SELECTED.

THE BIRTH DAY OF FREEDOM,
OR,
BATTLE OF DERNE.

[Sung by Mr. Woodham, at Mr. Holland's Benefit.]

LET the sons of Columbia, with triumph proclaim,
 That the day ever sacred shall be,
 When our forefather's rous'd, to break tyranny's chain
 And declared they were born to be Free.

Shall the land that gave birth to a Washington fear,
 Tho' millions in arms should oppose?
 No! those rights we'll defend, by their conquest made dear,
 And destruction, send back on its foes.

As on Derne's wild plain, where the fierce savage host
 Fled before us with terror dismay'd,
 Whilst with war's dreadful thunder, we ravag'd their coast,
 And full tribute in Victory paid.

See Liberty's banner, by EATON unfurl'd
 On their walls, where our hero commands,
 From whose high rampart towers just vengeance he hurl'd,
 And his countrymen's freedom demands.

As the proud swelling wave o'er its bosom shall bear
 To our shores the poor exile distress'd,
 See the arms of our country, a welcome prepare,
 And each sorrow dispel from his breast.

Let those blessings, to gain which, with valour we fought,
 To the sons of oppression extend,
 Who seeking our shores, will by precept be taught
 Equal rights to respect and defend.

THE WEALTH OF THE COTTAGE.

A BLESSING unknown to ambition and pride,
 That fortune can never abate,
 To wealth and to splendour tho' often deny'd,
 Yet on poverty deigns to await;
 That blessing, ye powers, oh! be it my lot
 The choicest best gift from above;
 Deep fix'd in my heart, shall be never forgot—
 The wealth of the Cottage is love.

Whate'er my condition, why should I repine,
 By poverty never distress'd?
 Exulting I felt what a treasure was mine;
 A treasure enshrin'd in my breast.
 That blessing, ye pow'rs! still be in my lot;
 The choicest best gift from above!
 Still fix'd in my heart, it shall ne'er be forgot—
 The wealth of the Cottage is love.

Wonderful power of magnetism.

A GENTLEMAN travelling in foreign parts, happened to be benighted, far from any place of accommodation: to avoid the dreariness of the night, in a strange place, he thought it advisable to seek for some shelter, and having discovered a cave, he dismounted his horse, which he fastened by the bridle on the outside of the cave; and then went in and laid himself down in his cloaths, and being much fatigued, fell asleep, nor did he wake till the daylight appeared; when, to his great astonishment, he found himself suspended by his heels from the roof of the cave. He made many efforts to free himself from so disagreeable a situation when at length he shuffled his legs out of his boots and came to the ground, almost stunned by the fall; when looking up he perceived the cause of this disaster was owing to the cave being formed out of a rock of loadstone, and he unfortunately having steel spurs on, was attracted up in the manner described; and some say the boots are hanging there yet.

Valuable Land for Sale,

On accommodating terms and in small parcels. WILL be offered for sale by the subscriber, at public auction, on Saturday, the 12th day of April next, at Peter Orndorff's tavern, on Elk-Ridge, a tract of LAND called Columbia, containing between eight and nine hundred acres, laid off in lots of about one hundred and fifty acres each. This land is situate in Anne-Arundel county, in a remarkably healthy neighbourhood, distant from Baltimore twenty-four miles, and three miles from the Poplar Spring; the soil is peculiarly well adapted to the cultivation of small grain, corn and tobacco, and contains a large portion of rich meadow ground. The terms of sale, it is presumed, will be found inviting, as a small part only of the purchase money will be required in hand, and a liberal credit will be given for the residue. It is deemed unnecessary to give a more particular description of this property, as those inclined to purchase will of course view the premises. A plot of the land is left with Mr. Orndorff, where persons wishing to examine the same are requested to apply.
