

J. HUGHES,

WATCH-MAKER,

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his friends, and the public, that he has REMOVED, four doors above his former stand, to the house lately occupied by Mr. WILLIAM WILKINS, where he invites a continuance of their favour and encouragement, which affords him pleasure to acknowledge. To his above particular business he promises constant attention, and will be continually supplied with a few warranted WATCHES of different descriptions, and a complete assortment of watch materials: Gold, gilt, and steel chains, seals and keys, elegant plated strings, ladies polished watch chains, &c. Old watches may be furnished with new faces, hands, springs, glasses, bows, screws, all sorts of wheels, holes, pinions, potters, pendants, pillars, or plates, until, like the Logician's boat, it would puzzle the learned to determine whether it was yet the old watch, or a new one with some old pieces in it.

He has made some additions to his former assortment of fashionable

JEWELLERY AND SILVER WARE,

Forming a neat collection of the best workmanship, and at the established Baltimore and Philadelphia prices. Likewise a few plated and Britannia articles, assorted japanned tea-boards, waiters, trays, snuffer and bottle stands. A few handsome looking-glasses, with elegant gilt frames, from the Philadelphia manufactory, of all size ditto, common painted boxes, beads, &c. &c. A beautiful collection of FINE CUTTLERY, superior quality penknives, sportsman's, petit, pruning, fruit, and pocket ditto, assorted scissors, lancets, and lancet cases; pencils, and pencil cases, (with and without pens,) plain, and patent cork-screws, and polished steel snuffers ditto, pocket-books, with and without instruments, theodolite cases, purses, &c. A selection of RAZORS, and brushes, hones, tooth brushes and powder, soaps, pomatum, hair powder, and perfumery. A few gentlemen's spurs, whips, and canes. An elegant assortment of LADIES' COMBS; gold and gilt ornamented, and plain tortoise-shell, mock tortoise-shell, clarified and common horn ditto. Likewise a collection of the best spectacles, silver, plated, tortoise-shell, steel, and metal mounted, together with spectacle glasses of every focus and for all ages, to fit in frames, spectacle cases, goggles, reading glasses and sun glasses.

At the above stand is likewise offered for sale a complete assortment of

UNION TAVERN, CITY OF ANNAPOLIS.

THE subscriber takes this method of informing his friends and the public generally, that he has moved from Upper-Marlboro' to this city, where he has opened a house of ENTERTAINMENT, at the well known stand formerly occupied by GEORGE WILKINS, and hopes his endeavours to please will give satisfaction to gentlemen who may favour him with their custom. SAMUEL J. COOLIDGE. April 14, 1807.

Family Medicine.

Just received from RICHARD LEE and SON, and for Sale by Gideon White, Church-street, An Assortment of PATENT MEDICINE.

For the prevention and cure of bilious and malignant fevers, is recommended

Lee's Anti-Bilious Pills.

Each article has on the outside wrapper, the signature of RICHARD LEE and SON. Without which, none are genuine.

Prepared by Richard Lee and Son, Baltimore. PERSONS wishing to purchase this valuable medicine, are requested to be particular in inquiring for Lee's anti-bilious pills, put up in wooden boxes, having on the outside wrapper the signature Richard Lee and Son—this is necessary, as there are other pills of the same name.

THE operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds, which are often of fatal consequences—a dose never fails to remove a cold, if taken on its first appearance. They are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe headach—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkable efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Messrs. Richard Lee and Son.

The high opinion I have of your bilious pills, and a desire to make known their utility for the benefit of mankind, I wish you to publish the following:

For two months past, I have been afflicted with a violent sickness at the stomach, an inclination to vomit, and a loss of appetite—by taking two doses of your pills, I am restored to a perfect state of health—which induced my wife to try them also, which was attended with the same good effects, being now able to attend to her domestic concerns: in my opinion, this medicine is unequalled in stomach and bowel complaints, not being attended with that griping pain, common to other remedies.

BARK.

