DORIMANT,
Six years old,
WILL stand this season, at Mr. Ogle's farm, near Annapolis, at ten dollars a mare, and a dollar to the groom.
He is as well bred a horse as any in America, handsome and strong, when in training had great speed, until he fell lame from a hurt received when young.
He was got by the famous horse Gabriel, (sire of Oscar and Post-Boy,) his dam by Hall's Eclipse, grandam by governor Eden's Badger, (sire of Ogle's Badger,) great-grandam by Morton's Traveller, out of col. Tucker's Selima by the Godolphin Arabian.
Gabriel (bred by lord Ossory) was got by Dorimant, sire of the highflyer, grandam by Snap, out of Shepherd's Crab mare, her dam was Miss Mercedith by Cate, out of the Little Hartley mare, so that Dorimant has the Godolphin Arabian blood both by sire and dam.
Gabriel won in three seasons fifteen matches, stakes and plates, including four kings. He beat both the famous horses Waxy and Gohanna, proving himself a capital horse at low and high weights, short and long courses.
Pasturage at half a dollar a week, but not answerable for a cident or escapes. The money, or notes, payable on or before the first of September, will be expected before the mares are taken away.
Dorimant may be seen any morning at Mr. Ogle's stable, in Annapolis.
February 4, 1806.

By virtue of an order from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, the subscriber will EXPOSE to PUBLIC SALE, on Thursday, the 20th day of February next, at the late dwelling of RICHARD MARRIOTT, deceased,
ALL his personal estate, consisting of several valuable negroes, amongst which are seven men of different professions, also stock of all kinds, valuable furniture and plate. The said property will be sold for ready cash. The sale will commence at 11 o'clock, and continue from day to day until the whole is sold.

In CHANCERY, January 14, 1806.
Benjamin Chew, jun. vs. John Campbell.
THE object of the bill in this cause is to obtain a decree for foreclosure of the defendant's equity of redemption in and to certain lands and premises, mortgaged by the defendant to a certain Peregrine Stoops, on the third day of September, eighteen hundred and two, to secure the payment of fifteen hundred and eighty-eight pounds current money, by five annual instalments, three of which instalments have become due, and remain unpaid, or that a sale of the said mortgaged premises, lying and being in Queen-Anne's county, may be sold for the payment of the said sum of money. The bill states, that Peregrine Stoops, for a valuable consideration on the twenty-eighth day of September, eighteen hundred and two, assigned all his interest in the mortgaged premises to the complainant; the bill further states, that the defendant, John Campbell, resides out of the state of Maryland. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted three times in the Maryland Gazette before the fifteenth day of February next, give notice to the absent defendant of this application, and of the substance and object of the bill, that he may be warned to appear here in person, or by a solicitor of this court, before the tenth day of June next, to shew cause, if any he hath, wherefore a decree should not be passed as prayed.

THE BATTLE OF BLENHEIM.
A BALLAD.

IT was a summer evening,
Old CASPAR's work was done;
And he before the cottage door
Was sitting in the sun;
And by him, sported on the green
His little grand-child WILHELMINE.
She saw her brother PETERKIN
Roll something large and round,
That he beside the rivulet
In playing there had found;
He came to know what he had found,
That was so large, and smooth, and round.
Old CASPER took it from the boy,
Who stood expectant by;
And then the old man shook his head,
And with a natural sigh—
"Tis some poor fellow's skull," said he,
"Who fell in the GREAT VICTORY."
"I find them in my-garden, for
"There's many here-about;
"And, often when I go to plow,
"The plowshare turns them out;
"For many thousand men," said he
"Were slain in the GREAT VICTORY."
"Now tell us what 'twas all about,"
Young PETERKIN he cries;
And little WILHELMINE looks up,
With wonder-waiting eyes:
"Now tell us all about the war,
"And what they kill'd each other for."
"It was the English," CASPAR cried,
"Who put the French to rout;
"But what they kill'd each other for
"I cannot well make out;
"But every body said the worthy
"That 'twas a FAMOUS VICTORY."
"My father liv'd at Blenheim then,
"You little stream hard by;
"They burnt his dwelling to the ground,
"And he was forced to fly;
"So with his wife and child he fled
"Nor had he where to rest his head:—
"With fire and sword the country round
"Was wasted far and wide;
"And many a chiding mother then,
"And new-born infant died;
"But things like that, you know must be
"At every FAMOUS VICTORY."
"They say, it was a shocking sight,
"After the field was won;
"For many thousand bodies here
"Lay rotting in the sun;
"But things like that, you know, must be,
"After a FAMOUS VICTORY."
"Great praise the duke of Marlbro' won,
"And our good prince EUGENE;"
"Why 'twas a very wicked thing!"
Said little WILHELMINE.
"Nay, nay, my little girl," quoth he,
"It was a FAMOUS VICTORY."
"And every body prais'd the duke,
"Who such a fight did win."
"But what good came of it at last?"
Quoth little PETERKIN.
"Why, that I cannot tell," said he,
"But 'twas a FAMOUS VICTORY."

A STRAY.
