THE object of the complainants bill is to obtain a decree for the partition of a tract of land, situate and lying in Anne-Arundel county, called Rich Land, containing three hundred acres, among the heirs of Thomas Pitcher, deceased; the bill states, that the said Thomas Pitcher hath departed this life intestate, leaving the aforesaid Anne, Hannah, Sarah, Mercy, Thomas and James, his children and heirs at law, that James is a minor, and that Anne Pitcher, Samuel Church, and Hannah his wife, Cornelius McCarty, and Sarah his wife, are absent from the state of Maryland, and gone to parts unknown to the complainants; it is thereupon, on the application of the complainants, adjudged and ordered, that they cause a copy of this order to be published three weeks successively in the Maryland Gazette before the 2d day of August next, to the end that the said defendants may be warned to appear in this court, in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 2d day of December next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass as prayed.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RAN away, on the first of July, 1806, from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county, Patapco Neck, near Hawkins's Point, a likely young negro man named BOB, but sometimes calls himself BOB MILLER; he is in the twenty-fourth year of his age, about five feet nine or ten inches high, is tolerably black, straight made fellow, with a smiling countenance when spoken to, has a remarkable scar on the lower part of the back of his neck, near the size of a cent, under his shirt collar; he was raised to the farming business; had on when he went off, a high crown felt hat, with a band and buckle, a nabrig shirt, and hempen linen trousers. I expect he will change his name and cloaths, as he did when he ran off before. I presume he has procured a forged pass from his infamous connexions in the neighbourhood where he lived. If taken up and secured in any gaol, so that I get him again, if twenty miles from home forty dollars, if forty miles or upwards eighty dollars, if out of the state the above reward. If taken in Baltimore and secured, so that I get him, twenty dollars, and if brought home all reasonable travelling expences, paid by

JAMES P. SOPER.

N. B. Captains of vessels and others are forewarned harbouring, employing, or carrying off said runaway at their peril. 2 July 2, 1806.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near Annapolis, a negro man named SAM, he went off on Monday morning, the 8th instant, with little or no cloathing, as he made his escape from confinement, being fearful he had committed murder; he is about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, stout made; it is supposed he has made for the neighbourhood of the rev. Edward Gantt, in Calvert county, from whence he was hired. The above reward will be given for bringing him home, or securing him in any gaol, so that I get him again.

2 JOSEPH LEONARD.
Hill's Delight, July 9, 1806.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

ON the twenty-ninth day of June last broke from the gaol of Prince-George's county, in the town of Upper-Marlborough, a negro man named COLONEL, about five feet seven or eight inches high, very black, and about 25 years of age. He was lately committed to the said gaol for his bad behaviour, and was cropt in the right ear. His cloathing, when he went away, was an osnabrig shirt and trousers; he is supposed to be in the neighbourhood of Mrs. Rawlings, in Calvert county. The above reward will be paid upon his being delivered to the gaol from whence he broke.
