

June 28.

In yesterday's Gazette, we gave an erroneous statement of four French ships capt. Dolliver saw on his passage from Teiceira. We have seen Mr. Hoes, the mate, who gives the following account of them:

June 4, in lat. 39, 44, long. 52, 38, just to the eastward of the Grand Bank, was spoken by a French frigate, three others in sight, steering S. E.—saw on her stern, Hermoine.

[From this, it is certain, that the above is the Squadron which sailed from Porto-Rico on the 18th of May, as mentioned in yesterday's Gazette. But it does not appear, as stated in the Porto-Rico paper that they were bound in pursuit of Miranda—for they were making the best of their way to France.]

BRIDGE-TOWN, June 3.

Rear-admiral the honourable Sir Alexander Cochrane, K. B. arrived here on Sunday night, from Antigua and Dominica, on board his majesty's ship Northumberland, which has undergone a thorough repair of the damages sustained in the victory off St. Domingo.

The enemy's schooner Imperial, Monsieur Point, esq. de Vassrau, engaged in the late design against the shipping at Dominica, (mentioned in our last) was brought in here on Sunday, by the Cygnet sloop of war; on board of which arrived the commander of that buccaniering enterprize, whose name we mistated, and now find to be Hortode, and his rank adjutant-general of Guadaloupe. Most of the prisoners taken on the above occasion have also arrived here; but we understand that some of them embarked on board one of the king's schooners, to be brought here, rose upon the crew with an intent of taking the schooner, but by the gallantry of the commander, the prisoners were overcome and secured, not, however, until some loss was sustained on our part, and the lieutenant of the schooner severely wounded, which obliged him to put into Antigua.

A French brig of strong force, from Cayenne, according to the reports of several American vessels arrived here, is cruising to windward, and has boarded them from within 100 to 180 miles of the land. She is stated to mount 16 long brass 9's, and to carry 120 men. His majesty's ships Ethalion and Cygnet have both gone to sea, in consequence of this information, and we hope one or the other may be successful in falling in with her.

There is some report in town, of the arrival of a small French Squadron at Porto-Rico, and it is added, that the admiral has dispatched the Canada and a frigate or two to look after them; but we do not know how far this is correct: if any such report has been received upon authentic grounds, we are confident the vigilance of the admiral will not let them remain long unlooked after.

June 7.

General Miranda.—This celebrated and distinguished officer arrived here this morning, on board the American ship Leander, captain Lewis, in company with his majesty's sloop of war Lilly, which fell in with the Leander on the 26th ult. off Grenada. General Miranda, who had sailed from America in January last, on an expedition to give freedom and independence to South-America, touched at Jacquemel, and sailed again from thence on the 27th March, in company with the schooners Bachus and Bee, and arrived near Ocumana, between Porto-Cavello and Laguiru, on Sunday evening 27th April; on the following morning, the coast being alarmed, the Leander was attacked by two stout Guarda Costas, one a brig of twenty 12 pounders, and the other a schooner of sixteen 12's, both full of men. The Leander succeeded in beating these off; but the Bachus and Bee, being in shore endeavouring to land a detachment, were captured, having several confidential officers on board.

In consequence of this disaster and the Leander being in want of water, General Miranda put into Beun-are and sailed from thence on the 1st instant, intending for Trinidad, but having fallen in with the Lilly, and received some information from captain Campbell of that ship, he proceeded to Grenada, and from thence to this island, probably with a view of conferring with our respective commanders on the future execution of his laudable enterprize, in which every British subject and free government must wish him the amplest success.

The Bachus and Bee were two unarmed pilot-boat schooners.

BALTIMORE, July 1.

We are indebted to our obliging correspondents at New-York, for the following information contained in a letter to the Editor, dated the 28th ultimo, at noon:—

"Captain Smith, in 13 days from St. Pierres, in former, the JEROME BUONAPARTE arrived at Fort Royal on the 6th instant, in an 80 gun ship. Shortly after her arrival a British frigate appeared off the harbour, when Jerome got under way, and stood out to give her battle; but, just as the ships were preparing for action, another British frigate hove in sight, which induced Jerome to return hastily into Fort Royal harbour. An embargo was then laid which continued four days. The two British frigates remained off the harbour, when Captain Smith failed."

Versification of the first Song of Solomon. "Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth, for his love is sweeter than wine." &c. O! CLASP me in thy close embrace, And press those balmy lips to mine! Thy love dear youth of matchless grace, Thy love is sweeter far than wine! Tho' o'er my slender form the sun Has all his fiercest radiance thrown, What youth my proffer'd love would thum, What maid my beauty will not own? Tell me, beloved of my soul, Where thou thy gentle flocks dost feed? Where rest'st at noon? nor let me stroll To those that thy companions lead. More sweet than myrrh when zephyrs spread Its perfumes, as they wanton fly; O! quickly come and let thy head Allight upon my bosom lie. What youth shall e'er to thee compare? Whole charms shall vie with thine my love? Thy skin excels the lilly fair, Thine eyes the mildness of the dove. O! come then! come, in all thy charms, By thousand softest wishes led; O! come and clasp me in thy arms, Where green and mossy is our bed.
