Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Saturday the 1st instant, a brown negro man named GEORGE, the property of ROBERT WILLIAMS, he is about five feet ten inches high, his features are coarse, and he has a very ill look; it is uncertain what cloathing he took with him; he will no doubt attempt to pass for a free man; he was about a week ago harboured at Cæsar Williams's, (a negro) living in Montgomery county, near the court-house; it is probable he may not remain long there, and will be strolling about the country, as he is a lazy drunken fellow. I will give TEN DOLLARS reward if secured in any gaol within this state, and if out of the state the above reward, with all reasonable charges if brought home.

JEROME PLUMMER, Trustee for ROBERT WILLIAMS, a lunatic.

N. B. I hereby forewarn all persons from harbouring or employing said fellow, or any of the negroes belonging to the said Robert Williams, as I am determined to prosecute every such offender.

LANDS FOR SALE.

The subscriber will, on Monday the 5th day of August, in the forenoon, if fair, if not, the first fair day thereafter, SELL, to the highest bidder, on the premises,

THAT valuable plantation SUMMER-HILL, on which Mr. Robert Jacob now lives, containing about 330 acres, about seven miles from the city of Annapolis, and possesses all the advantage of water, with respect to navigation, fish, oysters, and wild fowl, being within one mile of navigable water; the greater part of it lies sufficiently level: the soil is fine, and easy of cultivation, and contains a sufficiency of meadow ground of a superior quality; about one third of this land is covered with timber, consisting of oak, poplar, and an immense quantity of chestnut and cedar, and is extremely well watered.

The improvements are new, and consist of a comfortable dwelling-house, with two rooms below stairs and two above, a kitchen, smoke house, corn house, &c. and also a tobacco house.

The house is situated on an eminence, which commands a view of the surrounding neighbourhood, also of Annapolis, London-town, and the Chesapeake bay, which makes it a situation in point of beauty equalled by few, and in point of healthiness exceeded by none, and has several springs of as fine water as any in the state, within a few yards of the house.

This place is well situated to admit of its being divided, and should it be found necessary to accommodate purchasers the subscriber will do it.

The terms of sale are, one third of the money to be paid, and the residue at two annual instalments, upon the purchaser's giving bond, with approved securities, and upon the payment of the whole, an indisputable title will be given.

JOHN GASSAWAY, of Rhode River.

Any person in want of cedar, locust, or walnut posts, for building or fencing, may be supplied by applying to the subscriber.

FROM THE " JOURNAL DE COMMERCE," OF BOURDEAUX, APRIL 6, 1805.

[TRANSLATED FOR THE N. E. PALLADIUM.]

" IF the superabundance of subject matter would have permitted us, we should ere now, have given an account of the affecting ceremony that took place on the 7th ult. in the Church of St. Sernin.

Ten deaf and dumb pupils there, for the first time, partook of the communion, and were immediately confirmed by the archbishop of Bourdeaux, who had previously visited the establishment, and fully ascertained that the young neophytes had received sufficient instruction to qualify them to receive this twofold sacrament. The names of the pupils were as follow:

LADS.—Francis Gard, of Bourdeaux—Claude Honorat, of Nimes—Louis Boiffet, of Manlle—Francis Ganet, of Garoult—Martin Trias, of Monsegur.

GIRLS.—Mary Bretange, of Bourdeaux—Jane Lambert, idem—Emilia Rose Lebreton, Department d'Ille and Vilaine—Mary Grauu, de Preuilles Mans—Mary Rose Collet Emard, of the department of Jura.

We read in the " Journal of Debates," of 27th Ventose, interesting information respecting the progress which the art of educating the deaf and dumb, and of placing them in a condition of communication with the rest of mankind, has made in Europe.—Our readers will doubtless be glad to have the inspection of the passage relative to the Bourdeaux School.

" Under the direction of Mon. St. Sernin, it excites the unanimous admiration of all the travellers who have visited it. The foundation and endowment of this school is indebted to the distinguished piety of Mon. de Gicé, formerly archbishop of Bourdeaux, at present archbishop of Aix. It was formed under the eye of Mr. Sicard."

" Mr. St. Sernin, and the other founders of this seminary, are as much distinguished by the plentitude of their very humane and affable deportment, as by an extreme assiduity in their functions. There have issued from it twenty-nine scholars, all perfectly in a capacity to be useful in society, and even to procure honourable situations therein for themselves. One of them maintains the foreign correspondence in the commercial house of his father, one of the first merchants in Bourdeaux.

" I have been informed of a curious anecdote respecting the deaf and dumb of that city. They regularly read the public papers, and are minutely acquainted with the date and epoch of every victory obtained by the French armies. In order to designate his majesty, the emperor, who is frequently the subject of their conversation, they have among themselves invented a sign which is extremely expressive. They imitate the motion and gesture of a man springing forward, and planting a standard on the ground. It is obviously the celebrated passage over the bridge of Arcole, which has made the greatest impression on their minds, amidst so many other heroic exploits of the French monarch."

* Those who have been witnesses to the origin of the Bourdeaux school; who have, as may be said, followed its progress with an attentive eye, know and will attest, if necessary, that this noble institution owes its existence principally to the persevering zeal of Mr. St. Sernin, to his privations and to his sacrifices. He renounced, for the sake of his adoptive children, an estate which afforded him affluence.—His fortune became theirs, and when that was exhausted, he supported the establishment, by mere voluntary donations only, obtained of sundry citizens, of Bourdeaux.—The school had all the marks of a private and particular undertaking until the year 1790. The established authorities then concurred in the support of it, but a part of the advances made until that era is still due to him.—On the other hand it is he who also instructed the young persons. He is therefore doubly entitled to the appellation of the Father of the institution at Bourdeaux.

Will be EXPOSED to PUBLIC SALE, on Friday the 20th of July, at Mr. EDWARD HALL'S quarter, where Mr. Ezekiel Phelps lately resided, at 12 o'clock, for cash,

TWO negro lads, Dick and Jack, taken as the property of Martha and Edward Hall, to satisfy sundry officers fees.

Sixteen Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, in Anne-Arundel county, five miles from South river ferry, on Monday the tenth instant, a black negro man named CHARLES, with short wool on his head, about five feet nine or ten inches high, twenty-two years of age, he stutters very much when talked to, and is stout and well made for strength; had on and took with him, two new ticklenburg shirts, a white country cloth jacket and trousers, much worn, a pair of coarse shoes, an old felt hat, with the crown lined with yarn; it is supposed he will change his name and dress, and endeavour to pass for a free man, by getting a forged pass, perhaps he will make for Baltimore-town, the city of Washington, or Frederick-town, as he has some relations in that part of the country. Whoever takes up and delivers the said negro man to the subscriber, or secures him in any gaol, so that I get him again, shall be entitled to receive the above reward.
