

In Council.

ANNAPOLIS, MAY 16, 1805.

ORDERED, That the act to provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this state, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals, be published twice in each week, for the space of three months; in the Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis; the American, Telegraphic, and the Federal Gazette, at Baltimore; the National Intelligencer; the Republican Advocate and Bartgis's paper, at Frederick-town; Grievess's paper, at Hagar's-town; and in Smith's and Cowan's papers, at Easton.

By order,
NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk:

An ACT to provide for the trial of facts in the several counties of this state, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the general court and court of appeals.

BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That this state shall be divided into six judicial districts, in manner and form following, to wit: Saint-Mary's, Charles and Prince-George's counties, shall be the first district; Cecil, Kent, Queen-Anne's and Talbot counties, shall be the second district; Calvert, Anne-Arundel and Montgomery counties, shall be the third district; Caroline, Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester counties, shall be the fourth district; Frederick, Washington and Allegany counties, shall be the fifth district; Baltimore and Harford counties, shall be the sixth district; and there shall be appointed, for each of the said judicial districts, three persons of integrity and sound legal knowledge, residents of the state of Maryland, who shall, previous to and during their acting as judges, reside in the district for which they shall respectively be appointed, one of whom shall be styled in the commission Chief Judge, and the other two Associate Judges, of the district for which they shall be appointed; and the chief judge, together with the two associate judges, shall compose the county courts in each respective district; and each judge shall hold his commission during good behaviour, removable for misbehaviour on conviction in a court of law, or shall be removed by the governor, upon the address of the general assembly, provided that two thirds of all the members of each house concur in such address; and the county courts, so as aforesaid established, shall have, hold and exercise, in the several counties of this state, all and every the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, which the county courts of this state now have, use and exercise, and which shall be hereafter prescribed by law; and the said county courts established by this act shall respectively hold their sessions in the several counties at such times and places as the legislature shall direct and appoint, and the salaries of the said judges shall not be diminished during the period of their continuance in office.

II. And be it enacted, That in any suit or action at law hereafter to be commenced or instituted in any county court of this state, the judges thereof, upon suggestion, in writing, by either of the parties thereto, supported by affidavit, or other proper evidence, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county court of the county where such suit or action is depending, shall and may order and direct the record of their proceedings in such suit or action to be transmitted to the judges of any county court within the district for trial, and the judges of such county court, to whom the said record shall be transmitted, shall hear and determine the same in like manner as if such suit or action had been originally instituted therein; provided nevertheless, that such suggestion shall be made as aforesaid before or during the term in which the issue or issues may be joined in said suit or action; and provided also, that such further remedy may be provided by law in the premises as the legislature shall from time to time direct and enact.

III. And be it enacted, That if any party presented or indicted in any of the county courts of this state, shall suggest, in writing, to the court in which such prosecution is depending, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such adjoining county court shall hear and determine the same in the same manner as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein; provided, that such further and other remedy may be provided by law in the premises as the legislature may direct and enact.

IV. And be it enacted, That if the attorney-general, or the prosecutor for the state, shall suggest, in writing, to any county court before whom an indictment is or may be depending, that the state cannot have a fair and impartial trial in such court, it shall and may be lawful for the said court, in their discretion, to order and direct the record of their proceedings in the said prosecution to be transmitted to the judges of any adjoining county court for trial, and the judges of such county court shall hear and determine the same as if such prosecution had been originally instituted therein.

V. And be it enacted, That there shall be a court of appeals, and the same shall be composed of the chief judges of the several judicial districts of the state, which said court of appeals shall hold, use and exercise, all and singular the powers, authorities and jurisdictions, heretofore held, used and exercised, by the court of appeals of this state, and also the appellate jurisdiction heretofore used and exercised by the general court; and the said court of appeals hereby established shall sit on the western and eastern shores for transacting and determining the business of the respective shores, at such times and places as the future legislature of this state shall direct and appoint, and any three of the said judges of the court of appeals shall form a quorum to hear and decide in all cases pending in said court; and the judge who has given a decision in any case in the county court, shall withdraw from the bench upon the deciding of the same case before the court of appeals; and the judges of the court of appeals may appoint the clerks of said court for the western and eastern shores respectively, who shall hold their appointments during good behaviour, removable only for misbehaviour on conviction in a court of law; and in case of death, resignation, disqualification, or removal out of the state, or from their respective shores, of either of the said clerks in the vacation of the said court, the governor, with the advice of the council, may appoint and commission a fit and proper person to such vacant office, to hold the same until the next meeting of the said court; and all laws passed after this act shall take effect, shall be recorded in the office of the court of appeals of the western shore.

VI. And be it enacted, That all and every part of the constitution and form of government which relates to the court of appeals and the general court, or the judges thereof, or that is in any manner repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, be and the same is hereby repealed, abrogated and annulled, upon the confirmation hereof; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to authorize the removal of the clerks of the respective county courts, being in commission at the time of the passing of this act, in any other mode or manner than that prescribed by the constitution and form of government.

