NOTICE.

THE subscriber once more earnestly and respectfully calls on all persons indebted to him for payments of their respective balances, which, though small in themselves, are, in the aggregate, of great importance to him, and which imperious circumstances render absolutely necessary to enable him to discharge his own engagements, and to support his family. Delinquents must excuse him should he take compulsory measures, which, he assures them, will be resorted to, though with reluctance.

Those gentlemen who subscribed to him for The Life of Washington, and have not yet taken their first and second volumes, are requested to call or send for them. The third volume is expected in a few days.

LANDS FOR SALE.

The subscriber will, on Monday the 5th day of August, in the forenoon, if fair, if not, the first fair day thereafter, SELL, to the highest bidder, on the premises,

THAT valuable plantation SUMMER-HILL, on which Mr. Robert Jacob now lives, containing about 330 acres, about seven miles from the city of Annapolis, and possesses all the advantage of water, with respect to navigation, fish, oysters, and wild fowl, being within one mile of navigable water; the greater part of it lies sufficiently level; the soil is fine, and easy of cultivation, and contains a sufficiency of meadow ground of a superior quality; about one third of this land is covered with timber, consisting of oak, poplar, and an immense quantity of chestnut and cedar, and is extremely well watered.

The improvements are new, and consist of a comfortable dwelling-house, with two rooms below stairs and two above, a kitchen, smoke house, corn house, &c. and also a tobacco house.

The house is situated on an eminence, which commands a view of the surrounding neighbourhood, also of Annapolis, London-town, and the Chesapeake bay, which makes it a situation in point of beauty equalled by few, and in point of healthiness exceeded by none, and has several springs of as fine water as any in the state, within a few yards of the house.

This place is well situated to admit of its being divided, and should it be found necessary to accommodate purchasers the subscriber will do it.

The terms of sale are, one third of the money to be paid, and the residue at two annual instalments, upon the purchaser's giving bond, with approved securities, and upon the payment of the whole, an indisputable title will be given.

JOHN GASSAWAY, of Rhode River.

Any person in want of cedar, locust, or walnut posts, for building or fencing, may be supplied by applying to the subscriber.

THEATRE.

THIS Evening, the Comedy of SHE WOULD AND SHE WOULD NOT; or, THE KIND IMPOSTOR; with the Melo-Drame of A TALE OF MYSTERY.

WE are authorized to say, that Doctor JOHN GASSAWAY, of Rhode river, will be a candidate at the ensuing election, for one of the representatives of Anne-Arundel county to the legislature. Rhode river, March 27, 1805. 9

In our paper of the 16th of May last, we copied a paragraph from a George-town, (S. C.) paper, mentioning the discovery of a number of very remarkable spots on the face of the sun—we now copy the following, on the same subject, from a Paris paper of May 2:

ARTS AND SCIENCES.

There appeared a few days since upon the sun, a large spot, with nuclei, which I observed in 9 degrees north of the solar equator. It differs little from the beautiful spots which I made use of, in order to determine the sun's rotation in the Memoirs of the Academy for 1776, and seems to confirm the discovery I made at that time, by showing that there are some places in preference to others where the large spots are formed. Perhaps they are mountains which collect and retain the scoria of this immense furnace. The parallel that is nine degrees south of the solar equator abounds most in great spots. These spots with two nuclei, which have appeared at different periods, seem to me to set aside the system of volcanoes suggested by Mr. Herchel, there cannot be two volcanoes so near each other, and yet remain without intermixture, and always separated by a slender thread of light. DELALANDE.

Mr. Fowble, the fortunate holder of the ticket No. 17199, (25,000 dollar prize) purchased at G. & R. Waite's Lottery-Office, is, we understand, a tailor by profession, in Baltimore. It is rather a singular circumstance, that the next highest prize (10,000 dollars,) is the property of a gentleman of the same profession in this city.—N. Y. paper.

BOSTON, June 15.

Captain John Harvey, in the brig Tarantula, arrived at quarantine roads last evening, from Havanna, informs, that on the 2d of June inst. in lat. 33, long. 75, about 10 o'clock P. M. he was brought to, and ordered on board, by a French brig of about 18 guns; on going on board, and after his papers were examined, they informed him they bore dispatches from the fleet at the Windward Islands, for the fleet that was gone down to Newfoundland:—They further informed, that a few days previous, in company with another French brig, they had fought an English corvette, and had many men wounded. On coming on deck captain Harvey heard the groans of the wounded. There was a number of gentlemen in the cabin, who appeared as prisoners, one of them, but apparently under restraint, inquired the state of the markets at the Havanna. The last captain H. saw of the privateer, she was steering W. S. W. not a course for Newfoundland; and he supposes, from her course, she was bound to Charleston, probably to land her men. June 17.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

The schooner Two Sons, captain Clark, has arrived at Newburyport from Nantes. She left that place on the 18th May, and on the 20th was boarded by a British 64 gun ship, and informed, that a fleet of 15 ships of the line had sailed from England in pursuit of the combined French and Spanish fleet, which was presumed to have gone against Jamaica. Captain Clark also informs, that he learnt by this vessel that the Rochefort fleet had been seen a few days previous, steering towards L'Orient.

The reasons given in the following extract agree with our ideas. We were among the last to believe that Buonaparte would risk a fleet of any magnitude in the West-Indies, for any object that could be answered by it, and we shall be the last to think that lord Nelson will leave the Mediterranean exposed to pursue it, now it is there. The expedition which was, on the 7th ult. fitting at Portsmouth, we are therefore inclined to think, though we have not heard the admiral's name, but probably Graves, is now in the West-Indies.

Had lord Nelson known whither the French were bound, his station would have been the Bay or Gut of Gibraltar, or with Orde off Cadiz—and he would have been provided with 6 or 9 months provisions.
