A Pocket-Book Lost.
LOST, on the road from Annapolis to Poulton's tavern, a large RED MOROCCO POCKET- BOOK, containing a small sum of money in bank notes, and a variety of papers of consequence to the owner. Whoever has found the said book, and will leave it with its enclosures with the subscriber, at the bank of Baltimore, or with John Kilty, Esq; of Annapolis, will be very generously rewarded.
 March 11, 1806. D. A. SMITH.

AS it can now be scarcely doubted, that the pocket book mentioned in the foregoing advertisement, which was dropped on the 2d instant, has been found by some person who does not intend to restore the contents to the owner, it is thought proper to direct the attention of the public to a note of one hundred dollars, which, besides the loose money already noticed, was lost with the book, being enclosed in a sealed letter directed to a gentleman in Baltimore.
 The description of this note is no further recollected than that it was of the Farmers Bank of Maryland, and of a very late emission. If such a note has been or should hereafter be offered in payment, or for change, by any person not apparently in the way of possessing so considerable a sum by honest means, it is hoped that notice will be given as above. If the finder of this book, although not scrupulous enough to restore the money, should be inclined on any consideration to return the book itself, and the papers, instead of destroying them, it can be no difficult matter to leave them where they may be picked up, and whoever, if this hint should be taken, may deliver them, as above directed, will be suitably rewarded.

Valuable Land for Sale,

On accommodating terms and in small parcels.
WILL be offered for sale by the subscriber, at public auction, on Saturday, the 12th day of April next, at Peter Orndorff's tavern, on Elk-Ridge, a tract of LAND called Columbia, containing between eight and nine hundred acres, laid off in lots of about one hundred and fifty acres each. This land is situate in Anne-Arundel county, in a remarkably healthy neighbourhood, distant from Baltimore twenty-four miles, and three miles from the Poplar Spring; the soil is peculiarly well adapted to the cultivation of small grain, corn and tobacco, and contains a large portion of rich meadow ground. The terms of sale, it is presumed, will be found inviting, as a small part only of the purchase money will be required in hand, and a liberal credit will be given for the residue. It is deemed unnecessary to give a more particular description of this property, as those inclined to purchase will of course view the premises.
 A plot of the land is left with Mr. Orndorff, where persons wishing to examine the same are requested to apply.