VII. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly, after the next election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act, and the alterations and amendments of the constitution and form of government therein contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall constitute and be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing in the said constitution and form of government to the contrary notwithstanding.

By virtue of two writs of feri facias, to me directed out of the general court, western shore, state of Maryland, will be SOLD, on the 10th day of September, 1805, at Walter Brooke's dwelling-house,

A TRACT of LAND, called Pinkson Delight, and two negro boys, taken as the property of Walter Brooke, to satisfy a debt due Thomas Contee. The sale for cash.

A valuable Plantation for Sale.

THE subscriber wishes to sell his handsome, healthy, and highly improved FARM, containing 213½ acres, situate on South river, and but 3½ miles distant from the city of Annapolis; this plantation possesses superior conveniences and advantages, being near a good market, and almost enclosed by two creeks, which furnish in their seasons abundance of wild fowl, fish and oysters; the soil is suited to the cultivation of small grain, corn, and tobacco, and peculiarly adapted to the production of all kinds of vegetables, that will at all times command ready sale, and yield perhaps the greatest profit, with comparatively the least labour. The buildings are all nearly new, consisting of a brick dwelling-house, 40 feet by 20, handsomely finished, a brick dairy and smoke house, a corn house, 24 feet by 12, a barn, 44 feet by 24, with sheds to shelter stock, and other necessary and convenient buildings, the whole erected with taste, and covered with cypress shingles. There is a very promising apple orchard, planted 10 years ago, consisting of the best kind of fruit trees, carefully selected, 3 peach orchards that have been particularly attended for 6 years past, and that now produce abundantly all kinds of that delicious fruit, together with a variety of other fruit peculiar to the soil and climate. There is a well of excellent water in a convenient situation. The fencing is chiefly of chestnut post and railing, and in good repair. A further description of this well known farm is thought to be unnecessary. Those wishing to purchase will no doubt view it. The proprietor's terms will be found accommodating; as he is not in want of money, a long credit would be given, on receiving satisfactory security.

SETH SWEETSER.

N. B. Stock of all kinds, and farming utensils, are also for sale.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Anne-Arundel county, in the state of Maryland, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of EZEKIEL JACOB, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the 30th day of January next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand, this thirtieth day of July, 1805.

ANNA JACOB, Administratrix.

NOTICE.

A MEETING of the Planters of St. Mary's, Charles, Calvert, Prince-George's, and Anne-Arundel counties, who inspect their crops of tobacco at the warehouses on Patuxent river, is requested at the port of Nottingham, on the second Monday of October next, to take into consideration propositions for forming a Society of Planters out of the aforesaid counties, to protect the planting interest on said river, and to devise ways and means to prevent sacrifices of tobacco in the hands of individuals by forced sales.

Sixteen Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, in Anne-Arundel county, five miles from South river ferry, on Monday the tenth instant, a black negro man named CHARLES, with short wool on his head, about five feet nine or ten inches high, twenty-two years of age, he stutters very much when talked to, and is stout and well made for strength; had on and took with him, two new ticklenburg shirts, a white country cloth jacket and trousers, much worn, a pair of coarse shoes, an old felt hat, with the trowsers sewed in with yarn; it is supposed he will change his name and dress, and endeavour to pass for a free man, by getting a forged pass, perhaps he will make for Baltimore-town, the city of Washington, or Frederick-town, as he has some relations in that part of the country. Whoever takes up and delivers the said negro man to the subscriber, or secures him in any gaol, so that I get him again, shall be entitled to receive the above reward.

GASSAWAY RAWLINGS.

June 17, 1805.

All masters of vessels are forewarned from carrying the said negro man off at their peril.

WILLIAM GRANBRILL, Administrator.

NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the subscribers for property bought at their sale in July, 1803, and March, 1804, are earnestly requested to make immediate payment, as further indulgence cannot be given. Those who neglect this notice may expect suits will be commenced against them without respect to persons.
JAMES N. WEEMS,
MARY DISNEY.

July 30, 1805.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Saturday the 1st instant, a brown negro man named GEORGE, the property of ROBERT WILLIAMS, he is about five feet ten inches high, his features are coarse, and he has a very ill look; it is uncertain what clothing he took with him; he will no doubt attempt to pass for a free man; he was about a week ago harboured at Caesar Williams's, (a negro) living in Montgomery county, near the court-house; it is probable he may not remain long there, and will be strolling about the country, as he is a lazy drunken fellow. I will give TEN DOLLARS reward if secured in any gaol within this state, and if out of the state the above reward, with all reasonable charges if brought home.

JEROME PLUMMER, Trustee for
ROBERT WILLIAMS, a lunatic.

N. B. I hereby forewarn all persons from harbouring or employing said fellow, or any of the negroes belonging to the said Robert Williams, as I am determined to prosecute every such offender.
