

Gideon White
Has just received a fresh supply of Richard Lee and
PATENT AND FAMILY MEDICINES.

The celebrated
Worm-Destroying Lozenges,
WHICH have within seven years past cured upwards of one hundred thousand persons of both sexes, of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints, arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title, so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary, the particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution; contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. They are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions; feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Also may be had,
 Lee's celebrated Anti-Bilious Pills, for the prevention and cure of bilious and malignant fevers.
 Infalible Ague and Fever Drops, for the cure of agues, remittent, and intermittent fevers.
 Lee's True and Genuine Eye Water.
 Lee's Corn Plaster.
 Lee's Sovereign Ointment for the Itch, warranted a certain remedy, with one application, free from mercury or any pernicious ingredient.

Twenty-five & Fifty Dollars Reward.
 ABOUT three years ago I purchased of Walter W. Norman, tanner, in Queen Anne, a black boy named STEPHEN, then fifteen years old, remarkably well disposed, a little defective in his knees, but otherwise stout and well made. This boy, about 8 weeks ago, by the instigation of some very dissipated person, was enticed from my service, and (from information derived through the boy's own colour) I have reason to believe has obtained a pass, and is now harboured and protected under it. He is supposed to be either in the Swamp of West river, or on Kent Island, where he has a mother named Esther, lately manumitted by a certain Valentine Carter. I will give twenty-five dollars for apprehending said boy, so that I get him again, and fifty dollars for such information as will merely justify my feelings in inflicting the punishment proper for so great a scoundrel.
