LeFebre lately lived, about five miles from the city of Annapolis, and twenty from the city of Baltimore, and is very convenient to Severn and Magothy rivers. On the premises are, a good dwelling-house, kitchen, and other improvements. A further description is thought unnecessary, as all persons inclined to purchase, it is presumed, will make themselves acquainted with the property by viewing the premises previous to the day of sale. The terms of sale are, that the purchaser shall give bond, with approved security, for paying the purchase money, with interest, within twelve months from the time of sale.

NICHOLAS BREWER, Trustee.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT the subscriber, of Anne-Arundel county, intends to apply to the county court of said county, at the session in April next, for the benefit of the insolvent law, passed at November session, one thousand eight hundred and five.

SAMUEL HOPKINS, of RICHARD.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT I intend to apply to Baltimore county court, at its next sitting, on the fourth Monday in March next, for the benefit of the insolvent act, passed November session, 1805.

DAVID BUTLER.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber intends to apply, by petition, in writing, to the honorable the justices of the county court for Prince-George's county, to be held at Upper-Marlborough, on the first Monday in April next, for a commission to mark and bound all those tracts or parcels of land, of which the subscriber is seized, lying and being in Prince-George's county, and state of Maryland, known by the names of Piscataway Forest, part of the enlargement of the Mill Dam, part of Patuxent Landing, and the Forest, with Townsend's Discovery, whereof all persons in anywise concerned or interested are hereby desired to take notice.

CHARLES EVERSFIELD, jun.

Public Sale.

By order of the orphans court of Prince-George's county, will be exposed to Public Sale, to the highest bidder, at the farm lately occupied by Mr. RICHARD CRAMPHIN, and at his late dwelling, Bladensburg, on Tuesday, the 10th day of March next, if fair, if not, the first fair day thereafter.

ALL the personal estate of the said deceased (except the crop of tobacco) consisting of a number of valuable servants, amongst whom are an excellent house and kitchen servants, the stock of horses, amongst which are two very pleasant horses, mules, cattle, sheep and hogs, plant utensils of every kind, about 160 bushels of 150 bushels of clean rye, upwards of 20,000 of hay, a large crop of well saved straw, corn, vander, &c. &c. Likewise the unexpired term of lease for 120 acres of land, granted on the 5th of May, 1714, for ninety-nine years, being first after the 31st of May next. This property lies one mile west of Bladensburg, directly on the road to George-town, and contiguous to the property of William Dudley Digges. The improvements are sufficient for the accommodation of a family, and for the advantageous cultivation of the soil. There are 26 bushels of wheat seeded upon about 8 or 10 acres in thrifty clover, a sufficient wood, it is believed, for its support. A further description is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed those who wish to buy will view the property to the sale. An indisputable title will be shown. And, at the dwelling in Bladensburg, a variety of articles of household and kitchen furniture, volumes of valuable books, prints, maps, and articles too tedious to mention. The sale will commence from day to day till all is sold. The terms of sale are, a credit of twelve months for all sums exceeding ten pounds, the purchaser or purchasers to give with two good and sufficient securities, certified from the day of sale, and for all purchases under the amount of ten pounds and under, the same to be paid. No property will be delivered until the purchase money is paid, or bonded for, as above.

THOMAS BOWIE, Administrator.

RICHARD CRAMPHIN.

February 13, 1807.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT the subscriber shall apply to the county court, or to some one of the justices thereof, for the benefit of the insolvent act, passed at November session, 1805, and the supplement thereto, passed November session, 1806.
