A valuable Plantation for Sale.
 THE subscriber wishes to sell his handsome, healthy, and highly improved FARM, containing 213½ acres, situate on South river, and but 3½ miles distant from the city of Annapolis; this plantation possesses superior conveniences and advantages, being near a good market, and almost enclosed by two creeks, which furnish in their seasons abundance of wild fowl, fish and oysters; the soil is suited to the cultivation of small grain, corn, and tobacco, and peculiarly adapted to the production of all kinds of vegetables, that will at all times command ready sales, and yield perhaps the greatest profit, with comparatively the least labour. The buildings are all nearly new, consisting of a brick dwelling-house, 40 feet by 20, handsomely finished, a brick dairy and smook house, a corn house, 24 feet by 12, a barn, 44 feet by 24, with sheds to shelter stock, and other necessary and convenient buildings, the whole erected with taste, and covered with cypress shingles. There is a very promising apple orchard, planted 10 years ago, consisting of the best kind of fruit trees, carefully selected, 3 peach orchards that have been particularly attended for 6 years past, and that now produce abundantly all kinds of that delicious fruit, together with a variety of other fruit peculiar to the soil and climate. There is a well of excellent water in a convenient situation. The fencing is chiefly of chestnut post and railing, and in good repair. A further description of this well known farm is thought to be unnecessary. Those wishing to purchase will no doubt view it. The proprietor's terms will be found accommodating; as he is not in want of money, a long credit would be given, on receiving satisfactory security.
 SETH SWEETSER.
 N. B. Stock of all kinds, and farming utensils, are also for sale. S. S.

Twenty Dollars Reward.
 RAN away from the subscriber, at Rawlings's tavern, in Anne-Arundel county, on Saturday the 17th instant, a dark mulatto woman named HENNY, about twenty-five years of age, five feet two or three inches high, with a very pleasant countenance when spoken to; had on, when she ran away, a short calico jacket, a black skirt, and a red striped handkerchief around her head; she also carried off a quantity of other cloaths, which I cannot describe. She was purchased of Doctor Scott, of Annapolis, by the subscriber, on Thursday last, and it is presumed she will either be about Annapolis or Baltimore, as she has a number of relations in both places. Any person who will secure her, so that I get her again, shall receive the above reward, and if brought to Rawlings's tavern all reasonable expenses paid.
 JOHN L. DICKINSON.
 All persons, and owners of boats are forewarned from harbouring or carrying off said negro at their peril.

Fifteen Dollars Reward.
 RAN away, on Saturday the 17th of August, 1805, a negro lad named ADAM, about eighteen years of age, about five feet two or three inches high, has a dark countenance, and a downcast look, flat nose, and very white teeth, belonging to Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esq; his apparel was, when he made his escape, an over waistcoat and trousers of ticklenburg, his shirt of common ofnabrigs, without hat or shoes. Whoever takes up said negro, and secures him in any goal, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward if out of the county; if taken in the city of Annapolis FIVE DOLLARS; it is likely he has gone to Baltimore, as he has two sisters living there, and no doubt will be harboured by them. I hereby forewarn all masters of vessels from harbouring, or receiving on board their vessels, the said negro Adam.
 JOHN B. ROBINSON,
 for CHARLES CARROLL, Esquire.

SELECTED.
THE MUCH ADMIR'D SONG,
"Let him meet his welcome home."
 BANISH grief, thou lovely creature,
 See who comes to bring thee peace:
 Joy now sparkling in each feature,
 Bids thy grief and sorrow cease:
 O'er the rude, the boil'rous ocean,
 He by fate was doom'd to roam—
 Cease, dear Maid, this wild emotion,
 Let him meet his welcome home.
 Now from slav'ry come to greet thee,
 Sav'd by fate from Algier's coast—
 See, he flies, sweet Maid, to meet thee,
 Love and constancy his boast;
 Each long night he pass'd in sorrow
 Made him blest each day to come,
 Hope, that on each joyous morrow,
 He should meet his welcome home.
 Banish grief, thou lovely creature,
 See, thy sailor brings thy peace;—
 Know thee not those sun burnt features?
 William bids thy sorrow cease:
 On the rude, the boil'rous ocean,
 He no more shall luckless roam—
 Then, dear Maid, with glad emotion,
 Joyful hail his welcome home.

THE WELCHMAN.
 A WELCHMAN, coming late into an inn,
 Asked the maid what meat there was within:
 Cow-heels, she answer'd, and a breast of mutton:
 But, quoth the Welchman, since I am no glutton,
 Either of them shall serve; to-night the breast,
 The heels 't' the morning, then light meat is best.
 At night he took the breast, and did not pay—
 't' the morning took his heels, and ran away.

EPIGRAM.
On the marriage of Mr. Lamb to Miss Toogood.
 A WOMAN too good! that I'll never believe,
 Was e'er such a thing from the days of old Eve?
 There is I am sure, and I've made her my wife,
 To bless me with comfort the rest of my life.
 Alas! my good friend, your fine scheme will prove vain,
 For indeed she will never be too good again.

TRIFLES.
 THE Parisian belles wear no ear-rings in the morning, or have them so small as not to be perceived. In the evening, except in very full dress, they wear ear-rings of a large circumference, resembling a serpent in a circle, with an apple in its mouth: So that in looking on a well-sketch'd naked belle, one sees, at the same time, the woman, the serpent and the apple! and cannot avoid exclaiming, "these Parisian dames are the first women of the world!"

AMUSING EXTRACT.
 There is a very singular extract in Pliny, which I do not know whether it has ever been tried by the moderns; it is in the 32d book and 5th chapter:
 "Democritus says, let the tongue of a living frog be extracted, without permitting a particle of its other flesh to adhere to it, then throw it into water; after a short time take it out, and lay it on the breast of a woman asleep, on the spot where the palpitation of her heart is perceptible; whatever questions you then propose to her, she will answer to you truly." What an easy and admirable mode is this of discovering the thoughts and affections of the coy, the coquetish, and gallant female? Little do they know the power of this key, which infallibly unlocks all the amorous secrets contained in their breasts! I might have made a fortune by advertising this valuable recipe, which effectually cured the vagaries of the Grecian ladies 2000 years ago. The ladies will be obliged to me, I expect, for putting them on their guard.—Charleston Courier.

This is to give notice,
 THAT the subscriber, of Anne-Arundel county, in the state of Maryland, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of EZEKIEL JACOB, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the 30th day of January next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand, this thirtieth day of July, 1805.
 ANNA JACOB, Administratrix.

NOTICE.
 A MEETING of the Planters of St. Mary's, Charles, Calvert, Prince-George's, and Anne-Arundel counties, who inspect their crops of tobacco at the warehouses on Patuxent river, is requested at the port of Nottingham, on the second Monday of October next, to take into consideration propositions for forming a Society of Planters out of the aforesaid counties, to protect the planting interest on said river, and to devise ways and means to prevent the sacrifices of tobacco in the hands of individuals by forced sales.
