

FARMERS BANK OF MARYLAND.

NOTICE OF FIFTH PAYMENT.

THE fifth instalment on the stock held in the Farmers Bank will become due on Wednesday, the thirteenth day of November next. For the information of stockholders the following clause of the act of incorporation is subjoined:

And be it enacted, That if any stockholder shall fail to pay his or her instalments, to the amount of ten dollars on each share, at the times and in the manner before specified, such stockholder shall forfeit to the use of the company, all monies paid antecedently to such failure or default, but no forfeiture shall take place after ten dollars on each share shall have been paid; but, as it is requisite that means shall be taken to secure the regular payment of the subsequent instalments, therefore, if any stockholder shall fail to make regular payment of any instalment after ten dollars shall have been paid, such stockholder's money in bank shall remain free from interest, and not entitled to dividend until such instalment, or call, shall be made good, and the dividend thereafter to be paid to such stockholder, (as well upon the money by him regularly paid, as upon the money paid after default.) shall be calculated only from the time when said last instalment was made good.

The stockholders will therefore observe, that a failure in any one payment when it becomes due will be attended with a loss of interest on all former payments, although regularly made, and that interest on no part of such stock will recommence, but from the date of the completion of the last payment due.

By order of the Board,
JONA. PINKNEY, Cashier.

A letter is said to have been received in Bolton from Bristol, Eng. dated August 29, stating, "that Austria had declared war against France." Although this event may rationally be expected to take place in a very short time, we cannot conceive the policy of Austria's precipitating a measure fraught with such serious consequences as a war with France must, under any circumstances, involve her in. On this account we think the report of an actual declaration of war having taken place, to be premature.

Severn, October 21, 1805.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

INTENDING to remove from this state, I will sell the plantation I reside on, containing three hundred and eighty acres of land, within three miles of South river, and ten of the city of Annapolis, the dwelling-house is comfortable, there are two new tobacco-houses, overseers-house, and other necessary out-buildings, a large apple orchard, and a great variety of every other kind of the most delicious fruit; for fertility of soil, the growth of clover and use of plaster, the production of tobacco, Indian corn and small grain, it is equalled by few, and excelled by no farm in the county. There is a great proportion of woodland, abounding with oak and hickory, it is well watered, being springs of water in great abundance of timothy meadow may be made at small expence. This farm is a healthy, handsome and pleasant situation. The subscriber will shew the property and make known the terms.

RICHARD HALL, of Edwd.
October 22, 1805.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT the subscriber intends to petition the next general assembly of Maryland, for a law empowering certain commissioners to lay out and open a road from his mill, situate and lying in the upper part of Anne-Arundel county, to intersect the public road leading from the late Lawrence and Dorsey's mill to Shipley's tavern.

EDWARD DORSEY, of Edward, (of John.)
October 21, 1805.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscribers were securities for a certain Richard Rawlings, administrator de bonis non, of Francis Rawlings, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased: And whereas being apprehensive we may suffer thereby, we applied to the orphans court for relief, and have obtained an order therefrom to take into our possession the goods, chattels, rights and credits, of the said Francis Rawlings, deceased; therefore all persons in any manner indebted to said estate, are requested to settle the same with

JOHN DAVIDSON, AND JAMES ROYSTON.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Anne-Arundel county, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration, with the will annexed, on the personal estate of JOSEPH SMITH, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the eighteenth day of March next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand, this 18th day of September, 1805.

CHARLES D. HODGES, Adm. W. A.

This is to give notice,

THAT a number of the inhabitants of Anne-Arundel county intend to petition the next general assembly of Maryland, for an act to make public a road from the intersection of the Mount Holly ferry road, as it now runs, to cross the lower Patapsco ferry road, at or near the corner of Amasa Linthicum's garden, and from thence across the plantation of Henry Hall Dorsey, Esq; to the upper wood landing on the north side of Curris's creek.

FROM AN ENGLISH MAGAZINE.

HOME.

WHEN north winds rage and tempests howl,
And great folks on misfortunes frowl,
How sweet, remote from busy life,
To press thy children and thy wife,
Secure at home!

When merit meets a thousand cares,
And vice a pleasing semblance wears,
Would'st thou her barbed dart elude?
Fly to the bosom of the good,
And cherish home!

When evening's dewy star ascends,
Then with a few but real friends
Well are thy fleeting moments spent,
Bounteous thy board, thy guest content!
Then welcome home!

Should sorrow's child thy precincts tread,
'Tis time to raise his drooping head;
His burning tears shall cease to flow,
His heart with grateful warmth shall glow,
And bless thy home!

Alas! unnumber'd ills I view;
Thy heart shall beat, and sicken too;
Disease, and want, and anguish lie;
Hark! 'tis the widow—'orphan's—cry!
They have no home!

Should war's shrill trumpet strike thine ear,
Alike remote from pride or fear,
Honour unsheathes thy shining sword,
To conquer or to die! the word,
Protect thy home!

Thy children's children shall receive
From thee a recipe to live;
Their blessings and their deeds arise
In blended fragrance to the skies,
Their native home!

When age has frosted ev'ry hair,
And loosen'd ties remove thy care,
Then, when the soil is half withdrawn,
Pleas'd shalt thou hail the rising morn,
Thy last bright home!

BON TON.

SIR Hall and Lady Smeer were heard Disputing which had most regard: Says Madam, "When I die my love
"Your Guardian Angel I will prove,
"And hover round you night and day,
"Lest you, my dear, should GO ASTRAY!"
"And shall I be so blest my dear,
"(Cried Spouse,) beneath your PHANTOM care,
"Then SPEEDY AS YOU PLEASE, my Love,
"You may my GUARDIAN ANGEL PROVE."

To the Public of Maryland.

THERE will be a petition preferred to the next general assembly of this state, for a law to pass for the opening of a canal from the head of a creek, (or near therefrom) called Marly Creek, that maketh out of a creek of Patapsco river, called Curtis's Creek, the most convenient route into the Severn river, at or near the neighbourhood of the mouth of a branch of said river called Bare Branch, nearly opposite a landing on the south side of said river called The Indian Landing, or from a place on the Severn river called and known by the name of the Governor's Landing, the most convenient route into the river Magothy called the Cypress Swamp Creek, and one other canal from the head of a creek, or near therefrom, on the north side of the said Magothy river called The Corn Field Creek, the most convenient route into a cove that maketh out of a creek of the Chesapeake bay, or Patapsco river, called The Bodkin Creek, or from the head of a cove of the said Magothy river called Kittleman's Cove, the most convenient route into the said Rock Creek.

Likewise for a large and commodious road to be opened, streightened, and amended, from the aforesaid Indian Landing, on the south side of the river Severn aforesaid, to the new bridge lately erected across the main branch of the Patuxent river, at a place commonly called and known by the name of Ashton's Ford, and for the opening and clearing out the said main branch of Patuxent river, from the said bridge to tide water, (or Queen-Anne, a small town on the west side of Patuxent river, or main branch thereof,) likewise from the said bridge so far up the main branch of said river, and its northern and western branches thereof, as it may be found necessary and convenient to go, so as to make the same navigable for flat bottomed boats, batteaus, &c.
