

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from White-Marsh, in Anne-Arundel county, a negro man named MICHAEL, about twenty years of age, five feet three or four inches high; had on when he went away, a blue vest, Welch kerley short coat, and a pair of nankin pantaloons. Any person that will secure him in any of the county gaols, so that I get him again, shall receive FIFTEEN DOLLARS if taken in the county, and about of the county the above reward.

G. B. BITOUZEY.

N. B. All captains and masters of vessels are forewarned carrying off said negro at their peril.

Runaways for Sale.

WILL be SOLD, on the 28th day of April next, for their gaol fees, at the gaol in Washington county, one negro man named JACK, about 37 years old, 5 feet 9 inches high, of a black complexion, he has a natural gap in his teeth; he says he was sold about two years since to a Mr. Kennell, (a trader in negroes) from the estate of gen. Bradley, in Suffolk county, Virginia. Also,

A negro man who calls himself BILLY EVANS, about 26 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, considerably marked on his back with the whip; he says he was born free, in Northumberland county, Virginia, where he was raised, and apprenticed to the shoe-making business; had on when committed a blue cloth coat, black hat, swansdown vest and nankin pantaloons. It is conjectured that he belongs to a Mr. Studdieck Carter, Amherst county, Virginia.

The sale will commence precisely at 11 o'clock.
DANIEL C. BRINT, Marshal of the District of Columbia.
March 19, 1806.

WAS committed to my custody, as a runaway, on the 18th day of February last, a negro man who calls himself DAVIS SCOTT, and says he was bound when very young by the trustees of the poor of King and Queen county, Virginia, to GEORGE KIDD, with whom he served his time.

He is now free, and is a trader in the following: 5 feet high, says he is 24 years old, has short wool on his head, and a scar down the middle of his forehead; his clothing is an old wool hat, old yellow broad cloth coat, new cotton ditto, one striped cotton and one white Marseilles jacket, cotton shirt, gray cloth breeches, yarn stockings, old shoes, and a pair of blue cloth pantaloons. His owner is requested to take him away, he will otherwise be sold, agreeably to law, for his gaol fees, &c.

JAMES COOKE, Sheriff of St. Mary's county.

MARYLAND,

CHANCERY COURT, FEBRUARY TERM, 1806.

ORDERED, That the stated terms for the return of process, and the hearing of causes, shall be held on the fourth Tuesday in February, the first Tuesday in July, the fourth Tuesday in September, and the first Tuesday in December.

Ordered further, that the absence of counsel, or of a party, appearing without counsel, except in case of sickness, or unavoidable accident, shall not be considered as a ground of continuance. And that where two or more solicitors appear for any party, the attendance of one shall be considered sufficient to prevent a continuance.

Test. SAMUEL H. HOWARD, Reg. Cur. Can.

THE Parish of Saint-Anne's, including the city of Annapolis, being vacant, the Vestry are desirous to engage a clergyman to supply such vacancy. Applications made to Capt. ROBERT DENNY, in Annapolis, will meet with immediate attention.

There is a good parsonage-house appendant to the Parish.
Saint-Anne's Parish, April 7, 1806.

REMOVAL.

John Thompson, Tailor,

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and Customers, that he has removed to the shop formerly occupied by Mr. William Morgan, and nearly opposite Mr. Gwinn's tavern. He renders his thanks for the liberal patronage he has heretofore received, and assures them no exertions shall be wanting, on his part, to merit a continuance of the same.
Annapolis, April 16, 1806.

The New Grocery Store,

Has Flour of a superior quality for Sale. THE subscriber will have a regular supply of Flour, of a superior quality, from Mr. John Gibson's, manufactured at White-Hall mill; as he will purchase none but the best wheat, and only have it ground as the demand may require, it will be always fresh, and no inconvenience result to gentlemen from the country, who may find it convenient to lay in several barrels at the same time.

He also still continues to keep a choice assortment of GROCERIES, consisting of spirit, brandy, whiskey, beer, molasses, sugars, white and brown, candles, mould and dipped, bacon, pork, butter, lard, cheese, fish, salt, meal, corn, oats, potatoes, fruits, (in season) pilot bread, and Alexandria crackers; an assortment of stone and potter's ware, and a variety of other articles in the grocery line too numerous to enumerate, which he will endeavour to keep a constant supply of. Therefore any persons wishing to be supplied with groceries, will meet with them on the most reduced prices for cash or produce, which will be received in exchange, and a liberal price allowed for grain. He cordially thanks his friends for their custom, and hopes a continuance of the same.

