Thirty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, in Calvert county, near Hunting-town, on Monday last, two negro girls, by the name of BETTY and NANCY; Betty is about nineteen years of age, of a good size, has a remarkable scar over her right eye, which caused it to be more prominent than the other, and which she endeavours to conceal, by tying a handkerchief over it; she was taken out of Montgomery county gaol last May, and had then been runaway upwards of two years; she acknowledged since that she passed by the name of Eliza, that she had lived in Annapolis and the neighbourhood of South river about two months, and then moved to Montgomery, near Clarkburg, where she was taken up. Nancy is a sister of Betty's, not above fourteen years of age, well grown, has tolerable thick lips, a swarthy appearance, and stammers when spoken to. Being young 'tis supposed will not offer to travel by herself. Any person that will apprehend the aforesaid negroes, or either of them, and confine them in gaol, shall be paid TEN DOLLARS a piece, or if delivered to the subscriber FIFTEEN DOLLARS a piece.

BETTY H. BECKETT.

JAMES MATTISON, HATTER,

No. 16, North Gay-street, Baltimore,
 RETURNS his sincere thanks to the citizens of Annapolis, Anne-Arundel and Prince-George's counties, for the encouragement they have heretofore given him in the above line of business, which he resided in Annapolis, and hopes for a continuance of their favours.

Public Sale.

In virtue of an order issued from the hon. court of Calvert county, will be OFFERED at PUBLIC SALE, on the 28th day of August next, if fair, if not the first fair day thereafter, at the late mansion of BENJAMIN WARD, deceased, at the hour of 12 o'clock,
 A VALUABLE plantation, containing 184 acres of land, lying on the Chesapeake bay, in Calvert county. The improvements are, a small dwelling-house, kitchen, tobacco house, corn house, and other out houses; a large orchard of fine fruit. This fertile spot has every advantage, it abounds in heavy timber, and has a great proportion of rich low ground, capable of being made into meadow at a very trifling expence. The soil is extremely rich—tobacco, wheat, rye, and Indian corn, grow with little labour—the neighbourhood affords a society of very genteel and friendly people—places of worship surround it—convenient to mills, and a warehouse for the inspection of tobacco within two miles of the premises. This land will be laid off in small parcels, or sold all together, as may best suit purchasers. Bond, with approved security, will be required, carrying interest from the day of sale, payable in two equal payments, the first in twelve, and the last in eighteen months from the day of sale.

WILLIAM M. CARCAUD,
 DAVID L. WEEMS,
 CHARLES WILLIAMSON,
 Commissioners.
 July 3, 1805.

FOR SALE,

A VALUABLE tract of LAND, lying on Broad creek, distant from Quyn's ferry one mile, from Annapolis six miles, containing 602 acres; the improvements are, a dwelling-house, 40 feet by 24, divided into two handsome rooms, and a passage on the lower floor, with three rooms above stairs, a kitchen, a large barn, 48 feet by 24, shedded on each side for stables, with all necessary out houses in good repair; this land lies very level, and at least one third is in woods, chestnut and oak. Three years credit will be given, the payments to be made annually. Upon the whole sum being paid a good title will be given.
 SAMUEL MACCUBBIN.

July 24, 1805.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Anne-Arundel county, in the state of Maryland, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, letters of administration, with the will annexed, on the personal estate of NATHAN WILLIAMS, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the 30th day of January next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand, this 30th day of July, 1805.

FROM THE BALANCE.

THE AMERICAN SOLDIER.

WHEN the hoarse Bird of night wakes his ill-omen'd throat,
 And echo resounds from the wind-beaten rock,
 While the pilfering wolf strains, with howling his throat,
 Spreading terror and flight thro' the shepherdless flock:
 'Twas then a poor soldier, long worn in the war,
 Whose bosom was mangled with many a fear,
 Was heard to complain, by a turf-mantled grave.
 His thin flowing locks were, by time, silver'd o'er,
 Misfortune with furrows had planted his cheek,
 His figure was manly, his garments were poor—
 And grief, for a moment, forbade him to speak.
 "Ungrateful return, that thy country has made
 For thy service, I cried, as I view'd him alone;
 In age, she forsakes thee—depriv'd of her aid,
 An outcast, you wander, unpitied, unknown.
 "Oh! Mary!" he said, while the big brawny tear,
 In faint-trickling drops, his wan cheek did bedew;
 "Why sleep you, my Mary, in solitude here,
 Or why lives your Edward, to grieve but for you!
 "When youth nerv'd my arm, and when beauty's
 wa'n glow
 Beam'd thro' those bright eyes—ah! how oft in the grove,
 Where yon wave-mingling streamlets delightfully flow,
 Have we wander'd along, to converse of our love?
 "But Britain the death-daring war trumpet blew,
 The voice of my country arous'd me to arms;
 To meet the proud foe, into battle I flew,
 And left my dear Mary, a prey to alarms,
 "A season she languish'd, or wander'd forlorn,
 While fear and insipid rent her bosom with sighs,
 Then expir'd for her Edward—and under this thorn,
 With clay clods furrounded, her cold body lies!
 "Weep not gentle angel! no longer a slave
 To sorrow, shall fate me and Mary divide"—
 He said—then in haste, on the dew sprinkled grave,
 His aged limbs laid, kiss'd the green turf—and died.