THE subscriber wants, this spring, eighty or one hundred cords of good Spanish, water, black or white oak bark, he will give from seven to nine dollars per cord, or at any rate he will give one dollar more than the Baltimore price, if brought to this city; any one having that article to dispose of, within twenty miles of Annapolis, and find it inconvenient to peel or deliver it, he will get it himself, and give a good price in proportion.

JOHN HYDE.

Annapolis, April 8th, 1807.

This is to give notice,

HAT the subscriber, of the city of Washington, in the district of Columbia, hath obtained from the orphans court of Prince-George's county, in the state of Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of Thomas Duckett, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, on or before the first day of October next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Those indebted to the deceased are desired to make immediate payment.

All claims forwarded by mail must be post paid. ALLEN B. DUCKETT, Administrator. City of Washington, March 16, 1807.

Education.

THE revd. Francis Barclay, rector of All-Hallows, Anne-Arundel county, has opened an academy, for the instruction of youth, in the classics and other branches of education, and will take six or eight young gentlemen to board with him; his house being commodious and airy. The situation is dry and remarkably healthy. The terms may be known on application to him, at London-town, near Annapolis.

STOLEN from the subscriber's shelter, on the 27th ult. a grey MARE, about fourteen hands high, six years old, rots and gallops, and full of spirit, she has a bob-tail, and ragged mane, and has been snagged under her left shoulder. Whoever takes up and secures the said mare, so that I get her again, shall receive FIVE DOLLARS, paid by ISAAC JONES, near Queen-Anne. Anne-Arundel county, February 1, 1807.

An Overseer

IS wanted by the subscriber, at his Farm on Road in river; liberal wages will be given to one suitable in all respects. Letters addressed to me in Baltimore, and left at the Haylands, or in Annapolis, at Mr. Alexander's store, with William Johnson, jun. will be duly received and attended to. JAMES CARROLL.

NATIVE HOME.

OVER breezy hill and woodland glade,
At morning's dawn or closing day,
In summer's bounding pomp arrayed,
Or pensive moonlight's silver ray,
The wretch in sadness shall roam,
Who wanders from his native home.
While at the foot of some old tree,
As meditation soothes the mind,
Lulled by the hum of wandering bee,
Or rippling stream, or whispering wind,
His vagrant fancy still will roam,
And lead him to his native home.
Though love a fragrant couch may weave,
And fortune heap the festive board,
Still, merriment would turn to grief,
And reason scorn the splendid dome,
While he, beneath the proudest dome,
Would languish for his native home.
To him the rufy roof is dear,
And sweetly calm the darkest night,
While pomp and power and pride appear
At best the glittering page of men,
Unfought by those who never roam,
Forgetful of their native home.
Let me to summer shades retire,
With meditation and the muse,
Or round the social winter fire
The glow of tempered mirth diffuse;
Though winds may howl and waters foam,
I still shall bless my native home.
And oh, now youth's extatic hour
And passion's glowing noon are past,
Should I not heed the tempest's roar,
And sorrow blow its keenest blast,
My shade no longer doomed to roam,
Shall find the grave—a peaceful home.

From a London Paper.

BUNAPARTE AND THE ECHO.

The following is a translation from the French of the libel for the publication of which the bookseller PALM, of Nuremberg, was lately shot, by sentence of a court martial at Brannau.

Alone I am in this sequestered spot, not over heard!
Heard!
'Sdeath! who answers me? who is it there nigh?
I!
Now I guess! to report my accents, Echo has made her task?
Ask!
Know's whether London will henceforth continue to resist?
Resist!
Whether Vienna and other courts will oppose me always?
Always!
O Heaven; what must I expect after so many reverses?
Reverses!
What, should I, like a coward vile, to compound be reduced?
Reduced!
After so many bright exploits, be forced to restitution?
Restitution!
Restitution of what I've got by true heroic feats and martial deeds?
Yes!
What will be the fruit of so much toll and trouble?
Trouble!
What will become of my people, already too unhappy?
Happy!
What should I then be, that think myself immortal?
Mortal!
The whole world is full of the glory of my name, you know?
No!
Formerly its fame struck this vast globe with terror!
Error!
Sad echo, begone! I grow infuriate—I die!
Die!!!
