

NEW-YORK, November 15.

By the Richard, capt. Rogers, from Nantes, we have completed our file of Paris papers to the 25th of September inclusive. They breathe throughout a spirit of hostility, being occupied principally with the "dreadful note of preparation" over the whole of the European continent for a reconnoissance of war.

A gentleman who came passenger in the Richard is the bearer of dispatches from the American minister at Paris to the secretary of state, and an elegant medal, a present from his imperial majesty to the president of the U. States.

Lord Lauderdale was at Paris the 25th of September.

A Paris paper says—Haydn, the great musician, died about the 1st of September.

Jerome Buonaparte has been declared a prince, and decorated by his imperial majesty with the grand eagle of the legion of honour. Jerome is now styled his imperial highness! [Mercantile Advertiser.]

It was whispered, in confidential circles at Paris, that Buonaparte had determined to compliment the queen of Etruria, with the kingdom of Portugal.

An article, dated Berlin, August 30, says, it is rumoured that all our differences with England are on the point of being terminated. [Com. Adv.]

Translated for the Mercantile Advertiser.

PARIS, September 25.

We are assured that his eminence cardinal Maury, who has been admitted among the number of French cardinals, is appointed first almoner to his imperial highness prince Jerome Buonaparte.

September 24.

This day the conservative senate has held an extraordinary sitting. It is believed that the object of his majesty's message has been to make known to the senate the marriage concluded between his imperial highness prince Jerome and a princess-royal of Wirtemberg. It is added, that at the end of the message two letters were read; one to the prince [primate of the confederation of the Rhine, making known to him the emperor's intention to support the confederation with all the forces of France; the other to the king of Bavaria, announcing that, notwithstanding many court intrigues, his majesty hopes still to preserve peace with Prussia; but that, should that prove not return a prompt and categorical answer to the explanations which have been demanded, he will be ready to enter Germany with 300,000 men.]

BALTIMORE, November 14.

Extract from a letter, dated Norfolk, November 9, to a respectable commercial house in this city.

"The ship William Penn has just arrived from Nantes, which she left the 25th September. The captain says, Buonaparte had left Paris, with his guards, &c. for the north, said to be against Prussia. Lord Lauderdale was ready to leave Paris immediately. The Paris papers contain accounts of the death of Mr. Fox. My letters of the 19th say, all prospect of peace had vanished."

NEW-ORLEANS, October 17.

From the Coffee-House books.

Extract of a letter from Natchez, dated 10th October, 1806.

"Our troops that marched from this place on the 25th instant, we are informed, are to be discharged immediately, in consequence of the Spanish troops having crossed the Sabine river, and have promised to remain there until the line of demarkation is established."

Another of the 11th instant, says,

"The Spaniards have re-crossed the Sabine, and our Mississippi troops are on their return to their homes." [Louisiana Gazette.]

A Lexington paper of October 16, says, "A correspondent is authorized to contradict the report, that col. Burr is concerned in the building of either gun-boats or a schooner at Marietta; as such report is entirely void of any foundation in fact."

Yesterday arrived brig Eliza, capt. Wilkes from New-Orleans, in which came passenger Daniel Clark, esq. member of congress; by him we learn, that gen. Wilkinson having taken the command of the U. States' army at Natchitoches, had opened a conference with the commander of the Spanish troops, in consequence of which matters were adjusted, and the Spaniards had crossed, or at least agreed to re-cross the Sabine immediately. [Phil. pap.]

Capt. Nelson, arrived at Charleston, from Havana, informs that a few days before he sailed, a Spanish packet arrived at Trinidad, (Cuba) in 30 days from Old Spain. Letters by this arrival were received at Havanna, stating, that East and West Florida had been ceded by Spain to France, and by France to the United States. It was also stated, that the Island of Cuba had been ceded by Spain to France, in consequence of Buonaparte's agreeing to reinstate the King of Naples on his Throne.—Knowing, as we do, that a douceur of two millions has been dispatched to France, to pave the way in a negotiation for the Floridas, we think the first of this article very likely to be correct.—But that Buonaparte should consent to take his brother Joseph from the throne of Naples, so shortly after having elevated him to that dignity, for the purpose of reinstating its lawful sovereign, is very doubtful. [Courier.]

On Sunday the 12th instant, departed this life at his residence in Baltimore county, in the 73d year of his age, Mr. BENJAMIN BANNEKER, a blackman, an immediate descendant of an African father. He was well known in his neighbourhood for his quiet and peaceable demeanor, and among scientific men as an astronomer and mathematician. In early life he was instructed in the most common rules of arithmetic, and thereafter, with the assistance of different authors, he was enabled to acquire a perfect knowledge of all the higher branches of learning. Mr. B. was the calculator of several almanacks which were published in this, as well as some of the neighbouring states, and although of late years none of his almanacks were published, yet he never failed to calculate one every year, and left them among his papers, preferring solitude to mixing with society, and devoted the greatest part of his time in reading and contemplation, and to no books was he more attached than the Scriptures. At his decease he bequeathed all his astronomical and philosophical books and papers to a friend.

Mr. Banneker is a prominent instance to prove that a descendant of Africa is susceptible of as great mental improvement and deep knowledge into the mysteries of nature, as that of any other nation. [Baltimore Telegraphic.]

TAKEN up, on Thursday night, the 30th of October, a ROW BOAT, sixteen feet long on the top, six feet five inches wide, clinch work built, has a slow bottom, and black sides, with four oars, a large sprit-sail and a jib on her. I do suspect she belongs to the brig that lay off Annapolis, as some of her hands ran away, and left her on our shore. The owner is requested to prove her, pay charges, and take her away.