WILLIAM WHITTINGTON.

P. S. Orders from the country will be duly attended to, and any article that may be wanting, which the subscriber has not, he will procure on the lowest terms, as though the person were present. He will also attend to the disposal of any kind of market goods on a very liberal and reasonable price.

Annapolis, April 16, 1806.

Poet's Corner.

SELECTED.

AN EXTRACT.

"A Bosom should remain untren,
"Hid from the lawless glance;
"No charm there is, so great, I ween,
"Which fancy's dream cannot enhance.
"The scanty robe, and bosom bare,
"Wither the bud of virgin shame;
"The steeple's arm and forward stare,
"Ill become the virgin's name.
"What steals the blush of timid shame,
"Steals the first of beauty's charms;
"What grace and modesty disclaim,
"Can add no force to beauty's arms.
"I love to see the maid aspire,
"By other arts to please,
"I love the simple, neat attire,
"Combining elegance with ease."

RESIGNATION.

THE rose has its thorns; and the violet tho' fair,
From its sweet purple leaves, deadly poison supplies;
And when bright is the sky, soft and gentle the air,
How oft, unexpected, a storm will arise.
Yet who would, thro' fear, pass unnoticed the rose?
Or thum the perfume of the violet's sweet breath?
Or shrink from the air, while the mild zephyr blows,
Lest a cloud yet unseen scatter tempest and death?
The thorn of the rose, when 'tis gather'd with care,
Has seldom been known the possessor to wound;
And the peasant scarce shudders the tempest to hear,
Remembering the verdure it pours on the ground.
The poison conceal'd in the sweet violet's leaves,
Lies harmless, till forced into action by art;
And the sorrows of life, which mild patience receives,
Have lost half their power to torture the heart.

Unhurt by the tempest, unenchanted by the rain;
Yet a canker, alas, may thy beauty consume,
And scatter thy withering leaves on the plain.

But thy thorn is forgot while we think on thy sweets,
The tempest not dreaded while clear is the sky;
And the heart which, resigned, stern calamity meets,
Thinks on blessings received, and represses the sigh.

THE SILENT TEAR.

THE tear which silent falls,
When misery tells its woes,
Adds beauty to the eye,
Like dew upon the rose.
The sigh which swells the breast
And rends the heart with pain,
Is dear to virtue's cause,
Humanity's best claim.

The feeling, manly heart,
Ne'er hears them plead in vain;
Alive to all their grief,
It feels for all their pain.
Unseen by human kind,
It seeks for misery's haunt,
And offers to the Poor
The little they may want.

Oh! did you know the bliss
Soft Pity'er imparts,
Or feel the pure delight
It kindles in the heart;
How oft would you relieve
The beggar at your door,
Protect misfortune's child
Besfriend the Orphan Poor.

ANECDOTE.

Two sailors went into a church at Plymouth, on the thanksgiving day, both of whom belonged to the Temeraire, at the ever memorable battle off Trafalgar. The clergyman, in the course of his sermon, mentioned the words "glorious victory," on which one of the tars observed to the other, "Hear, Jack, there's the Victory." The clergyman pronounced the word "victory," a second time, on which the tar observed, "mind, Jack, there's the victory again." The clergyman, not long after, mentioned the word "victory" a third time, on which the irritated tar observed to his companion, "D—n my eyes, Jack, if we stop here any longer—that fellow has mentioned the Victory three times, and never mentioned the Temeraire, that was in the hottest part of the engagement, and took two ships," when they immediately left the church.

THE subscriber wants, this spring, eighty or one hundred cords of good Spanish water, black or white oak bark, he will give from seven to nine dollars per cord, or at any rate he will give one dollar more than the Baltimore price, if brought to this city; any one having that article to dispose of, within twenty miles of Annapolis, and find it inconvenient to peel or deliver it, he will get it himself, and give a good price in proportion.

JOHN HYDE.
Annapolis, February 4, 1806.
