This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Anne-Arundel county, in the state of Maryland, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, letters of administration, with the will annexed, on the personal estate of NATHAN WILLIAMS, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the 30th day of January next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand, this 30th day of July, 1805.

WILLIAM GRAMBRILL, Administrator w. a.

FOR SALE,

A VALUABLE tract of LAND, lying on Broad Creek, distant from Queen's ferry one mile, from Annapolis six miles, containing 602 acres; the improvements are, a dwelling-house, 40 feet by 24, divided into two handsome rooms, and a passage on the lower floor, with three rooms above stairs, a kitchen, a large barn, 48 feet by 24, shedded on each side for stables, with all necessary out houses in good repair; this land lies very level, and at least one third is in woods, chestnut and oak. Three years credit will be given, the payments to be made annually. Upon the whole sum being paid a good title will be given.

SAMUEL MACCUBBIN.

July 24, 1805.

Public Sale.

In virtue of an order issued from the hon. court of Calvert county, will be OFFERED at PUBLIC SALE, on the 28th day of August next, if fair, if not the first fair day thereafter, at the late mansion of BENJAMIN WARD, deceased, at the hour of 12 o'clock,

A VALUABLE plantation, containing 184 acres of land, lying on the Chesapeake bay, in Calvert county. The improvements are, a small dwelling-house, kitchen, tobacco house, corn house, and other out houses; a large orchard of fine fruit. This fertile spot has every advantage, it abounds in heavy timber, and has a great proportion of rich low ground, capable of being made into meadow at a very trifling expence. The soil is extremely rich—tobacco, wheat, rye, and Indian corn, grow with little labour—the neighbourhood affords a society of very genteel and friendly people—places of worship surround it—convenient to mills, and a warehouse for the inspection of tobacco within two miles of the premises. This land will be laid off in small parcels, or sold all together, as may best suit purchasers. Bond, with approved security, will be required, carrying interest from the day of sale, payable in two equal payments, the first in twelve, and the last in eighteen months from the day of sale.

WILLIAM M. CARCAUD, DAVID L. WEEMS, CHARLES WILLIAMSON, Commissioners.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, in Calvert county, near Hunting-town, on Monday last, two negro girls, by the name of BETTY and NANCY; Betty is about nineteen years of age, of a good size, has a remarkable scar over her right eye, which caused it to be more prominent than the other, and which she endeavours to conceal, by tying a handkerchief over it; she was taken out of Montgomery county gaol last May, and had then been runaway upwards of two years; she acknowledged since that she passed by the name of Eliza, that she had lived in Annapolis and the neighbourhood of South river about two months, and then moved to Montgomery, near Clarksburg, where she was taken up. Nancy is a sister of Betty's, not above fourteen years of age, well grown, has tolerable thick lips, awkward appearance, and stammers when spoken to; she being young 'tis supposed will not offer to travel by herself. Any person that will apprehend the aforesaid negroes, or either of them, and confine them in gaol, shall be paid TEN DOLLARS a piece, or if delivered to the subscriber FIFTEEN DOLLARS a piece.

BETTY H. BECKETT.

August 1, 1805.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT in virtue of a commission from Anne-Arundel county court, at April term last, directed to the subscribers, to divide or value the land of which Thomas Boon died seized, situated in Anne-Arundel county, called Brown's Adventure and Neighbour's Neglect, according to the provisions of the act, entitled, An act to direct descents, and of the supplements thereto, we, the subscribers, will, on the first Monday of September next, meet on the premises to execute the trust reposed in us by said commission, of which all persons interested will take notice.

F. CROMWELL, CHARLES WATERS, CHARLES STEWART, DAVID STEWART, JOHN ASHBAW.

Will be SOLD, at PUBLIC SALE, for cash, on Thursday the 22d inst. if fair, if not, the first fair day thereafter, Sunday excepted,

PART of the personal property of WILLIAM FENNEL, junior, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, such as one hull of an old flat, one iron stove, and sundry articles too tedious to mention, at the subscriber's tavern, at the sign of the Eagle, on the Baltimore road.

JOHN LUSBY, EBENEZER CROMWELL, Administrators.

August 7, 1805.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Monday night last, a negro man named HILLY, about twenty-two years old, about five feet eight or nine inches high, has a dark countenance, a broad face, and a flat nose, and broad white teeth, did formerly belong to col. Rezin Hammond, and was seen within three or four miles of said Rezin Hammond's quarters on Elk-Ridge, near Carroll's Manor, on the 28th instant. Whoever takes up said negro, and secures him in any gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward, paid by

WILLIAM HARDESTY.

NOTICE.

ALL persons having claims against the estate of JOHN FOWLER, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, are requested to bring them in, legally attested, and those indebted to said estate are desired to make immediate payment.

HANNAH FOWLER, Administratrix.

July 24, 1805.

Fifteen Dollars Reward,

TO any person who will bring to me, or secure him, so that I get him again, negro WILL, a small black fellow, about 25 years of age, who eloped from the subscriber, living near Pig Point, in Anne-Arundel county, on the 15th instant, about 3 o'clock in the morning; he had on when he went away, a round jacket of white kersey, turned up with blue, a red striped waistcoat, of nabrig shirt and trousers; he has a remarkable scar a little above his forehead, occasioned by a scald when young, if closely examined will discover guilt, about 5 feet 1 or 2 inches high, his father belongs to William Steuart, Esq; near South river church. It is likely he will be in that neighbourhood, or about the city of Annapolis. Hereby forewarn all masters of vessels from harbouring or receiving on board their vessels the said negro Will.

Poet's Corner.

SELECTED.

ELEGY.

[The following burlesque on the silly love-ditties of some modern poets, is from the Columbian Centinel.]

'TIS mine! what accents can my joy declare!
Blest be the pressure of the thronging rout!
Blest be the hand, so halcy, of my fair,
That left the tempting corner hanging out!

I envy not the joy the pilgrim feels
After long travel to some distant shrine,
When at the relic of his saint he kneels—
For DELIA'S Pocket-handkerchief is mine!

When first with filching fingers I drew near,
Keen hope shot tremulous thro' every vein;
And when the finished deed removed my fear,
Scarce could my bounding heart its joy contain.

Here, when she took the macaroons from me,
She wiped her mouth to clean the crumbs so sweet;
Dear napkin! yes, she wiped her lips with thee!
Lips, sweeter than the macaroons she eat.

And when she took that pinch of Mocabaw,
That made my love so delicately sneeze,
Thee to her Roman nose applied I saw—
And thou art doubly dear for things like these.

No washerwoman's filthy hand shall e'er,
Sweet Pocket-handkerchief, thy worth profane!
For thou hast touched the rubies of my fair,
And I will kiss thee o'er and o'er again.

A LIBEL ON WOMEN.

Extract from the "HONEY MOON," just published at New-York.

COUNT AND ROLANDO, MEETING.

Rolando * * * * * I met three women—

* * * * * three loud talking women!

They were discoursing of the newest fashions

And their tongues went like—I have since been thinking—

What mott that active member of a woman

Of mortal things resembles—

Count.—Have you found it?

Rolando.—Umph! not exactly—something like a smoke jack;

For it goes ever without winding up:

But that wears out in time—there fails the simile.

Next I bethought me of a water-mill;

But that stands still on Sundays; woman's tongue

Needs no reviving Sabbath. And, besides,

A mill to give it motion waits for grist;

Now whether she has aught to say or no!

A woman's tongue will go for exercise.

In short I came to this conclusion:

Most earthly things have their similitudes,

But woman's tongue is yet incomparable.
