ANNAPOLIS, Marth, 1807.
ALTHOUGH little attention has been paid to my former notices, yet my necessities compel me once more, and in the most serious and pressing manner, to call on all persons indebted to me for payments of their respective balances. Those who use or neglect may expect, and must excuse me if I pursue, compulsory measures to enforce a compliance, without which it will be impossible for me to obtain my credit, support a numerous family, and prosecute a very expensive profession.

Family Medicine.

Just received from RICHARD LEE and Son, and for Sale by

Gideon White, Church-street,
An Assortment of PATENT MEDICINE—
For the prevention and cure of bilious and malignant fevers, is recommended
Lee's Anti-Bilious Pills.

Each article has on the outside wrapper, the signature of RICHARD LEE and SON.
Without which, none are genuine.

Prepared by Richard Lee and Son, Baltimore.
PERSONS wishing to purchase this valuable medicine, are requested to be particular in inquiring for Lee's anti-bilious pills, put up in wooden boxes, having on the outside wrapper the signature Richard Lee and Son—this is necessary, as there are other pills of the same name.

THE operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds, which are often of fatal consequences—a dose never fails to remove a cold, if taken on its first appearance. They are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe headach—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Messrs. Richard Lee and Son.

The high opinion I have of your bilious pills, and a desire to make known their utility for the benefit of mankind, I wish you to publish the following:

For two months past, I have been afflicted with a violent sickness at the stomach, an inclination to vomit, and a loss of appetite. By taking two doses of your pills, I am restored to a perfect state of health—which induced my wife to try them also, which was attended with the same good effects, being now able to attend to her domestic concerns: in my opinion, this medicine is unequalled in stomach and bowel complaints, not being attended with that griping pain, common to other remedies.

SONG.

TUNE—The Humours of Glen.

How sweet, on the mountains, when heath-bells are glowing,
To wander and list to the busy wild bee,
Or stray through the grove, where the wild flowers are blowing,
And catch the rich odours that float on the breeze!

Tho' sweet be the breeze from the bosom of roses,
Enchanting the hum of wild bees on the hill,
O MARY, my MARY, far sweeter than those is,
Far purer than dew-gems that shine o'er the rill.

Not the glow of the pink nor the snow of the lily
Can match her soft cheek—or the glow of her eyes!
When she flies, on the wings of a Sylph, through the valley,
To glad the poor cottage where misery lies.

O daughter of beauty, compassion's fair blossom!
Can pity, soft pity alone thy heart move?

O come and repose thy young cares on my bosom;
I'll cherish them there till they bloom into love.

ANECDOTE.

WHEN Addison became secretary of state, his old school mistress, being far advanced in years, grew very deaf. A friend who one day called upon her, told her that her little favourite was now a great man, and a great writer. "Aye (said she) I always thought Jofey was born to be a great man, he was a mighty clever boy, and a deal of pains I took with him; do you know, that before he left me he read very near as well as I did—but pray what has he written?"—"Why, The Spectators."—"The Spectators."—"Speak a little louder pray."—"The eight volumes of the Spectators." "Dear me! Dear me! eight volumes about potatoes? what could he find to say! But I always said Jofey was a clever boy."

BARK.

THE subscriber wants, this Spring, eighty or one hundred cords of good Spanish, water, black or white oak bark, he will give from seven to nine dollars per cord, or at any rate he will give one dollar more than the Baltimore price, if brought to this city; any one having that article to dispose of, within twenty miles of Annapolis, and find it inconvenient to peel or deliver it, he will get it himself, and give a good price in proportion.
