Saint-John's College,

February, 1806.

THE Visitors and Governors of this seminary observing with concern, the tuition money so far from being regularly paid, has been suffered to run considerable in arrears, longer indulgence is inadmissible.

"RESOLVED, (At the meeting of the board on the 13th inst.) That Mr. Richard Owen, the collector, have authority to enforce payment by suit, or warrant, in cases of arrearages now due."

"RESOLVED, That in all cases where the tuition money shall not hereafter be paid in thirty days after it is become due, shall have the like authority to enforce payment."

Whereas a number of students, who at different periods quitted college, leaving their tuition accounts unpaid, are likewise indebted to the subscriber for books, stationery, &c. furnished them for the furtherance of their studies, this is to inform the parents or guardians of such students, that unless such accounts are paid, or satisfaction given, by the 1st day of April, ensuing, means will be taken to procure it, without respect of persons. Such students subject themselves also to have the college claim upon them publicly exhibited.

RICHARD OWEN, Collector.

Note—College accounts in future are made payable quarterly, or half yearly.

FOR SALE, at the Plaster Mill of the subscribers, at the corner of Franklin and Pacha-streets, near the new market, and the road leading to Reister's-town.

ALSO

PLASTER IN THE STONE.

A constant and regular supply will be kept by KENT and BROWNE.

Baltimore, February 19, 1806.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the ninth of December last, negro DICK, about forty years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, well made, of a black complexion, short wool, remarkable wide mouth, thick lips, and flat nose, looks down, and is inclined to stammer when questioned, his fore teeth in his under jaw much worn, some of his finger nails on one hand, it is not recollected which, are very thick, and not of the common form, occasioned by a burn when young. A further description is thought unnecessary, as I suspect he has changed his name and cloathing, and will endeavour to pass by some means. Whoever takes up said fellow, and secures him in any gaol, and gives information so that I get him again, shall receive, if taken twenty miles from home TEN DOLLARS, if thirty miles TWENTY DOLLARS, and if forty miles, or out of this state the above reward, and all reasonable charges if brought home.

HENRY WOODWARD.

N. B. All persons are forewarned from harbouring, employing, or carrying off said fellow at their peril.

Anne-Arundel county, February, 1806.

Lands for Sale.

PURSUANT to the last will of JOSHUA DORSEY, sen. late of Elk-Ridge, deceased; and agreeably to the decree of the honorable the chancellor of Maryland, of June 1804, will be sold, at public sale, on the premises, on the 11th day of April next, the tract of land called Locust TRACT, situated on Elk-Ridge, Anne-Arundel county, Maryland, containing 411 acres, more or less; this land is one and a half miles from Spurrier's tavern, on the post road from Baltimore to the city of Washington, about 13 miles from Baltimore, and about 25 from the city of Washington; there are several merchant mills within a few miles of this farm. This land is well adapted to Indian corn, wheat, rye, and tobacco; it is divided into six fields, under good fencing, and conveniently watered, with good springs and streams of water. There is a tolerable good mill seat on this land, a good proportion of meadow now in grass, and more can easily be made; there is a sufficiency of woodland to support this farm. The improvements are, a comfortable dwelling-house, kitchen, smoke house, corn house, barn, stables, and other necessary buildings, an apple orchard of good fruit, and a variety of other fruit trees. The terms of sale are, twelve months credit, the purchaser or purchasers giving bond, with interest from the day of sale, with approved security, for the purchase money, to the subscriber. Any person calling on Mr. John Shipley, near the premises, can be shewn the above-mentioned land. There will be an accurate plot exhibited at the day of sale. When the purchase money is paid, and not before, there will be a good and sufficient deed given by the subscriber. The sale to begin at 12 o'clock, and immediate possession given.

GEORGE DORSEY, Trustee.
