

Further publication of the proclamation regarding the murder of SAULES NEVITT, deemed unnecessary by the Executive, and of the sixth of September respecting it is countermanded.

NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

FARMERS BANK OF MARYLAND.
Notice is hereby given, that the books will be sent at Annapolis on Monday, the thirteenth of April next, and continue open the next day; disposal of the number of shares remaining subscribed in the Farmers Bank; on the western subscriptions to be taken at the Bank between the hours of ten and five each day, the subscriber to pay ten dollars on each share, at the time of signing, and the residue as follows, to wit: on the thirteenth day of June, ten dollars; on the thirteenth day of August, ten dollars; on the thirteenth day of October, and ten dollars on the thirteenth day of December next, but reserving to any subscriber the liberty of paying at any one of those times the whole of his subscription then due. The amount which may be subscribed above the number limited to be reduced by a proportional deduction out of the several counties on the western shore, if necessary, and the monies that may be received to be immediately repaid at the Bank. Every stockholder shall fail to make regular payments, (after the first payment) such stockholder's money in Bank shall remain free from interest and not entitled to dividend, until such interest or call, shall be made good, and the dividend thereafter to be paid to such stockholder (as well as the money by him regularly paid as upon the said after default) shall be calculated only from the time when said last instalment was made good. All subscribers of the Farmers Bank having subscribed shares of the Farmers Bank having risen above par, and being in great demand, are deemed it to be their duty to give every subscriber in their power to the citizens of every part of the western shore, to become proprietors of a stock, the experience has already attached an high value to the shares of the Farmers Bank, and the subscription of the surplus shares remove the possibility of procuring the stock at a low value, than the successful management of the Bank; and the public opinion should have conferred. Notwithstanding, therefore, that the charter that the subscription books for this stock shall be kept at Annapolis, yet the directors held them at liberty, and have determined it to be their duty to devise means to accommodate the citizens of the several counties who might wish to subscribe, but not attend at Annapolis; in conformity, therefore, to a determination that had already obtained at a meeting of the directors of the Bank and Branch at a similar occasion; the board have adopted the following resolution: That the directors of the several counties on the western shore, be authorized and directed to receive, in their respective counties, from all persons who may wish to subscribe for stock in the Farmers Bank, on or before the thirteenth day of June next, powers of attorney, enabling some person to subscribe for them at Annapolis, and also to receive from persons so directed to subscribe, the sums which are made payable by the Farmers Bank, and all subscriptions made under powers as aforesaid, shall be held as valid; as if made by the individuals themselves at Annapolis.

By order,
JON: PINKNEY, Cashier.

Annapolis, February 19, 1807.

In CHANCERY, January, 1807.
WILLIAM KILTY and William Simmons, Plaintiffs, against
John Lane, Nicholas Lane, Hester Lane, Samuel Lane, William Smith, Theodore Hodgkin and Ajatida his wife, Rachel Smith, Joseph Smith, Hester Smith, Richard Blackall, Nathan Lane, Robert Smith and Richard Smith.

THE object of this bill is to declare void and set aside a deed therein mentioned. The bill states, that one of the complainants, William Kilty, was by a former decree of the court of chancery, appointed a trustee for making sale of the real estate of a certain Samuel Lane, deceased, for the payment of his debts; that the said William Kilty, as trustee as aforesaid, sold to the other complainant, William Simmons, part of the said real estate, to wit: A tract of land called Hornisham, which sale as aforesaid has been confirmed by the chancellor, and the said William Simmons has entered upon, and taken possession of, the said land. The bill further states, that the said William Simmons was about to make payment of the purchase money due from him for the land aforesaid, in order to procure a deed for the same, when he was informed, that the defendants in the bill, had brought an ejectment in the general court, for the recovery of the land aforesaid, claiming the same as the heirs of a certain Samuel M. Lane, and under a conveyance to the said Samuel M. Lane, by the before named Samuel Lane, dated the thirtieth day of June, seventeen hundred and eighty seven.

The bill charges that the said conveyances, as against the creditors of said Samuel Lane, fraudulent and void, and that at the time of the execution thereof, long before, and afterwards; the said Samuel Lane was indebted to an amount greater than the value of his whole estate, and that the said deed was made with an intent to defraud his creditors, and with an expectation either of getting back the said land at a subsequent time, or of enjoying the use and benefit thereof. That the said Samuel M. Lane died in the life-time of said Samuel Lane, who continued considered as the sole owner, and took the rents and profits thereof, and that said Samuel M. Lane never had possession of, or made any claim to, the said land. The bill further states, sundry judgments obtained against the said Samuel Lane in the general court, upon debts which were due at the time of the execution of said deed; and that the present defendants were defendants to the bill, in which the decree aforesaid was obtained; that several of them who were of full age, were in a situation to have been apprised of said deed, but that no claim was set up by them, or either of them, in answering said bill, or defending the suit.

It is stated by the complainants, to the chief judge of the third judicial district, (the chancellor being stated as one of the complainants and interested therein and as having given an opinion thereon) that John Lane, one of the defendants, who is the eldest son of Samuel Lane, and would have been his sole heir, if the act to direct descents had not taken place, has appeared in court to the said bill; and the appearance of the said John Lane to the said bill being entered on the docket. It is thereupon, on the application of the complainants, ordered, by the Honourable Jeremiah T. Chase, chief judge of the third judicial district, that the complainants cause a copy of this notice to be inserted, at least three weeks successively in the Maryland Gazette, before the tenth day of March next, to the end that each of the heirs of the said Samuel Lane, who are defendants in said bill, may have notice of the bill, and of its substance and object, and may be warned to appear in the chancery court on or before the twentieth day of July next, in person or by a solicitor, to shew cause, if any they have, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

JEREMIAH TOWNLEY CHASE,
Chief Judge of the Third Judicial District.

This is to give notice,
THAT the subscriber hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, letters of administration on the personal estate of THOMAS TILLARD, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the proper vouchers thereof, at or before the first day of June next; otherwise they may by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate, and all those indebted to the deceased, either on bond, note, or open account, are requested to make payment to the subscriber, at or before the 15th of March next, or suits will certainly be commenced, without respect to persons. Given under my hand, this 14th day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seven.

WILLIAM S. TILLARD, Administrator of THOMAS TILLARD.

NOTICE.
THE subscriber hereby forewarns all persons receiving an assignment of a bond paid Mrs. SARAH FREELAND; executrix of Dr. Frisby Freeland, for property purchased of Dr. Freeland, which property is now disputed, and until an adjustment takes place, is determined not to discharge, by payment, the amount of the aforesaid bond.

STO. I bus Puer's Potent. ALL A
SELECTED.
AN Orphan Boy, all wan and pale,
Sore pierced with misery's chilling froil,
To tender Anna told his mournful tale,
Of friends, of fortune, and of kindred lost.
She heard, was grieved, and shed a tear,
And on the ground all night it lay—
It froze—the morning found it there,
A pearl of price, a gem of purest ray.
