

APOTHECARY.
JUST OPENING,

A part of the stand occupied by J. HUGHES, watch-maker, in Church-street, near the Market-house, GENERAL assortment of DRUGS, which will be offered on as good terms as they can be procured from any of the neighbouring cities.

A person lately in the employ of one of the best chemists in this country, offers his service to the citizens of Annapolis and the adjoining country, in this profession, and flatters himself that his exertions will invite encouragement. No endeavours will be spared to provide a constant supply. Orders, or prescriptions from physicians, carefully attended to, and a generous allowance made to wholesale purchasers.

Amongst the articles on hand are, a large collection of the various patent medicines, infallible itch and other ointments, a few dry paints, &c. likewise choice collection of confectionary and distillery.

MARYLAND,

CHANCERY COURT, FEBRUARY TERM, 1806. ORDERED, That the stated terms for the return of process, and the hearing of causes, shall be held on the fourth Tuesday in February, the first Tuesday in July, the fourth Tuesday in September, and the first Tuesday in December.

Ordered further, that the absence of counsel, or of party, appearing without counsel, except in case of sickness, or unavoidable accident, shall not be considered as a ground of continuance. And that where two or more solicitors appear for any party, the attendance of one shall be considered sufficient to prevent a continuance.

SAMUEL H. HOWARD,
Reg. Cur. Can.

Runaways for Sale.

WILL be SOLD, on the 28th day of April next, for their gaol fees, at the gaol in Washington county, one negro man named JACK, about 37 years old, 5 feet 9 inches high, of a black complexion, he has a natural gap in his teeth; he was sold about two years since to Mr. Kennell, (a trader in negroes) from the estate of gen. Bradley, in Sussex county, Virginia. Also,

A negro man who calls himself BILLY EVANS, about 26 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, considerably marked on his back with the whip; he says he was born free, in Northumberland county, Virginia, where he was raised, and apprenticed to the shoe-making business; had on when committed a blue cloth coat, black hat, swansdown vest and nankeen pantaloons. It is conjectured that he belongs to a Mr. Shadrach Carter, Amherst county, Virginia.

The sale will commence precisely at 11 o'clock.
DANIEL C. BRENT, Marshal of the District of Columbia.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Anne-Arundel county, hath obtained from the orphans court of said county letters of administration on the personal estate of JOSEPH SELBY, late of the county aforesaid, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased are hereby requested to bring in the same, legally authenticated, and those indebted to make immediate payment, to
THOMAS SELLMAN, Administrator.
March 31, 1806.

Wanted immediately,

A YOUTH of about 14 or 15 years old, who can come well recommended, write a good plain hand, and understands figures, to attend in a grocery store; one from the country would be preferred. Inquire of the Printers.
Annapolis, March 31, 1806.

To be SOLD, at PRIVATE SALE, SUNDRY NEGROES.

For particulars inquire of
JOHN WELCH.

THE subscriber wants, this spring, eighty or one hundred cords of good Spanish, water, black or white oak bark, he will give from seven to nine dollars per cord, or at any rate he will give one dollar more than the Baltimore price, if brought to this city; any one having that article to dispose of; within twenty miles of Annapolis, and find it inconvenient to peel or deliver it, he will get it himself, and give a good price in proportion.
JOHN HYDE.
Annapolis, February 4, 1806.

Twenty-five & Fifty Dollars Reward.

ABOUT three years ago I purchased of Walter A. W. Norman, tanner, in Queen-Anne, a black boy named STEPHEN, then fifteen years old, remarkably well disposed, a little defective in his knees, but otherwise stout and well made. This boy, about 8 weeks ago, by the instigation of some very disreputable person, was enticed from my service, and (from information derived through the boy's own colour) I have reason to believe has obtained a pass, and is now harboured and protected under it. He is supposed to be either in the Swamp of West river, or on Kent-Island, where he has a mother named Esther, lately manumitted by a certain Valentine Carter. I will give twenty-five dollars for apprehending said boy, so that I get him again, and fifty dollars for such information as will merely justify my feelings in inflicting the punishment proper for so great a scoundrel.

Saint-Paul's Parish Lottery.

THE subscribers having been appointed by the Vestry of St. Paul's parish, managers of a lottery authorized by the general assembly of Maryland and the corporation of the city of Baltimore, intended to raise a sum of money for the erection of a parsonage house, and for other purposes, offer to the public the following

From the above scheme, it appears that there are not two blanks to a prize; and that the prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope will induce every holder of the tickets, as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day. All prizes will be paid within sixty days from the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months after will be considered as generous donations to the objects of the lottery. Bond has been given to the amount of 50,000 dollars, to the mayor and city council, for the faithful performance of its conditions.

