

Correspondence communicated by Capt. Bainbridge.
Perth-Amboy, 30th Sept. 1805.

SIR, I enclose you copies of letters which I will thank you to publish in your paper—they will convey, but feebly, to my countrymen, the obligations myself and fellow-sufferers in captivity, were under to Nicholas C. Nissen, Esq. his Danish majesty's consul to the Agency of Tripoli, for his humane and friendly attention. In fact, had we not met with such a character of philanthropy as Mr. Nissen, our situation would have been truly deplorable.
I am, respectfully, your obedient servant,
WM. BAINBRIDGE.
Major William Jackson, editor of } the Political Register, Phil. }

Tripoli, in Barbary, 3d June, 1805.

SIR, WE, officers of the United States late frigate Philadelphia, wrecked on the coast of Tripoli, to do justice to our feelings, address this letter of thanks to you for your kind, humane and generous conduct, during our captivity in this place. The philanthropy which you shewed to us at the first moment of our misfortune, and your unremitting attention to the end of it, believe us, Sir, is deeply impressed on our hearts; and we shall never cease to remember it with the warmest gratitude, and to offer our prayers to that Being who rewards benevolent deeds, for your health and happiness.

We are, with sentiments of great esteem and respect, your most obedient servants,
WM. BAINBRIDGE, Capt.
And 22 Officers.

To Nicholas C. Nissen, Esq. his }
Danish majesty's Consul, Tripoli }

Tripoli, in Barbary, 3d June, 1805.

DEAR SIR, I do myself the honour of enclosing you a letter of thanks from the American naval officers, lately prisoners in Tripoli, for your humane and friendly attention to them during their captivity. The sentiments they have expressed, be assured, are but faint shadows of their feelings—your kindness is deeply registered in the heart of every individual of them, and no time will ever efface the remembrance of it.

I shall not attempt to convey to you a just idea of my own feelings for your disinterested friendship, and the risk which you have run to serve myself and fellow-sufferers, as words would be inadequate to the task; but believe me to be truly impressed with the gratitude which such kindness merits, and that it ever will be one of my greatest pleasures to hear of your happiness. I am, dear Sir, with sincere esteem,
Your friend and obedient servant,

WM. BAINBRIDGE.

Nicholas C. Nissen, Esq. Tripoli.

United States Frigate President,
Bay of Gibraltar, 27 July, 1805.

DEAR SIR, THE officers of the United States late frigate Philadelphia, lately prisoners in Tripoli, having received from Nicholas C. Nissen, Esq. his Danish majesty's consul at that Regency, the most humane and friendly attention during their captivity in that place—and being desirous to express their grateful sense of his benevolent services, have agreed to present him an URN, with a proper emblem; I have, therefore, to request your goodness to take on you the commission of having a suitable one made in London, and delivered to his Danish majesty's minister residing at the court of St. James, accompanied by the letter herein enclosed. I feel confident, Sir, that you will readily comply with my request, and also excuse the trouble attending it, particularly as it is to convey to our friend a mark of gratitude for his attention.

I have the honour to be, with esteem and respect, your most obedient servant,

WM. BAINBRIDGE.

John Gavino, Esq. Consul }
for the U. S. Gibraltar. }

United States Ship President,
Bay of Gibraltar, 27 July, 1805.

DEAR SIR, IN behalf of myself and officers, I have to request your acceptance of an URN, which accompanies this letter, as a pledge of our grateful sense of your humane and friendly attention to us while captives in Tripoli, (Barbary.)—We tender you this pledge, not for the nominal value, but as a lasting monument of our gratitude for your benevolence, and with it our best wishes for your health and happiness.

I am, dear Sir, with sincere esteem and respect, your most obedient servant,

WM. BAINBRIDGE.

Nicholas C. Nissen, Esq. his }
Danish majesty's Consul, Tripoli. }

Perth-Amboy, 1st Oct. 1805.

SIR, YOU will oblige me by giving in your paper a place to the enclosed letters. The person whom the crew of the Philadelphia released from bondage, was a Neapolitan, and one of the drivers over them; and who no doubt would have remained for ever a captive, had it not been for the generosity of the American tars.
I am, respectfully, your obedient servant,
WM. BAINBRIDGE.
Maj. Jackson, Philadelphia.

Tripoli, 4th June, 1805.

SIR, I Enclose you a letter received from the crew of the United States late frigate Philadelphia; you are directed to comply with their very laudable request, and make the charges respectively against them.
Yours,
WM. BAINBRIDGE.
Keith Spence, Esq. Purser.

PRISON, Tripoli, June 2.

SIR, A Twelvemonth ago, a number of the ship's company proposed a plan for the relief of one of the Neapolitans, who, as far as was in his power, shewed our people many kindnesses—it was dropped for that time; our emancipation not admitting of a doubt, we have again resumed the same laudable undertaking, and find the majority of the ship's company happy to have it in their power to contribute so essentially to the happiness of a fellow-creature; upwards of 300 dollars have been subscribed for that purpose, and it now, Sir, rests with you, whether the business shall be completed or not, by advancing the money; each subscriber is willing to give all the security requisite for the reimbursement of the cash—as the time is short, you will oblige us by sending an answer as soon as possible; we earnestly hope that it may be favourable, and that our poor fellow-sufferer shall not be left to suffer the bitter pangs of disappointment.

With our best wishes for your health and happiness, we remain your's, &c.
