ABSCONDED,

A FEW days ago, from the subscriber, a tall slender black negro woman named DARKEY. I purchased her some years ago from the estate of John Mackall, Esq; and I apprehend she has gone to Calvert county. Any person who will apprehend her, and will produce me sufficient proof that they have sold her in any of the southern states, to wit: Georgia, North or South-Carolina, shall be entitled to the whole proceeds, or I will pay TWENTY DOLLARS to any person who will give me information of her being harboured by any free person; so that they may be prosecuted.

EDWARD HALL, West river.

P. S. I am informed she has a brother who lives with capt. Leonard, in whose neighbourhood she may be lurking. E. H. August 25, 1806.

One-Hundred & Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away, on the first of July, 1806, from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county, Patapsco Neck, near Hawkins's Point, within ten miles of Baltimore, Maryland, a likely young negro man named BOB, but sometimes calls himself BOB MILLER; is a tolerably black, straight made fellow, with a smiling countenance when spoken to, has a remarkable scar on the lower part of the back of his neck, near the size of a cent, under his shirt collar; he was raised to the farming business, he is in the twenty-fourth year of his age, about five feet nine or ten inches high; had on when he went off, a high crown felt hat, with a band and buckle; an over round coat, deep blue mixed strong cloth doubled at each elbow, and the left shoulder, osnabrig shirt; and hempen linen trousers. I expect he will change his name and cloaths, as he did when he ran off before, he changed his name to NICHOLAS JOHNSON. I presume he has procured a forged pass from his infamous connexions in the neighbourhood where he lived. If taken up and secured in any gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive one hundred dollars, if out of the state the above reward, and reasonable travelling expences paid, if brought home, by Twenty-five & Fifty Dollars Reward.

ABOUT three years ago I purchased of Walter W. Norman, tanner, in Queen-Anne, a black boy named STEPHEN, then fifteen years old, remarkably well disposed, a little defective in his knees, but otherwise stout and well made. This boy, about 8 weeks ago, by the instigation of some very disreputable person, was enticed from my service, and (from information derived through the boy's own colour) I have reason to believe has obtained a pass, and is now harboured and protected under it. He is supposed to be either in the Swamp of West river, or on Kent-Island, where he has a mother named Esther, lately manumitted by a certain Valentine Carter. I will give twenty-five dollars for apprehending said boy, so that I get him again, and fifty dollars for such information as will merely justify my feelings in inflicting the punishment proper for so great a scoundrel.