Tickets may be had of the managers, and of such other persons as they may appoint; and prizes in the Cathedral and Second Presbyterian Church Lotteries will be received in payment.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the ninth of December last, negro DICK, about forty years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, well made, of a black complexion, short wool, remarkable wide mouth, thick lips, and flat nose, looks down, and is inclined to stammer when questioned, his fore teeth in his under jaw much worn, some of his finger nails on one hand, it is not recollected which, are very thick, and not of the common form, occasioned by a burn when young. A further description is thought unnecessary, as I suspect he has changed his name and clothing, and will endeavour to pass for a free man, or perhaps he has obtained a pass by some means. Whoever takes up said fellow, and secures him in any gaol, and gives information so that I get him again, shall receive, if taken twenty miles from home TEN DOLLARS, if thirty miles TWENTY DOLLARS, and if forty miles, or out of this state the above reward, and all reasonable charges if brought home.
HENRY WOODWARD.

N. B. All persons are forewarned from harbouring, employing, or carrying off said fellow at their peril.

Poet's Corner.

SELECTED.

THE OLD SOLDIER.

O PITY! if thy holy tear
Immortal decks the wing of time,
'Tis when the soldier's honor'd bier
Demands the glittering drop sublime;
For who, from busy life remov'd,
Such glorious, dangerous toil has prov'd,
As he, who on the embattled plain
Lies nobly slain?

He, who forsakes his native shore
To meet the whizzing ball of death;
Who, mid the battle's fatal roar,
Requies his ling'ring, parting breath,
Who, when the deafning din is done,
So well deserves as Valour's son,
The proud, the lasting wreath of fame,
To grace his name?

Hard is his fate, the fultry day
To wander o'er the burning plain;
All night to walt the hours away,
Mid howling winds and beating rain;
To talk (O villain, sadly sweet!)
With her his eyes will never meet,
And find, at morn's returning gleam,
'Twas but a dream!

To mark the haughty brow severe;
To hear the imperious stern command;
To leave the sigh, to drop the tear,
While memory paints his native land:
To know, the laurel he has won
Twines round the brow of fortune's son;
While he when strength and youth are flown,
Shall die unknown!

ANECDOTE.

An honest sailor, on board of a ship in extreme danger, amidst all the distresses and dangers which surrounded him, while the horrid howling of the boatman's voice could only be equalled by the thundering of the raging tempests, lifted up his soul to his God, and with the utmost sincerity of heart, addressed his Maker for preservation. He had often been exposed to the fury of contending elements, and had borne with fortitude, the "pitiless pelting of the storm," and yet escaped. In the service of his country he had often bravely faced the embattled foe, when his shipmates sunk around him into the arms of death, yet he escaped. These interpositions and manifestations of Divine Providence rushed full upon his mind, and forbade him to despair. "I know," says he, "that God will not forsake me—I'll be DAMNED if he does."

By virtue of a decree of the honourable the High Court of Chancery, will be sold, at Public Auction, on Monday, the 21st day of April next, if fair, if not, on the first fair day thereafter, on the premises,

THE following tracts or parcels of LAND, adjoining each other, lying in Saint-Mary's county, viz. Little Yielding, containing 78½ acres, more or less, and Perch-hole Marsh, containing 30 acres, more or less. These several tracts of land are situated immediately on Saint-Clement's Bay, and the soil is remarkably fertile; this tract also includes a valuable marsh, which produces a most luxuriant growth of grafs. A credit of twelve months will be given for the purchase money, the purchaser giving bond, with approved security, with interest from the day of sale. Good and sufficient titles will be made, on the ratification of the sale by the chancellor, and upon the full payment of the purchase money. The sale to commence at 11 o'clock, A. M.
March 8, 1806. JOHN LEIGH, Trustee.

NOTICE.

Will be sold, to the highest bidder, on Friday, the 12th day of September next, if fair, if not, the first fair day afterwards, unless disposed of at private sale before the 1st of September, in which case public notice will be given.

ALL that tract of LAND called Stepney, lying and being in Anne-Arundel county, five miles from Annapolis, containing eight hundred and thirty-five acres; the improvements on this farm are considerable, with many great advantages, there are several good orchards on it, with the choicest fruits of every kind; its situation almost immediately upon South river ensures always good fish and oysters, and at the head of a creek, which bounds the farm on one side, is a considerable portion of excellent meadow ground. It would be too tedious more minutely to describe this land, as a person wishing to purchase would view the premises. One third of the purchase money must be paid in hand, and a liberal credit, with approved security, will be given for the balance. Any person desirous of purchasing at private sale will make application to the subscriber, at Port-Tobacco, Charles county. An unexceptionable title will be given to the purchaser, and possession of the premises on the first day of January, 1807.

ROBERT C. STONE.

Port-Tobacco, March 13, 1806.

The subscriber requests the printers of the Telegraph and Federal Gazette in Baltimore, Washington Federalist and Frederick-town Herald, to insert the above advertisement in their several papers until countermanded, and send on their accounts directed to this place for payment.
