehood awaken'd a fear;—
For my bosom a stranger to art,
Believ'd every friend was sincere.

But ah! these fair visions of youth,
Disappointment has chas'd from my mind!
And the friends whom I fancied all truth,
Alas! can be sometimes unkind.

I have seen the bright azure of morn,
With darkness and clouds shadow'd o'er;
I have found that the rose has a thorn,
Which will wound when its bloom is no more.

The sigh that from sympathy rose,
Now heaves not for other's alone;
And the tear as it silently flows,
Confesses a source of its own.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons indebted for officers fees for the two last years, that unless they make payment by the 10th of August they will be executed for the same, without respect to persons.

Taxes must be paid.

THE subscriber takes this method of informing the citizens of Anne-Arundel county, that he shall himself, or by deputy, call in the course of a very short time on all those indebted for their taxes, when he hopes they will be prepared to settle, otherwise he must, though very disagreeable, enforce payment as the law directs, and as he himself may sustain great injury by delay, it is hoped and expected that this notice will be attended to, as it most assuredly will be by him; it will be considered a favour if persons who may find it convenient, will call at LEWIS DUVALL's store, Annapolis, and pay their accounts.
